

Local and Personal Happenings

"QUALITY" "SERVICE"

Buy FUL-O-PEP "THE FEED OF CHAMPIONS"

- Ful-O-Pep Calf Meal and Pellets
- Ful-O-Pep Calf Starter
- Ful-O-Pep Fitting Ration
- Ful-O-Pep 24% Dairy Ration
- Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash
- Ful-O-Pep Super Greens
- Ful-O-Pep Fattening Feed
- Ful-O-Pep Sow Ration
- Ful-O-Pep Pig Starter
- Ful-O-Pep Horse Feed
- Quaker Calf Meal
- Quaker Schumacher Feed

STIVER BROS.

Stouffville, Ont. Office Phone 45

Keep Oct. 26-27 open for the hilarious comedy drama being put on in the Veterans' Hall here by the Stouffville Lions Club.

Murray Daniels of Stouffville was removed to hospital in Toronto on Sunday evening where he underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lee of Uxbridge marked their 61st wedding anniversary this month. Mrs. Lee who is in her 82nd year was born in Stouffville. The couple were married here 61 years ago by Rev. Mr. Brown. Mr. Lee is in his 83rd year.

There'll be a Bingo and Dance with a Westinghouse electric washer topping off a list of six fine lucky draw prizes in the Veterans' Hall, Stouffville, on Friday, Oct. 20th. Proceeds are in aid of the Building Fund for St. Patrick's Church, Markham.

Rev. Douglas Davis was the visiting minister at the anniversary services at Zion Church, Wexford on Sunday evening. L. C. Murphy and the local United Church choir and organist provided the musical portion of the service.

Henry Ogden and family moved last week from their residence on Church Street to an apartment above Mr. Ogden's Massey-Harris block on Market Street. Mr. Ogden recently disposed of his house on Church Street to Mrs. W. H. Shaw.

Copies of The Tribune can be purchased each Thursday at the office of this newspaper, at Watson's Store, Goodwood, Padgett's and Madill's Stores in Clarendon, in Markham at Wood's Drug Store, and in Brougham at the Postoffice Store.

The Tribune welcomes your contributions to our column "Editor's Mail."

Mrs. J. H. Ratcliff has returned from a visit to London and Brantford.

Rev. and Mrs. Norman Rowan left on Monday to spend two days in Kingston.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Nelson Nendick, a former resident in Stouffville paid her first visit here this week in more than twenty years. Mrs. Nendick has just returned from England where her brother recently passed away, and has been visiting at the Gar Lehman home on the outskirts of town. Other visitors at the Lehman home during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. Ora Reaman of Toronto.

The October meeting of the Garret Evening Auxiliary was held in the United Church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 11th, the president, Mrs. J. M. Storey, presiding. The devotional was given by Miss Anne Lehman, her theme being "Christ's Disciples Bring Light." Mrs. Spofford sang a delightful solo after which the guest speaker, Mrs. Olsson of Mount Albert, was introduced by Mrs. Storey. Mrs. Olsson was a missionary in Asia from 1910 until 1947, when she retired. She gave a graphic and historic sketch of Korea, bringing her remarks right up to the present time, stressing that Korea is the most important country in the communist scheme of aggression, Formosa being next, as they form the gateway to Japan and China. Miss Webster tendered a note of thanks to the guest speaker and all those taking part. A social hour followed.

E. A. Grubin, R.O., Optometrist, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday, Oct. 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. MacNabb of Mooresville, Indiana, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott this week.

The Motor License Office at Unionville will be closed on Saturdays till the end of the 1950 Motor License year. The other days will have the usual hours.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rengel of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ingleton and family of Agincourt were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hughes, Lloyd Blvd., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sherk of Kitchener visited on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. Goudie.

The furniture sale at the John Cleaver home on Albert St. had to be postponed last week due to the rains, and will be held next Monday afternoon, Oct. 23rd.

Monster Bingo and Dance will be held in the Veterans' Hall, Stouffville, on Friday evening, Oct. 20th, proceeds in aid of St. Patrick's Church Building Fund, Markham.

Mrs. John Snowball, Unionville, and mother of our local barber, Bob Snowball, marked her 83rd birthday recently. Mrs. Snowball was not enjoying the best of health last week and we understand is now improving.

Mrs. Win Timbers was the guest speaker at the Unionville Flower Show held recently. She showed coloured slides on various subjects. Mr. H. O. Klink was the judge for the exhibits at the show.

Ratcliff & Co. local grocery and largest handler of fruit, such as peaches and grapes which they obtain in great quantity and excellence from the Vineland-Bronte orchards, disposed of more than 3,000 baskets of peaches in the season just recently ended.

