Tender Closing Date For Home Now Extended

Closing time for tenders for the new Ontario County Home for the Aged has been extended until July 20, it was learned Friday. Previously tenders were to be in by July 11. The reason advanced is that the project is of considerable magnitude and that due to holidays and certain other considerations such as the availability of materials, it has been impossible for all prospective bidders to have their figures completed by the required time.

Several large firms are interested in obtaining the contract for the 250-bed home which will be located close to the present House of Refuge. It is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the end of 1951. Reeve J. A. Hawtin of Beaverton is chairman of the Building Committee.

PINE ORCHARD

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eveleigh and sons of Aurora visited Mr. and Mrs. Chapman over the weekend.

Mrs. W. Reid and Miss Helen attended decoration services at Mt. Albert on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hendry and Janet were holidaying at Penetanguishene.

Master Bruce and Verne Eveleigh are visiting their cousin, Earl Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Lehman and Beverly were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lehman.

J. Hope was a Toronto visitor on Friday.

The Willing Workers met on Mrs. Wood's lawn on Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. Plans were completed for the ice cream social to be held Monday, July 17, on the church grounds followed by a program.

Miss Betty Hope is temporarily employed at York County Hospital in the X-ray section.

Weddings

ANDERSON—WILSON

The marriage of Helen Ethel Jane Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wilson of Balsam, and Earl Thomas Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Anderson of Claremont, was solemnized on June 24th, at the parsonage of Greenwood United Church with the Rev. R. H. Monkham officiating.

The bride was gowned in white bridal-satin styled with a flowing skirt and train. A coronet of white satin ribbon held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of red roses and orange blossoms. Her only attendant, Miss Marjory Rose Appleby, was in yellow taffeta designed with a long full skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink and white daisies which were repeated in her coronet headdress. Mr. George Nookes of Glen Major was best man.

For the reception held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, at which there were sixty guests, the bride's mother was in navy blue faille with a corsage of rose gladiol petals and fern. The groom's mother was in light blue faille with a corsage of pink cornflowers and fern. Both wore matching accessories.

A three-tier wedding cake, flanked with bowls of roses, centred the bride's table. Those pouring tea were Mrs. Alfred Rogers, Brooklin, and Mrs. Joseph Jones, Uxbridge. Among those serving were Misses Eileen Carson, Luella Carson, Bernice McAvooy, Marion Disney, Betty Appleby and Myrna Jones.

For the wedding trip to North-eastern Ontario, the bride was in pale blue faille with white accessories. Before leaving the bride threw her bridal bouquet which was caught by Miss Betty Appleby. The young couple will reside in Claremont.

Temperatures which kill living cells are often only a few degrees above those at which they are accustomed to living.

Now and then we figure any high degree of international cooperation is improbable in a world where most people won't keep to the right on a crowded sidewalk.
