Local and Personal Happenings

A special Thanksgiving service will be held at Baker Hill Baptist Church on Sunday, Oct. 8, at 7.30 p.m. W. S. Whitcombe will be the speaker. Special music. The church will be decorated.

Mr. Jas. Austin associated with L. E. O'Neill, local funeral director in Stouffville, was in Hamilton early this week attending the annual provincial funeral directors' convention.

Norm Farr, proprietor of Stouffville Radio Electric expressed satisfaction to your columnist at the fine response given his 5th anniversary special two-day demonstration last week. Between two and three hundred persons enjoyed free afternoon tea at the local electrical centre, and many hundreds watched demonstrations on the latest automatic washing and ironing devices, in addition to several television models.

WEDDINGS

ALICE ARNOLD WEDS AT VIVIAN CHURCH

Vivian church was the scene on September 9 of the wedding of Alice Grace Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Arnold, Siloam, and Harold Stanley Sherman Risebrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aiseton Risebrough, Mount Albert. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli and asters. Clarion Baker was organist. Rev. Norman Rowan officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin with lace yoke and fingertip veil. Her flowers were white gladioli and red roses. Her sister, Laura, was matron of honor and chose turquoise blue taffeta with matching headress. She carried a nosegay of pink gladioli and roses. Winnifred Skinner was flower girl and wore a white dress with hoop skirt, carrying blue bachelor buttons and red roses. Gerald Emmons was best man and Herbert McOrle and Thomas Bullock were ushers.

The bride's mother received in navy faille with grey accessories, assisted by the groom's mother who chose brown silk jersey with gold accessories. For travelling the bride wore brown silk flowered dress with brown accessories. After a happy honeymoon in Collingwood and district, the couple will reside in Mount Albert. Guests were present from Kingston and Barrie.

CUTHBERTSON—MARTIN

Central United Church, Unionville, was the setting when Jean Aileen Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey Martin, became the bride of Charles Taylor Cuthbertson. Rev. W. Butt performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white sheer over taffeta, with floor-length net veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli. The bridal attendants were Mrs. Louis Stonehouse, Margaret and Shirley Martin and Mrs. Robert Shaw. They were gowned in rayon taffeta and lace in pink, blue and turquoise and carried shower bouquets of gladioli. Alex Cuthbertson was best man and the ushers were Louis Stonehouse and David Cuthbertson, all of Noranda, Quebec.

At the reception held in the church parlors, the bride's mother received in gray dress and accessories and picture hat. Mrs. Alex Cuthbertson, aunt of the groom, assisted in gray printed crepe dress with wine accessories.

HILL—HOOVER

On Saturday, Sept. 30, a beautiful autumn wedding was solemnized at the Gormley United Missionary Church when two graduates of Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener, Blanche Josephine Hoover, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, and Elmer William Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hill, Providence Bay, were united in marriage by Rev. W. M. Shantz, Principal of Emmanuel Bible College, assisted by Rev. C. A. Berry. Miss Marian Barkey played the wedding music and Rev. L. K. Sider sang "O Perfect Love," and "Intreat Me Not to Leave Thee." Bronze, yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown with bertha collar and lace yoke, a matching satin and lace halo held in place the finger tip tulle illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white 'mums and pink roses. Her sister Doris, maid of honour, wore a floor length dress of d'ange blue tissue faille and Miss Helen Doner, bridesmaid, was similarly attired in tangerine tissue faille. Both carried nosegays of bronze and white 'mums. Mr. James Hill of Providence Bay was best man. Mr. Burton Wilson, Owen Sound, and Mr. Warren Moyer, Markham, were ushers.

A reception at "Oakyard," the Hoover home, followed, the bride's mother wearing a toast brown crepe dress with brown accessories and the groom's mother chose navy blue crepe with black accessories.

For travelling the bride wore a blue ensemble with wine accessories. After a short honeymoon Mr. Hill will return with his bride to his farm at Providence Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reid of Toronto were visitors with Mrs. A. V. Nolan during the weekend.

Vern. Trunk, well-known employee of the Perkins gas and oil sales, Unionville, has left his position there after several years.

Archie Little, prosperous Cedar Grove farmer reports a yield of 80 bushels to the acre of oats this year, and a corn crop which is so heavy, he has been forced to leave three acres of it outside the silo.

Public Skating at the Arena this Saturday, Oct. 7th; Wed., Oct. 11th; and Sat., Oct. 14th. Watch the Bulletin Board on Main St. for any additional public skating. No arrangements for children's public skating on Saturday afternoons will be made before November.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Miss Helen Lehman on Thursday evening to tender a miscellaneous shower to Miss Dixie Forrester, local bride-to-be. Miss Forrester is employed at the B. & S. Telephone office and her marriage to Robert (Bun) Sellers will take place in October.

Word has been received by George Abell's parents that their son has arrived safely in England, and found his wife and children well. Just before the ship on which he sailed reached her destination, she encountered a severe storm. Members of the local branch of the Legion presented George with a very fine watch on the eve of his departure to join his family who flew to England earlier in the year.