Mr. John Rae of Espanola was a visitor in town last week and looks fine. John has sold his tourist camp he has been operating at Espanola for the past two years and is once more foot loose and looking for an opening in this vicinity. He reports Mrs. Rae and the family all in good health.

Last Saturday Mr. Ross Winterstein accompanied his mother, Mrs. Robert Winterstein, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hackner of Uxbridge R.R., where they were guests for the wedding of Irah Hackner and Ross Melville Weller. Mrs. Robert Winterstein is a great aunt of the bride. A great uncle attended from Bala, and included among the guests were some from Toronto and Newmarket also.

An auction sale of household effects in Uxbridge last week closed out a home and saw the removal of a family well-known for many years in that town and in Stouffville also. W. F. Marquis, "Bill" as he was familiarly known left Uxbridge to reside in future with his daughter, Mrs. Garnet Eastwood in Cornwall. Bill Marquis has been known by farmers in the district for over forty years where he carried on in the auctioneering profession. Failing health for the last few years forced him to give up his trade.

Work is expected to commence shortly on the new C.N.R. crossing at Stouffville. The plank crossing which has been in use on Main Street for years has always been a headache for section men whose job it was to keep it in smooth condition for traffic. The old planks will be replaced by a tarmac crossing, for which the stone was delivered here last week. It may be necessary to reroute through traffic for a time while the change-over is being made.

Stouffville's few small industries located in and near the town are always a source of inestimable value as publicity agents. Writing to a friend in town, George Abell who recently sailed to England on the liner, Empress of Scotland, relates that he was both surprised and delighted to find on the menu of this floating hotel, Stouffville Brome Lake duck. Another citizen tells us that during a stay at the Chateau Laurier Hotel in Ottawa, he found Swiss Cheese from Homey Farm, 10th con. Stouffville, among the delicacies on the menu.

Mr. Glen Lamont of Chelsea Rd., Wilson Heights, Toronto, was the lucky winner of the car given away by the Stouffville Branch of the Legion on Thursday evening of last week. Mr. Lamont is a foot-wear salesman for B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. He is married and has a small son, and drives a Company car but had no car of his own until he was fortunate enough to win one on his Stouffville ticket. Jean Noble, small daughter of Mr. Harry Noble of Glasgow, drew the lucky ticket bearing Lamont's name.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams, Mill Street, have returned home after enjoying a week's holiday at their cottage on Lake Kushog, in Haliburton.

Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Hallman left on Monday morning for Ohio, where they will be in attendance at an inter-conference of the United Missionary Church for two or three days.

Mrs. Frank Badgero will give a demonstration of nylon products on Friday, Oct. 20th, at 2 p.m., in the Municipal Hall, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. Tea will be served. Everybody welcome.

Dr. Ron Smith has taken over the complete practise formerly operated under the veterinarians, Dr. Bodendistel & Smith. Dr. Smith has enjoyed a wide practise during his association in the firm and wishes to assure local farmers that he will continue to serve this area by personal call and through the newly opened office on Main St. west.

Mr. William Simpson has purchased the William Burkholder property on Second St. now occupied by Mrs. M. E. Anderson. George Allison was the real estate broker who negotiated the deal. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Burkholder and daughter plan to occupy the home. Mrs. Anderson will move to Toronto shortly, and Mrs. D. J. Williamson who had rooms there will move at the end of the month to live with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Byer at Markham R.R.2. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Williamson will be greatly missed in town by their many friends.

Bruce Smith of CIBC, Toronto radio station, and well-known for his program "Toast & Jamboree" heard over the CBC each morning, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Stouffville Lions Club on Monday evening. Mr. Smith took the members on a word tour of the CBC studio building in Toronto and gave the club many interesting and amusing slants on Canadian broadcasting. Broadcasting in Canada is conducted on a very high plane, Mr. Smith believes. He pointed out many interesting features of CBC Broadcasting which tend to show that much of the criticism levelled at the Corporation is unjustifiable. The speaker was introduced by Lion Norm Farr and a vote of thanks was moved by Lion Jack Smits. Mr. George Pearce, member of the Stouffville-High School staff, was inducted into the local club, Past Presidents L. C. Murphy and A. H. Williams officiating.

Guests of Mrs. Delbert Holden of Main Street are enjoying an interesting trip through the United States and Canada. They are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner of Reedley, California, with their son Gordon and daughter Nancy. They have been visiting relatives in the district, including Mrs. Truman Holden, grandmother of Harold Turner. Their trip to date has covered 4,000 miles of country, through Utah, Wyoming, to Fort Frances and through the west. They crossed the line at Windsor and included Niagara Falls, taking colored pictures as they go. These pictures will bring back happy memories of the Stouffville district when they return home. Early Wednesday morning the Turners left for Ottawa, where for four days Mr. Turner will attend Christian Business Men's Association International. They will include Montreal, New York and Washington on their route back to California.

