STIVER BROS.

Stouffville, Ont.

Office Ph. 45

Word was received by friends of the death of James McGiveren who resided with Mrs. G. H. Turner of Fenelon Falls but lived in Stouffville for many years on Baker Ave., and at the west end. He has been ill for many months and passed away at the Memorial Hospital, Lindsay.

The season is here when men fish and lie about—their fish. Misery loves company if you don't count the folk who drop in right at dinner time. Perhaps, after all, it is only natural that patting a person on the back causes his head to turn.

Weddings

BARKEY — REESOR
On Saturday, June 3rd, Rev. A. J. Heal officiated at the marriage of Norma Mildred Reesor, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Reesor of Cedar Grove, and Joseph M. Barkey, son of Mrs. Barkey and the late Elias Barkey.

The bride wore pale blue silk and was attended by her sister Betty who wore dusty pink crepe. Ernest Smith was best man and the ushers were Murray Reesor and Wilbur Barkey. Dorothy, Eileen and Norma Diller sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love."

Following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, a reception was held. After a wedding trip to Quebec and the New England States, the couple will reside near Cherrywood.

JEAN RENNIE WEDS DOCTOR

In a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spitzer, the marriage was solemnized of Jean Emslie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Rennie, Stouffville, and Dr. H. C. Trevor McDowell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDowell, Shawville, Que. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. O. Johnston in a setting of white lilacs and apple blossoms.

Mr. Spitzer gave the bride in marriage. For the occasion she chose an ankle-length gown of wing blue Chantilly lace over blue crepe and oyster white net. Her hat was of blue tulle with sprays of tulle and lace, and she carried mauve orchids. Mrs. Marshall Soules, Lorne Park, attended the bride in ankle length navy sheer with hat of white Milan straw. Her flowers were white gardenias. Marshall Soules was best man.

A reception followed in the garden.

Rev. Dr. Webber of the Lord's Day Alliance was the speaker at the morning service of the United Church last Sunday. Dr. Webber pointed out the Alliance does not interfere with the way a man wants to spend his own Sunday; but does seek to keep the Sabbath as a day of rest when outside forces encroach on the individual's right to observe it as such. Miss Anne Lehman presided at the organ, in Mrs. Nolan's absence.

An interesting service was conducted by Rev. Douglas Davis in the Stouffville United Church Sunday afternoon when the following children were presented for baptism, Neil Stephenson Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Neil Smith, Eric Belfry Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Belfry Hamilton, Eric Thomas Wedseltoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wedseltoff, Carole Jeanette Hoover, daughter of Mrs. R. Smith and the late Gordon Hoover, Noreen Aleta, Michael Charles and Lillis Jane Epworth, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Epworth.

LOCAL GIRL FIRST JUNE BRIDE

The Stouffville Christian Church was beautifully decorated with standards of white lilac and ferns last Thursday, June 1st, for the marriage of Eileen Joyce Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lewis of Stouffville, and Lawrence Edward Barkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Barkey, Stouffville R.R. Miss Alice Barkey, Stouffville R.R., was the organist and accompanied Howard Baker as he sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white satin gown with full skirt with short circular train, fitted bodice and rolled collar of lace over satin. She wore a Juliet cap and a fingertip veil and carried a cascade bouquet of lily-of-the-valley, maiden hair fern, and bouvardia. She was attended by her three sisters. Miss Connie Lewis, as maid of honour, wore white organdy over blue taffeta with white sash and white organdy poke bonnet. Misses Betty and Carole Lewis as bridesmaids wore gowns of white organdy over yellow taffeta with blue sashes and white organdy poke bonnets. The attendants carried baskets of sweetheart roses and yellow marquerites. Warren Moyer of Stouffville R.R. was best man. Don Lewis, brother of the bride, and Willard Moyer were ushers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Berry of Markham.

For receiving guests at the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother was dressed in pale blue with a corsage of white gardenias and was assisted by the groom's mother dressed in navy with corsage of white gardenias.

For travelling the bride wore a blue suit with corsage of yellow marquerites and forget-me-nots. After a honeymoon in Haliburton, the couple will live in Stouffville.