Constable Rusnell was called out on Sunday evening, when a quartette of young fellows continued to annoy the homes of several people who were ill, on Church St. Although one householder informed The Tribune that the names of the annoying youngsters are known, no action is contemplated. It is sincerely hoped that parents of these boys will see that they cease to make a nuisance of themselves, particularly in these homes where there is sickness.

Mr. Myron Anderson, who recently sold his home on William St. to Mr. J. Alexander, has purchased the John Cleaver property on Albert St. south, two doors north of the Gold Fish Supply plant. Mr. Cleaver has taken up quarters in the home of Mrs. H. Barnes at Baker Hill, while Mrs. H. J. Hoidge who also lived in the Cleaver home is staying in Mrs. Austin's Rest Home at Curtis, Ontario, in the Bowmanville district.

Some seventeen members of the Melville Woman's Association met in Stouffville on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27th, at the home of Mrs. Edgar Nigh on Victoria Street. Mrs. J. Mauder presided for the business period while Mrs. H. Forrester presided for the program. Miss Jennie Carruthers conducted the devotional period and led in prayer, substituting for Mrs. McKay. Mrs. Claude Brillinger contributed two vocal numbers. Mrs. Ross Winterstein gave a reading entitled "The Old Violin," and as Miss J. Brodie was unable to be present to give the talk she planned, Mrs. Winterstein spoke on "Faith." The program and refreshments were in charge of Mrs. H. Forrester and Mrs. Edgar Nigh.

Old Landmark Dismantled

One of Stouffville's landmarks for more than sixty years, the steeple atop the present Raxlin Block, was dismantled last week in the course of renovations being made to the building by Mr. Raxlin. The block of stores centrally located in the business section was erected by W. J. Mertens more than sixty years ago. Mr. Mertens was for many years a photographer in the building. The east side was occupied by the Free Press, newspaper of that day operated by the Covington Bros., while located in the west half was a drug store.

The fine weather of the last weekend sent a good many of local residents scurrying back to their Haliburton summer spots for one more glorious outing with Mother Nature. Temperatures rose well above the seventy mark, and were not very conducive to ice skating which provided part of the entertainment in town Saturday night. Nevertheless, some three hundred took to the blades, many in their shirt sleeves. The balmy weather has been a real boon to farmers hastening with their late root crops, and some grain which had been pinned down by the cold wet weather of the previous couple of weeks.

Mr. Wes. Schell has completed the sale of his residence on Victoria Street occupied for several years by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haynes. The Haynes family will be moving shortly to their new home now under construction on Lloyd Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bray of Toronto are the purchasers of the Schell house which they will occupy sometime in November. Mr. Bray is an accountant with the Federal Government Income Tax Dept.

Stouffville Municipal Council will hold their regular October meeting this Thursday evening in the Municipal Building.

Mrs. H. S. Hallman and Gloria spent the weekend with the former's sister, Miss Muriel Alexander at Ompah, where she is a missionary. In this large northern district, Miss Alexander serves in three churches and teaches religious instruction in five schools during the week.

Orders are being taken at the Toronto markets for Thanksgiving turkeys this week and the price is 70 cents a pound, not quite as high as had been anticipated. Chickens on the city market are selling at 55 and 60c a pound, with some ducks at 60c.

Some two weeks ago Mrs. William T. Wilson of the east end of town was returning to her home from the nearby home of her daughter, Mrs. V. Pennanen, when she had the misfortune to fall and break her hip. The accident occurred during a rainstorm. Mrs. Wilson has been hospitalized in Toronto, but expects to be discharged soon. As she will be unable to walk for three months, the patient plans to spend some time at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Reynolds.

Sixteen rinks competed in the Mixed Doubles Tournament staged at the local greens by the Men's Bowling Club last Thursday evening, Sept. 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hammond of Claremont were first for 3 wins, second high for 3 wins were Mr. E. Daniels and Mrs. Fred Crossen, high for 2 were Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Wagg, and high for one were Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Watts.

On instruction of the municipal council Harry VanEeno, the town maintenance man, recently removed the hedge from the boulevard immediately west of the municipal offices and fire hall. The hedge, which consisted of red spirea and barberry bushes and a venerable lilac tree, had been there for years and had developed large woody roots and was difficult to keep looking trim, so it was felt advisable to do away with it. The boulevard now has a tidy but somewhat bare appearance.

Mrs. S. Shankel has been visiting for a few days with Mrs. H. Gilfoyle in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Clark of Peterboro spent a few days with Mrs. T. W. Klinck at her home on O'Brien Ave.

North York Plowing Match this year will be held on the Win. Timbers farm on the outskirts of Stouffville on Wednesday, Oct. 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dowswell of Goodwood were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. Boyd, Mill Street.

The regular Tuesday open night for the local merchants has now been discontinued for the fall and winter months. Stores will now be open Saturday evenings only.