Woman's Association Held Thanksgiving Meeting
Rev. Mr. McLaughlin of Whitevale gave a devotional talk on "Thanksgiving" at the open meeting of the Woman's Association in the United Church on Monday evening, at which guests from Cherrywood and Locust Hill were present as well as ladies and men of the home congregation. "The Psalms were crystallized in tears," said the speaker. He pointed out the Pilgrim Fathers did not have ease, luxury, comfort or abundance, nevertheless, they said they must have a day to give thanks. "Genuine gratitude is not measured by things seen and temporal" he continued, "most of us make too much of what we have not, and not enough of what we have. The things I miss, may be among God's best gifts."

Mrs. Hagerman of Locust Hill, Mrs. Millen of Cherrywood and Mr. Robert Bone contributed solos, and Mrs. R. Fleury a reading. Others taking part in the program were Mrs. C. Nolan, Mrs. J. Gayman, Mrs. A. Campbell and Rev. D. Davis. Mrs. Delbert Booth, vice-president, presided.

H.S. NOTICE
All those interested in the resumption of the (a) evening shop classes, (b) Basic English classes for New Canadians will please contact the Principal of the High School personally or by telephone 373J or 181.
Further announcement as to first meeting will be announced in this paper.

Miss Norma Joyce Davis, daughter of Mr. Horace A. Davis and the late Mrs. Davis, was married to Albert John Hosking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, John Hosking of Markham, on Oct. 14, in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham.

ATKINSON-ROCHE
On Thursday, October 12th, in a quiet ceremony in Toronto, Mary Josephine Roche, Reg. N. of Toronto, was united in marriage to Victor Harland Atkinson of Stouffville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Roche of Killaloe and the groom is the son of Mrs. Atkinson and the late James Atkinson.
After a trip to points in the United States the couple will reside in Stouffville.

COOK-FORSYTH
A marriage of wide interest took place in Eglington United Church when Winnifred Joy Forsyth, daughter of Mrs. Forsyth and the late Mr. Ernest Forsyth, was married to Mr. Jasper Cook, son of Mrs. J. Cook and the late Mr. Cook. Rev. W. J. Johnston officiated.
The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. S. F. Copeland, wore a graceful gown of white Chantilly lace with matching hat and carried red roses and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss Dorothy Scott, who had chosen a red taffeta dress with matching hat. Mr. Gordon Penrose was groomsmen and the ushers were Mr. James Street and Mr. George Metcalfe.
Following a reception in the Prince Arthur House the couple left for a honeymoon in Florida. They will live in Toronto.

Mrs. Will Clarkson of Altona has been enjoying raspberries from her garden for the past few days.
Mrs. E. W. Leith, Mrs. F. Garland and Mrs. Herb Barnes of Toronto were guests recently at the Mertens home.
Misses Elsie and Edith Hutchinson of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winterstein.
Mr. Berkeley Feir of Haliburton, son of Mr. Hedley Feir of Main St. West, together with his wife and son Creighton, spent a couple of days last week with Mr. H. Feir and Miss Vera Feir.
Dr. and Mrs. Neil Smith were in Omenee on Wednesday attending the funeral of the late Mrs. R. J. Adams. The late Mrs. Adams was a sister of the late Mrs. D. C. Smith, and the last remaining member of the family.
The officers of the I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 384, Stouffville, were installed on Monday night by District Deputy Grand Master Don Beer and his installing team from Brougham. The officers were: Noble Grand, Murray Daniels; Vice Grand, Sherman Arnold; Rec. Sec'y., Walter Pipher; Fin. Sec'y., Clara Bell; Treasurer, Geo. Green; R.S.N.G., Bill Sanders; L.S.N.G., Morley Symes; Warden, Bert Silverthorn; Conductor, Tom Farr; Chaplain, Albert King; R.S.V.G., A. Spang; L.S.V.G., Len Wilkes; R.S.S., Rae Yake; L.S.S., Art Woods; Inside Guard, Ben Raxlin; Outside Guard, Ralph Boyd.

Mrs. Will Clarkson of Altona has been enjoying raspberries from her garden for the past few days.

Mrs. E. W. Leith, Mrs. F. Garland and Mrs. Herb Barnes of Toronto were guests recently at the Mertens home.

Misses Elsie and Edith Hutchinson of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winterstein.

Mr. Berkeley Feir of Haliburton, son of Mr. Hedley Feir of Main St. West, together with his wife and son Creighton, spent a couple of days last week with Mr. H. Feir and Miss Vera Feir.

Dr. and Mrs. Neil Smith were in Omenee on Wednesday attending the funeral of the late Mrs. R. J. Adams. The late Mrs. Adams was a sister of the late Mrs. D. C. Smith, and the last remaining member of the family.

