

"QUALITY"

"SERVICE"

Haying & Harvesting

For Haying —
Salt & Brantford Baling Twine.

For Harvesting — Brantford Binder Twine.

INSECTICIDES

ROOT CROP PROTECTION: —
Atox (Derris Dust). C-I-L 3% D.D.T. Dust. C-I-L 5% D.D.T. Dust. C-I-L Borax Turnip Dust.

FOR TOMATOES —
Trox (Fixed Copper Dust). Troxide Dust. Tri-cop Spray.

Earl Spraying & Livestock Spraying.

"We Are At Your Service"

STIVER BROS.

Stouffville, Ont.

Office Ph. 45

FOR DECORATING
Price — Workmanship
With Despatch
Aurora — 4728

W.M. KNAPP
FROM ANY ANGLE LTD.

Flying fish probably move through the air to escape capture by other fish.

FIND MENTAL CASE WANDERING ROADS

Described as a mild type of mental case, a young war veteran who had walked out of Westminster Veterans' Hospital at London, Ont., a week ago, was picked up Friday by Markham township police at Cashel. Chief Clarence Wideman apprehended the man after farmers had reported him wandering on district roads.

The patient had been missing from the London hospital since July 5 and required further treatment, doctors there said. He was taken by Chief Wideman to Sunnybrook Hospital to await transfer back to London.

Mrs. H. Lee has been visiting for the past week with Mrs. Geo. Lee, Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nigh and family of Almira were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nigh of Victoria Street.

Port Perry vs Stouffville this Thursday night. This is the Intermediate ball game postponed from Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Forster, Blackwater, were visitors at the Jess Cober home in the east end on Saturday. Sunday was the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Forster's fifteenth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. MacNabb from Mooresville, Indiana, are visiting in Stouffville this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rae, Unionville, have returned from a week's holidays spent principally in the Niagara Peninsula.

Mr. E. R. Good, local assessor, who has recently completed his work on the Stouffville roll for 1950, has been engaged by the Municipal Council of Elora to assess that town.

The sudden death is reported from Toronto of Frank Hepburn, beloved husband of Cora G. Hepburn and son-in-law of Mrs. Mary Gillion of Stouffville. Deceased was stricken with a heart attack. He was in his 56th year.

Stouffville Fire Brigade was called out on Friday morning to the rear of Stouffville Motors where a bonfire had set off a pile of oily refuse at the back of the garage. The flames were licking dangerously close to the buildings, and a call was put in to the brigade to halt the spread of the fire before any material damage resulted.

Stouffville drew a step closer recently to having a through paved road to the 4th con. west with the oiling of the Markham-Whitchurch townline between the 6th and 4th concessions. More than $30,000 has been spent in widening this stretch of road, cutting down the grades and improving the culverts. The oiling completes the work on the road for this year, but a final hardtop is anticipated another season.

Last Thursday evening there was a happy gathering of friends at Mrs. W. Slack's on O'Brien Ave. to make a presentation to her daughter Audrey and her husband (Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Feasby) in honour of their recent marriage. Mrs. Reg. Button gave the address, and the gifts presented were a coffee table and a piece of aluminumware. The Feasbys are making their home at present with Mrs. Slack.

The pulpit of the United Church was occupied on Sunday morning by Rev. Hartley Harland of Strathclair, who was born in Stouffville. Mr. Harland spoke of Stephen's influence on Saul, and the unconscious witness of our lives from day to day. He is spending some holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stouffer, Mrs. M. Taylor, the Storeys and other relatives. At one time his father lived at Victoria Square. Mr. Harland came to the rescue of Rev. D. Davis, whose voice went on strike this week.

Goodwood Lodges Clean Up July 12th Prizes
Some 35 members of the Goodwood Orange Lodge attended the walk at Uxbridge on July 12th. Eleven lodges took part in the parade, there being 8 men's and 3 ladies'. An outstanding feature this year was Goodwood's record, bringing home first prize for ladies' lodge and first prize for the men's lodge.

A Massey-Harris tractor belonging to Andy Green, 9th con. Whitchurch farmer, took an unfortunate tumble last week from the upper floor of the barn. The machine had been in use hoisting the hay crop into the mow, and was standing on the floor near the open doors overlooking the straw pile in the barnyard below. Several young lads playing about the Green farm started up the tractor and it plunged out the side of the barn and dropped nearly fifteen feet down on the straw pile.