Here's one to cry over—John Empringham located at lot 3, on the 5th concession of Whitechurch is displaying a Spanish onion which he grew, and which weighs one pound, two ounces, and measures 13 1/4 inches around.

Stouffville Creamery Co. is calling for a hundred new cream shippers. If you were formerly shipping your cream to Toronto it will pay you to enquire about the attractive rates and services afforded shippers to the local creamery.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cober during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cubitt and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Weston of Stayner, Mrs. Harvey Dale, Mrs. T. W. Wallace, Mrs. Rae and two sons of Toronto; Mr. John Pearce of Collingwood, Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Victor Appleton of Toronto.

Mr. Geo. Saunders, local post office caretaker for nearly a quarter century, tells us he has purchased a building lot from Mr. A. Campbell on Second St. just to the rear of the Dr. Bodendistel residence, and intends to erect a new home there within the next year. Mr. Saunders who has handled the post office caretaking duties ever since the building was erected, and has kept the place in shining order amid a beautiful flower garden, will be retiring from the Civil Service next year.

Mr. Arnold Hodgkins, well-known artist who conducted a class in the Stouffville High School last spring during the Hobby Course here, will shortly move to Stouffville along with his wife and family. The Hodgkins will occupy the McCreight house on Main St. near the C.N.R. and at present occupied by Graydon Baines who is erecting a new home on Lloyd Blvd. Mrs. Yearsley, a tenant on the upper floor will remain. Local folks will be interested to learn that for a period of two weeks, commencing Oct. 2nd, an exhibition of fine art at the Toronto Art Gallery, will display eight canvases done by Mr. Hodgkins. One of the portraits is of the artist's son, Garry, and another of his wife. The work of five artists will be on display, the others being, June McCormick, Jim Williamson, William Gee and Adrian Dingle, the latter being from Cooksville. At present the Hodgkins family is living at Cedar Grove.

Scarcely a home remains in Stouffville in which at least one member has not suffered from the recent flu epidemic.

I'm Always Delighted to get letters from readers who've tried and liked the products I recommend. Here's one that's particularly enthusiastic: "Thanks a million for your tip on Sloan's Lintiment. You've no idea how it relieves the occasional rheumatic pains I have. I'll never again be without Sloan's!" Yes, rheumatic pains go deep. That's why you should go after them with deep-acting SLOAN'S LINIMENT. It's such a comfort when you're suffering from rheumatism or sore muscles — a sprain, a stiff neck or neuralgia. Such soothing warmth for almost instant relief! At any drugstore for just 40c a bottle.

When Meal-Getting Time is rushed, it's extremely annoying to be slowed up by a hard-to-open package. That's why I'm delighted with the new, easy-to-open DURHAM CORN STARCH package! Just break the seal and inside you'll find Durham Corn Starch neatly protected in a paper bag. No fuss — no bother! Then, when you've used as much "Durham" as you need at the time, replace the top of the package. It will protect your corn starch from dust 'til the next time you need it. And, if you've never tried the luscious recipes on the Durham package, you've a treat in store! I particularly recommend the one for Lemon Pie! It's an Ann Adam recipe, so of course it's delicious!

Planning A Bridge Party? Your list of "nothing-but-the-best" refreshments won't be complete without RED ROSE TEA! Yes, Red Rose is a taste-treat to cause happy comment among your bridge guests. And it's not just a special occasion treat, but so economical that you can make an every-day, year-round habit of it! Did you know that a delicious, flavour-packed cup of Red Rose Tea costs you less than a cent — including the cream and sugar? It's a simple, mathematical fact! Because Red Rose Tea is good tea, it actually gives you more cups per pound — its flavour goes a long, long way! Just one more thing. When you're ordering your Red Rose Tea, ask for Red Rose Coffee, too! You will find that Red Rose Coffee is as good as Red Rose Tea.

Ever Taste A Dream?... just wait 'til you taste this dreamy, delicious Egnog Sponge Cake, made with SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR! That's the flour, you know, that's sifted over and over again until 27 times as fine as ordinary flour. It makes the lightest, fluffiest, dreamiest cakes imaginable!... Egnog Sponge Cake

1 cup sifted Swans Down Cake Flour	1/4 tspn. mace
1 tspn. Calumet Baking Powder	2 eggs, unbeaten
1/4 tspn. salt	2/3 cup sugar
	2 tbspn. shortening
	1/2 cup hot milk
	1/2 tspn. grated lemon rind

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and mace. Sift together three times. Beat eggs with rotary egg beater until they are foamy throughout. Add sugar gradually, beating constantly until very thick and light. Add shortening to hot milk and heat until melted; then add to egg mixture, mixing quickly. Add all flour and lemon rind and beat with rotary egg beater only until smooth. Turn into round, 9-inch layer pan. 1 1/2 inches deep, which has been lined on bottom with paper, but not greased. Bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) about 15 minutes. Cool in pan. Split cake in half. Spread whipped cream or custard filling between halves. Sit powdered sugar over top of cake.