The officers of the I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 384, Stouffville, were installed on Monday night by District Deputy Grand Master Don Beer and his installing team from Brougham. The officers were: Noble Grand, Murray Daniels; Vice Grand, Sherman Arnold; Rec. Sec'y., Walter Pipher; Fin. Sec'y., Clara Bell; Treasurer, Geo. Green; R.S.N.G., Bill Sanders; L.S.N.G., Morley Symes; Warden, Bert Silverthorn; Conductor, Tom Farr; Chaplain, Albert King; R.S.V.G., A. Spang; L.S.V.G., Len Wilkes; R.S.S., Rae Yake; L.S.S., Art Woods; Inside Guard, Ben Raxlin; Outside Guard, Ralph Boyd.

WEDDINGS

PETERS-CARTER
A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse, Clarendon, when Rev. H. L. Lacey united in marriage Marion Hannah, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, to Mr. Donald Arthur Peters of Toronto.
The bride, given away by her father, wore navy blue wool Jersey with accessories to match and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Miss Edith Malcolm was bridesmaid wearing black dotted net over taffeta, and black accessories with a corsage of pink roses. Mr. Fred Carter was best man.
After a short honeymoon the happy couple will make their home in Toronto.
A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter in honor of the marriage of their daughter on Friday evening, Oct. 6th, when friends and relatives met to give their best wishes to the bride and groom.

FLEMING-MACPHERSON
Eglington United Church, effective with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, delphiniums and lighted candles, was the setting for the marriage of Mary Isabel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Macpherson, to Dr. William Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Fleming of Markham. Rev. Dr. W. J. Johnston officiated.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of ivory satin on princess lines, with Honiton lace trimming. Her long veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried an all-white bouquet of stephanotis bouvardia and gardenias. Miss Joan Macpherson, maid of honor for her sister, chose pale green net over taffeta. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean and Miss Ada Macpherson, sisters of the bride, and her cousin, Miss Mary Macpherson, wore pale green taffeta. All had small matching calots with ostrich tips, and carried mocha chrysanthemums and autumn roses. Master Michael Macpherson, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, wearing full Highland dress. The groomsmen were Dr. Ewart Jones of Guelph, and the ushers were Messrs. Robert Love, Lloyd Hamilton, John Shore and Dr. Bruce Macpherson.
After the reception at Prince Arthur House, the couple left by motor for New York, and will live in Toronto on their return.

SELLERS-FORRESTER
Mixed fall flowers formed the setting for the marriage of Dixie Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forrester, Unionville, to Robert Levi Sellers, son of Mrs. Sellers and the late Frank Sellers of Stouffville, in Melville United Church last Saturday. Rev. R. T. Chapin performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Ed. Nigh of Stouffville was organist and accompanied Mrs. Tom Kerr, soloist.
The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, looked lovely in a gown of white satin featuring a long train, and was softly draped over the hips, had a net yoke, and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and mums. Miss Helen Lehman was maid of honor and wore a green satin gown and carried cream roses. The bridesmaids were Jean Brumwell, cousin of the bride, and Grace Sellers, sister of the groom. They wore gowned alike in gold satin and carried cream and red roses. Carl Sellers, brother of the groom was best man.
For the reception in the church parlours, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a green ensemble with brown accessories and was assisted by the groom's mother wearing wine with navy accessories.
For travelling to points north, the bride wore a suit of romance blue with navy accessories and necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom. After their return, Mr. and Mrs. Sellers will live on Church Street in the Smith apartments.
Long time now between holidays. Hunters have so decimated moose in Canada that they are in danger of becoming extinct.

WHITE EGGS WANTED

A 2c. PREMIUM IS BEING PAID
by
P. HUTTON
FOR GRADE 'A' LARGE WHITE EGGS
Cases Supplied, Free Pick-up, and Prompt Return
40 Kenworthy Ave., Toronto, GR.8970

Daily Reminder

OCTOBER 1950

Check with Bank and see whether it's possible to increase purchase of the new series of Canada Savings Bonds.

Understand $1000. the limit in the Fifth Series.

Youth for Christ STOUFFVILLE

7.45 Sharp - "Tales of the Redwoods"
8.15 - Song time! Your time!
The informal hour when everyone joins in the singing of favorite choruses, enjoys special numbers by the choirs and this week as our special guest we have Winnifred Rumney as soloist; Coral Perkins at the piano and the Rose Sisters in a duet.
One more week to enter the musical composers contest, and plan to take part in the Scripture Memorization and Public Speaking Contest, beginning November 11th.
9.30 - "The Blind Beggar of Jerusalem"
Bringing to your eyes the wonderful Power of God.
N. Rowan, Director.