Crash at Ringwood
One of Allen's construction Co. trucks loaded with crushed stone was on its way to the resurfacing job on the 10th of Whitchurch near Lincolnville one day last week, when it met with disaster at Ringwood. Coming up the 8th, and turning east, the truck crossed the bridge and road on the townline, turned over and came to rest with wheels in the air, scattering the stone over the roadside. The driver miraculously escaped injury but the other man in the truck suffered facial bruises and received medical attention. The Company's service truck removed the truck, which appeared to be little the worse for the accident.

Mrs. L. E. O'Neill and Joy are vacationing at Lake Boshkung in Haliburton for a couple of weeks.

Next Wednesday evening, July 26th, the local Legion will sponsor a dance here with games, bingo and refreshments.

Chas. Hoover, clerk of Markham Township, accompanied by Mrs. Hoover, are holidaying this week in Pennsylvania.

Earl Howsam, well-known Altona miller, who moved north of Greenbank some years ago, has returned home from the Toronto General Hospital where he has been confined for some weeks undergoing treatment.

The marriage is announced of Nevis Nellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augusto Valoppi, to John F. Hargrave, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hargrave of Stouffville. The ceremony was conducted on Saturday, July 15th, in Holy Name Church, Toronto, by Reverend Father Leo Smith.

Mrs. M. Farr of Toronto was the lucky lady to win the handsome Frigidaire refrigerator given away at the Stouffville I.O.O.F. street dance on Wednesday evening. T.B. Rae won the radio which was given as second prize, and Mrs. Baird of Hamilton came in third for the tri-lite lamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen of Toronto are vacationing at their cottage "Summerset", Musselman's Lake. The Allen family have been visiting Musselman's Lake more than twenty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whetter and family moved to their new residence on Rose Ave. last weekend. Mr. Whetter who is employed in Toronto since giving up farming in Whitchurch, purchased the home some time ago. It was recently vacated by Mr. Geo. Pearce of the local High School staff, who has bought a home on Park Rd. South.

The cellar was excavated last week for another new home on Lloyd Blvd., the sixth to be under construction on this new subdivision. The latest addition is a house for Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Jack, and is located on the northeast corner of Lloyd and Rose Ave.

Capt. Osterdahl Home For Brief Rest

Capt. Frank W. Osterdahl, of the oil tanker "Imperial Simcoe" owned by Imperial Oil, returned to work on Tuesday after several days' rest at his home at the corner of Rupert Ave. and Charles St. He was called to work this year in March, and generally returns home for the winter months in early December. His next run is to Montreal, but often he is sent to Halifax.

Before moving to Stouffville, Capt. Osterdahl was on Atlantic duty. His vessel had been at Le Havre undergoing repairs at one time during the last war, and he pulled out just before the Germans pulled into port. For the last four years of the war, he was stationed at Halifax. He was Assistant Port Captain, and lectured the men in the navy, chiefly younger officers, on safety precautions in handling gasoline and other high-test fuels. He was in charge of convoys of oil tankers.

Captain Osterdahl has covered most of the world on his trips.

Mrs. A. G. Thompson Suffers Loss of Father

Active as an auctioneer and in real estate work although in his 88th year, James Rae Battsby suffered a stroke at a sale seventeen days before his death which occurred on Tuesday, July 11th, at his home in Campbellford. Death was due to cerebral hemorrhage. A private funeral service was conducted at the family residence by Rev. Mr. Toombs, with interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery in Campbellford on Thursday afternoon, July 13th.

Pallbearers were J.B., Dr. W. R., G.R. and A.G. Thompson, Dr. J. Anderson and Ray Williams, and flower bearers J. C. Anderson, J. A. Anderson, Dr. Ernie Anderson and Harry Anderson.

The late Mr. Battsby was born in and was a life-long resident of Cramah Township, his parents having come from Scotland and settled there. Since 1920 he has been a resident of Campbellford. He is survived by his wife, the former Annie Victoria Anderson, and by one daughter (Nellie M.) Mrs. A. G. Thompson of Stouffville. A brother, William B. Battsby resides in Kingston, Jamaica, while two sisters are left to mourn his loss, Mrs. Harry Mallory of Port Hope and Mrs. Pomeroy of Toronto.

