Local dealers— Madill's Store and Overland's Store.

Don't forget the Legion dance and carnival this Friday evening. Mr. Ken Wood will be absent from the local Co-op next week on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew have returned from a three weeks visit to Western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pugh visited with relatives at Strathroy on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Feasby of Sandford spent Sunday with Mrs. D. Pugh.

A. B. Reeve won that new-car given away on July 1st by the Pickering Rotary Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Overland and two children spent the holiday with Mrs. Overland.

Mrs. Herbert Forsyth and two sons were weekend visitors at the G. M. Forsyth home here.

Mrs. Brown of London has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings.

Dr. Clark, resident in the former Wagg home near the C.P.R., is not in the best of health and has been obliged to rest for a time.

Mrs. Drake and two sons of Orillia spent several days last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Ward are planning on a month's vacation through the west starting Thursday by motor.

Mrs. Douglas and two children of Woodville visited several days last week with her father, Mr. R. Linn and family.

Mrs. Harkness of Chicago is spending a few weeks with her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. Will and Mrs. Tomlinson and family.

Mr. Loss Hill was slightly injured on Friday while driving a mower, necessitating a rest from mail delivery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mills and daughter of Toronto spent the weekend in our community visiting relatives of the J. McCullough family.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Ormerod and two children of Toronto spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson and family.

Mrs. Hayward of Collingwood, a former resident of Claremont, and Mrs. Barkas Reesor were visiting among old friends in the village last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Kennedy left on Monday for Haliburton where they will spend the summer at the cottage of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. I. E. Kennedy.

Mr. Jack Brignall entered the General Hospital, Toronto, last week where he will be under observation for a couple of weeks due to a kidney condition.

Lloyd Johnston, local township municipal clerk, is leaving for a week's vacation on Saturday. Mr. Johnston and family will motor to Quebec as well as visiting points in the States on the return trip.

A shower for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson, the newlyweds of the previous week, was held on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mate Anderson. We welcome the happy couple to our community.

Chas. Barkey, well known Altona farmer, lost a good horse on Friday. Mr. Barkey had driven his team to Claremont with a load of feed, and was reloading beside the elevators when the animal suddenly keeled over and dropped, lifeless in the harness. The horse was not aged and seemed in apparent good health.

Mrs. J. R. Rumney, comparatively new resident in the former Stanbury home near the C.P.R. sustained a fractured right wrist last week. The lady was hanging clothes on the line at the time of the mishap, when the box on which she was standing suddenly slipped and Mrs. Rumney was thrown to the ground.

The Woman's Association will hold last Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Reynolds, and the secretary, Mrs. Middleton, in their respective places. Mrs. Lehman read the June message, and Mrs. Lippert the story of the hymn "My God I Thank Thee." Mrs. Lackey led in prayer and Mrs. T. Gregg contributed two lovely piano solos. The ladies set up and quilted a fine quilt during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pilkey, John and Judy of Ashburn visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norton and family one Sunday recently.

Mr. John Phillips of Greenbank is spending the summer months with his daughter, Mrs. E. Pilkey, and family of Ashburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox and Linda of Toronto spent a few days last week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dolan of Richmond Hill spent last Thursday afternoon and evening at the Johnson home.

Congratulations must be extended to Marion Norton of Claremont who excelled in the recent Continuation School examinations with nine first-class honours.

The Union Cemetery was beautifully decorated on Sunday with a profusion of fresh glistening flowers. Owing to the rain the service in connection with this annual event was held in the Baptist Church with the Baptist quartette supplying the music.

Rev. H. Lackey delivered the message in a church well filled with people from the community and surrounding district during the afternoon.

The United Sunday School thoroughly enjoyed themselves at the annual picnic last Wednesday afternoon at Lynwood park. There were two well filled buses of adults and children, also a number of family carloads. The weather was fine for wading and swimming in the pools. About sixteen races were enjoyed by the various age groups, and a game of baseball after supper. There was an abundance of good food, orange-ade and tea for all, with safe arrival home again around nine o'clock.

GORMLEY—JONES

Cherrywood United Church decorated with pink and white peonies and orange blossoms, was the setting for the marriage on Saturday, June 24th, of Evelyn Mary Jones, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Jones of Cherrywood, and Arthur Joseph Gormley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matelen Gormley of Brooklin. Rev. J. L. McLachlan performed the ceremony and Mrs. George Todd presided at the organ. Miss Joan Naley of Brooklyn, New York, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a cream satin dress with long train. Her veil was of beautiful silk embroidered lace caught to a coronet of flowers. She carried a cascade of red roses. Mary Anna Morrish of Cherrywood attended the bride as maid of honor and was attired in blue organdy over taffeta with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Carson of Oshawa and Miss Jean Conner of Dunbarton, were similarly dressed in green and orchid organdy over taffeta with matching headdresses and bouquets. Little Carol Smith of Greenbank, cousin of the bride, made a lovely flower girl dressed in yellow organdy and carried a matching nosegay. The best man was Melville Jones of Cherrywood and the ushers were Lloyd Ball of Uxbridge and George Davis of Brooklin.

The reception was held at the bride's home with 130 guests present. Mrs. Jones, wearing blue lace over satin with a corsage of roses, received the guests. She was assisted by Mrs. Gormley, mother of the groom, who wore rose lace and silk with a corsage of roses to match.

For travelling the bride wore white organdy with turquoise shortie coat and white accessories. On their return from a trip through New York and Pennsylvania Mr. and Mrs. Gormley will reside in Whitby.

Work is expected to begin this week on the $60,000 addition to St. Andrew's United Church, Markham. The Veterans' Construction of Stouffville are doing the excavating for the job.
