CEDAR GROVE

Mrs. Art Offen is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Doll Butcher at Brampton. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stonehouse and family of Toronto had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Carr on Sunday. Please note the change of date of the Young People's Box Social. It will be on Wednesday, Nov. 22 in the school, instead of Tuesday, Nov. 21. Please keep this date in mind. On Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, in Cedar Grove school house a Glee Club is being organized. Mr. Martin, well known music teacher in the public schools, will be there to lead in singing. This Glee Club will include all the surrounding communities, so even if you have never sung before you are urged to be present. You'll be surprised what you can do and the fun you'll have. The next euchre is Monday night, Nov. 20, in the school. Tell your friends and plan to attend. Refreshments and good prizes. Everyone welcome.

MELVILLE

The thanksgiving meeting of Melville W.M.S. was held in the church on Tuesday, Nov. 7th. Sister societies were well represented at this meeting. Owing to the death of a very near relative, the president, Mrs. Chapin, could not be present and Mrs. Wm. McKay, vice president, presided. A deputation of officers from Toronto East Presbyterian were present and Mrs. Pye, president, conveyed greetings from that body. Mrs. Hamilton of Markham gave two vocal solos, "Breathe on Me Breath of God" and "Softly and Tenderly." Mrs. Self, immediate past president Dominion Board, was guest speaker and in a memorable address "Glowing Embers" dealt with the future work before the Society. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies of Melville. A birthday cake was cut by senior members, Miss Bruce, Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Young of Stouffville.

STOUFFVILLE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION will meet in the Town Hall on MON., NOV. 20TH at 8.00 o'clock

GOODWOOD

A number of Toronto Bible College students who are holding evangelistic services in Uxbridge were visiting the homes in Goodwood on Tuesday afternoon. They also held a meeting for the school children in the Baptist Church. Mr. Reuben Middleton has received the position of section foreman at Port Hope on the C.N.R. and will be moving there soon. Sorry to report Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mannoc and family are moving to Toronto at the end of the month. Glad to report Mr. Fred Robinson was a little better. We hope he will continue to improve. All roads led to Goodwood on Sunday for the anniversary services in the United Church. Special music was rendered by the Quaker Hill Quartette and the Baker Hill Ladies' Octette. Rev. Ben Garrett gave two very challenging messages. Following the service, the Sunday School was filled to capacity with friends who availed themselves of the opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Garrett. The ladies' octette sang and Mrs. Garrett spoke informally. The Merry Mixer's group journeyed to Zephyr last Friday evening to put on the play "Aunt Cindy Cleans Up," to a large and enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Booth and her daughter, Mrs. Ford of Toronto, visited Mrs. White last week. Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones were Lorne Jones of Saskatoon and Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hemmings and Cathy of Whitby. Mrs. Ronald James of North Markham spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wagg. Rev. Armstrong of Toronto Bible College preached in the Baptist Church on Sunday. Music was provided by the Bible College quartette. Arthur Arbuckle has returned home after spending some time helping to harvest the fruit around the Niagara district. He reports his health was good and one of the largest crops was harvested.

9th Line Markham

The Farm Forum held its weekly meeting on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grove. The theme of the discussion period was "Forests Slash or Save," stressing the importance of forest conservation. After the discussion was completed a pleasant social time was enjoyed with refreshments served by the hostess. The Farm Forum will hold its regular meeting on Nov. 27 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Lewis. On Nov. 20 the members of the Forum will attend the Federation of Agriculture meeting at Unionville which will be Farm Forum Review night.

BLOOMINGTON

A Young Peoples Christian Endeavour rally will be held in Stouffville on Friday evening, Nov. 24, in the Christian Congregational Church. Rev. Burns of Toronto Bible College will be the speaker. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Story were Toronto visitors on Sunday. Mrs. J. Tarr has gone to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Webster at Wroxeter. Mrs. Tranmer was at Orangeville last week owing to the illness of Mr. H. Kee with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis and daughter of Toronto spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis.

The port of Montreal has nine miles of deep-draft wharf, can accommodate 100 ocean vessels at a time.

