BLOOMINGTON

Mrs. Bert Johnston and Douglas have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Foote for the past week. The Johnstons have recently moved from their former home in Hamilton to 5 Cameron Street in Dundas.

CEDAR GROVE

Miss Myrtle Hamill recently returned home after a three week trip to the Maritimes.

Please keep in mind Cedar Grove Community Club corn roast on Friday, Sept. 15. Further details later.

While here attending the Exhibition, Mr. and Mrs. Art Evans and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler, and son Bryan all of Kitchener, spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Art Clendenen. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Clendenen are sisters.

If anyone wishes some strawberry or raspberry plants, you can get them at the Community Lot before Sept. 4. Yours for the taking.

Congratulations to Pat and Don McClelland on the birth of a baby girl last Friday at Women's College Hospital, Toronto.

Bethany Church Site of Church Conference

The annual provincial conference of the United Missionary Church will be held in Bethany Church, Kitchener, from Sept. 19-23.

Announcement that Kitchener had been chosen as host to the 67th conference was made last week. Approximately 75 ministerial and lay delegates are expected to be present.

BUILDS RANCHSTYLE RESIDENCE FOR $6,000

Harry Le Masurier started two years ago with a chicken coop measuring 20 by 50 feet in Markham Township near Langstaff. Now, he has a two-bathroom house he figures would cost $20,000. Spending only $6,000, Mr. Le Masurier, hospital manager at the Department of Veterans Affairs Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto, did all the work himself.
