

Markham Twp. Reeve and Deputy-Reeve Returned by Acclamation; run for Council

Reeve Win Timbers of Markham Township and Deputy-Reeve Dalton Rummy were returned for another term by acclamation at the annual nomination meeting held in the hall at Unionville on Friday afternoon. Robt. Rae and W. J. Lennox will contest the three council seats along with W. L. Clark, Chas. Hooper and Alf. James, the latter three members of the 1950 council.

Reeve Win Timbers in addressing the public meeting on Friday reviewed the past year's work and made special reference to the Township Centennial celebration. "Markham Township," he said, "is rapidly changing from a strictly rural, to an urban municipality."

"We can't stop this growth, but we must protect the people who are already here," the reeve continued.

Mr. Timbers told his listeners that he favored whatever restrictions possible to keep the township what it should be.

In mentioning amalgamation with the city of Toronto, he stated that while full amalgamation with the city might not come into being immediately, some amalgamation of services was almost a certainty.

Deputy-Reeve Dalton Rummy also returned to office for another term revealed that the County was planning to install two sets of scales in the Markham area to assist in protecting township roads from their current beating from overloaded truck traffic.

The weed situation in the municipality was bad, Mr. Rummy stated, but it was hoped that a new spraying outfit which the municipality planned to put into operation, would help the situation.

Mr. Rummy touched briefly on the newly organized Health Unit in which eleven municipalities were involved. He told the audience that the costs of the new unit would be more definitely known after a year's operation.

W. L. Clark stated that the work of council continued to become more and more complex.

In 1938 he said, Markham Township road budget was $25,000, while in 1950, it was $75,000. This year, the township's bill for policing was $10,000, while only twelve years ago it was $1600.

Mr. Clark told the ratepayers that he believed the township had made a right move in accepting the Crosby Memorial Arena, and added that it would not involve the municipality in any expense.

Chas. Hooper stated that when the 1950 council took over, they accepted nearly a mill in back debts incurred by the previous council, but against this commitment they had been able to keep the tax rate on an even keel.

"We should be very careful about this change from rural to urban. We like to have people come into the township, but they can't expect to have every convenience right away," said Mr. Hooper.

Mr. Hooper stated that many people wanted water but that this was a hard commodity to come by. Likewise sewers would be a coming thing and a garbage collection. However all these improvements must come gradually.

"I proposed ten years ago that this township should have some hardtop roads. We could have built them then for $3,000 a mile. Today these roads would cost $5,000, but I still think we should have them," Mr. Hooper stated.

"I can't see where the ratepayers will ever enjoy lower taxes for many years to come, if all these improvements are to be made," he prophesied.

Mr. James told the audience that he had tried to use his best judgment in this his first year in council, and believed that the experience gained would stand him in good stead in another year.

"These new people coming into the township want more planning and development," said W. J. Lennox who received a nomination for the office of councillor.

He stated that the front, referring to his home area of Thornhill must not be pitted against the back, but there must be co-operation.

Robt. Rae, another candidate for council criticised the council's road work, stating that some of the roads he had viewed were built like saucers.

He condemned council for letting a good road supt. resign for lack of a few dollars. He stated that the road supt. allowed to leave was a good mechanic, while the township was this year paying out $800 in mechanic wages.

In referring to Mr. Hooper's contention that council accepted a heavy deficit from the previous council, Mr. Rae contended that it was the County that lowered the taxes this year, not the present council.

He believed that the council should throw its weight behind the municipal association in a fight for more assistance from the government for educational costs.