GORMLEY

Mrs. Levi Hoover and Ruth have gone to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoover of Dickson Hill. Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchinson and family and Mrs. D. Henry had Sunday evening supper with Mr. and Mrs. A. Farmer and Paul. We are very sorry to report Mrs. John Forrester has not been enjoying her usual good health and hope before long she will be much improved. Last Sunday and Monday a Bible Conference was held in the Brethren in Christ Church and this brought to a close three weeks of evangelistic services in that church. Guest speakers for the Bible Conference included Rev. R. Sider of Sherbrook, Bishop E. J. Swalm of Duntroon and Elder Moyer of Pennsylvania. We extend our heartiest congratulations to Mr. Donald Steckley and Miss Anita Guanine who were married Monday evening at 7.30 in Metropolitan United Church, Toronto. The reception following the ceremony was held in the Savarin Hotel at which about sixty guests were received. Miss Clara Steckley, Mr. and Mrs. R. Brillinger as well as Mr. and Mrs. C. Steckley were present. Monday, Nov. 13, was the 27th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. Robinson and Judy of Toronto are spending several weeks in the Pelling home. We extend get-well wishes to little Glenda Moses who has been quite ill with the measles. Mrs. Allan Hoover visited last week with her sister, Mrs. G. Johnson of Stayner. Mr. Walter Henderson states that he remembers Wednesday, Nov. 15th, forty-five years ago, to be a very stormy, cold day. Quite a comparison with our present weather. Nov. 15th marked Mr. and Mrs. Henderson's 45th wedding anniversary and we extend our congratulations.

DICKSON HILL

Miss Doris Lott was a weekend guest at the Hallman home. Misses Marion Barkey and Doris Conner of the 6th line, Margaret and Warren Moyer motored to Kitchener to be present at the "Look-in" weekend activities of Emmanuel Bible College. There was a splendid attendance at the Women's Missionary Society meeting at the home of Mrs. Ward Hallman last Wednesday. Worn clothing is being collected for the making of blankets for the Canadian Sunday School Mission camp at Dorion in Fort William district. Miss Irene Timbers gave a very interesting object lesson to the children of the Sunday School, and the grownups, as well, enjoyed it. We are sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Jack Robinson in Toronto. The family lived in this community a number of years ago, and sympathy is extended to the bereaved. Farmers appreciate the immense heads of cabbage being harvested, and wish for a corresponding market for the same. The Widemans have handled a bumper crop of brussels sprouts and open weather will be welcomed for the finishing up of various jobs.

RECOVERING

Friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. E. R. Good who was seriously injured in a car crash last week while driving in the Owen Sound district with her husband, is recovering, and is expected home in Stouffville this week-end. Mrs. Good sustained six fractured ribs, in addition to fractures of the arm and ankle.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Mrs. P. W. Willows and Mrs. R. Brumwell attended the convention for presidents of the W.A. of the Centre Presbyterian held in College Street United Church last Friday afternoon. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins (nee Annie Avison) on the birth of a son. Mr. L. Stoutenberg and Mr. S. Boynton called on Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Feigel and family at Fordwich on Sunday. Mr. L. Stoutenberg, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bennett and Ray, Miss Margaret Canning, Mr. Lloyd Canning, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sandle had Sunday evening dinner with Mr. and Mrs. S. Boynton and family, the occasion being Helen's birthday. Mrs. I. McIlmurray, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Willows spent Sunday with friends at Uxbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McIntyre are spending a few days in New York. Recently the Women's Association of Hope United Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orr for their regular meeting, and a record attendance was noted. After the business part of the meeting was transacted two of our church ladies were asked to take over Mrs. (Rev.) A. C. Huston gave an inspiring and challenging address, choosing for her subject, "An Indian Residential School." Her subject matter was well chosen and her fluent delivery commanded close attention. Miss Betty Huston sang in her usually charming manner. After the close of the meeting the visitors didn't make their usual effort to depart as was customary. About eight o'clock a large contingent augmented the afternoon group, bringing the total attendance to between 80 and 90—a real surprise party arranged by their old neighbors. The guests were surprised to find them occupying such a comfortable and commodious home. During the evening program the following address was read: To Mr. and Mrs.

Wm. Orr and Anna, to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Orr and Ron. Dear Friends—We, your relatives, friends and fellow church members have gathered here this evening to honour you. For many years you have lived among us and earned our goodwill. You have been good neighbors, true friends and ever ready to help in community and church endeavour. It is a matter of regret for us that your new home is not located nearer to your home community, but we pray that you may find it home here and that God may bless you with good health and prosperity. We ask you to receive these gifts as a token of our esteem and with our best wishes. We are not saying "good-bye" as we hope that whenever possible you will come to Hope and always be one of us. Signed on behalf of your relatives, friends, and neighbors—Mrs. E. Orr, Pres. W.A.; Mrs. J. Cousins, Percy J. Lambert, Minister of Hope Church. A very fine floor lamp and a beautiful hassock were given to Mr. and Mrs. W. Orr. A pair of bedroom lamps to Anna. A small table for the living room and a lovely satin pillow to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Orr and Ron.

Births

HALLMAN—Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hallman (nee Dorothy Boardway) are happy to announce the birth of their son Larry on Sunday, Nov. 12, 1950, at Hanover Memorial Hospital. STOUFFER—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stouffer, Ringwood, are happy to announce the birth of their son on Saturday, Nov. 11, 1950, at the Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville.

A religious census and Bible survey under the auspices of the Canadian Home Bible League will be made during the next two weeks in the town of Stouffville. Your friendly reception of the canvassers will be much appreciated.