The deceased was active in the Town Council of Campbellford for some time, as well as in the Presbyterian Church, having been Chairman of the Board of Managers at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Stouffville left by train last weekend for Chicago where Mr. Campbell will attend the Lions International Convention.

The closing exercises of Mount Albert Gospel Church Daily Vacation Bible School will be held this Friday at 8 p.m. Come early to see the children's work.

We understand that due to the heavy rainfall on Thursday, July 13th, the uprights of the dam at Longfellow's Pond, 5 miles west of Stouffville, gave way and the water was released.

Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Davis will go to their cottage at Lake Simcoe this week for a month's vacation. Rev. Totten of Richmond Hill will occupy the Stouffville United Church pulpit in Rev. Davis' absence.

Chas. Hooper, popular Markham Township councillor, reports a wheat root in this year's crop which has produced forty-five heads, something of a record. Mr. Hooper's farm is on the 4th concession near Buttonville.

Mr. Earl Norton of North Parkdale, Toronto, will occupy the pulpit in the Stouffville Christian Church, Ballantrae, Musselman's Lake and Lemonville, commencing next Sunday, July 23rd.

Markham Veterans' Association is reported to have purchased the United Church Hall for a price of $6,500. The Markham Church Hall was the former Presbyterian Church, and is being disposed of since the local United Church is adding a large addition to their main auditorium.

James Wright, a patient in the Brierbush Hospital for several months, passed away Friday evening, July 14th, at the age of 78 years. At one time Mr. Wright lived at Nobleton, and for some ten years at the County Home at Newmarket. He was a retired farmer, born in England and having no relatives here, having come to Canada 38 years ago. The funeral from O'Neill's Chapel proceeded to Nobleton for interment on Monday afternoon, July 17th.

Users of the classified adv. columns in The Tribune are reminded that these small ads. are inserted for cash, and telephone orders should be paid promptly during the week of insertion. Considerable work is entailed in constant billings for these small amounts, and we trust you will bear this in mind the next time you phone in a classified.

Mrs. Ray Fleury and daughter Phyllis are holidaying this week at Lakeview House, Jackson's Point.

At least 60 per cent of Chiang Kai Shek's troops, or about 1,800,000 men, were lost during 1948.

Next Wednesday night, the classy West Toronto Seniors will be the visitors in the local park against Stouffville baseball intermediates.

Have you had a try at that $50 in prizes being offered by Eastside Motors, Ford-Monarch dealers in Stouffville, to drive that 1950 Ford test car with the gasoline mileage tester, attachment. It's a test of your driving skill. It's fun and it's profitable. Read the display adv. in this week's issue.

Misfortune caught up with Mrs. K. G. Tarr of O'Brien Ave. spending the weekend at her son's cottage at Hawk Lake. As Mrs. Tarr and Mrs. Verna Tarr Wright of Toronto came out of the store, Mrs. Tarr was interested in the storekeeper's children down by the lake mistaking the second step for the first, she stepped down and fell, breaking her right wrist. Mrs. Wright ran for Clayton Tarr to bring his car, and they drove the 35 miles to Haliburton to have a doctor X-ray and set the broken bone. Though not as young as she once was, "Aunt Polly" as so many in Stouffville like to call her, is the kind who takes things as they come and makes the best of them.

SEES YORK COUNTY PASSING CITY POPULATION

The population of York County will exceed that of the City of Toronto within the next 10 years, Clive Sinclair, county warden, recently declared.

"That will be quite a mouthful for the City of Toronto to swallow, without serious digestive disturbances," Mr. Sinclair told the Kiwanis Club.

Deaths

CAMPLIN, Rachel—At Bradford Thursday, July 13, 1950, Rachel Horne, wife of the late James W. Camplin of Unionville, in her 97th year, dear grandmother of Eileen Cunningham (Cooke), Service at Central United Church, Unionville. Interment Greenbank Cemetery.

HOPBURN, Frank C.—Suddenly at Toronto on Friday, July 14, 1950, Frank C. Hepburn, beloved husband of Cora M. Gillion and dear brother of James of Verdun, Charles of Beebe, Que., and Jessie Williams of Detroit. Service 1.30 p.m. Monday. Interment Markham.

Drive in at the sign of the Big B-A

FOR

- 88 and 98 Gasoline
- Lubrication
- Oil Changes
- Car Washing
- Tire Repairs
- Battery Charging

Under the capable supervision of Bill Sanders

EASTSIDE MOTORS

— Phone 64w1 —

Youth for Christ STOUFFVILLE

7.45 — Films for Young and Old.

8.00 p.m. — "Come along" and "Sing along" in your favorite choruses with us, also hear the special numbers for your pleasure and blessing by:

The Altona Girls' Trio.

The Y.F.C. Girls' Choir and

Alice Barkey at the Piano.

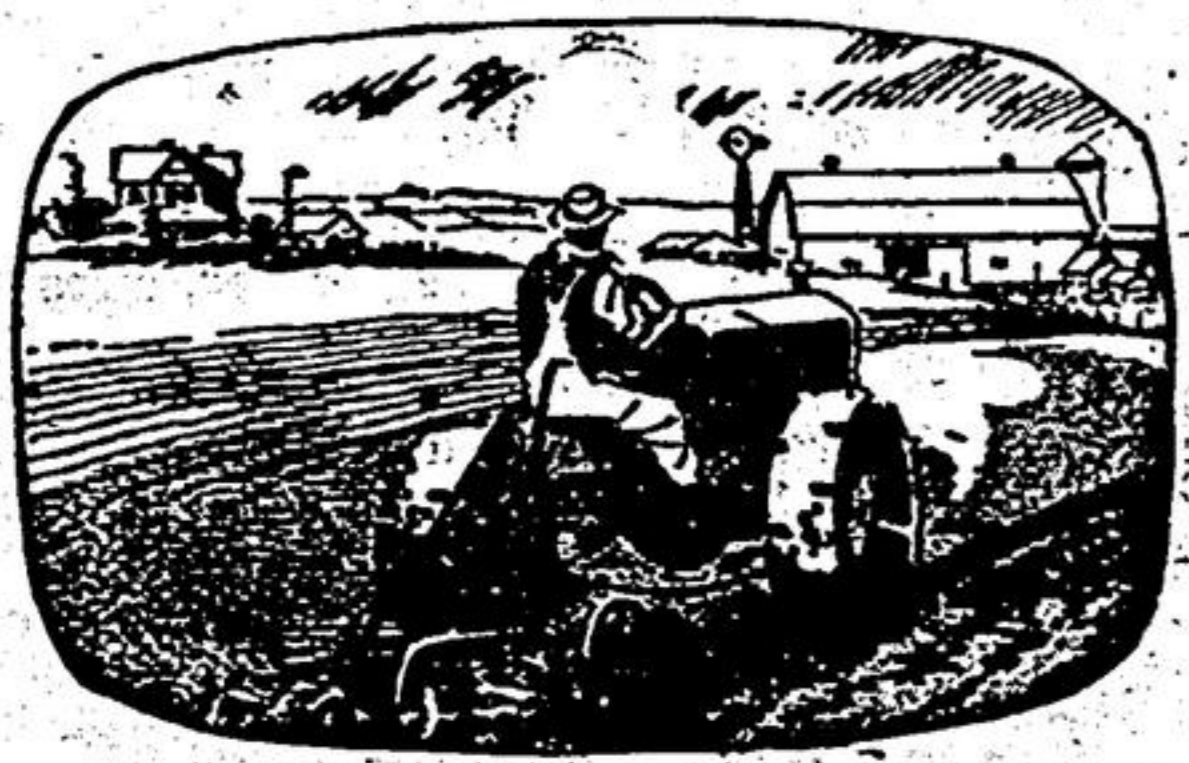

9.30 — Closing Film "The Salt of the Earth," A modern story of Stewardship & Evangelism. Presenting — Christ the Way, While yet it is day.

N. Rowan, Director.

"I've licked my problem of this year's supply of gasoline, oil and grease"

"I signed up with my local co-op, assuring delivery. I'm saving by doing it — and I'm sure I'm getting the best!"

at your

STOUFFVILLE
CO-OP
ASSOCIATION
Phones 269 and 122