Now that the annual snow season has arrived motorists are reminded that cars must not be left on Main St. during the night, or as the local bylaw calls for, not more than five hours at any one time. The ban is placed on overnight parking in order that the Main St. may be cleared of snow during the late hours. Cars that are found regularly illegally parked will be towed away according to local police.

No less than 25 stoves, all sizes and shapes were disposed of at the Stouffville Community Sales Arena on Saturday afternoon. Auctioneer Sellers tells us that in all his 30 years of experience he has never had so many stoves to sell at any one sale. Another furniture sale is being held this Saturday, Dec. 2nd. Bad weather does not hinder these auctions as they are held under cover in a building that is heated.

A large tree on the boulevard of the Douglas Booth property just opposite the Brierbush Hospital crashed down on the roadway at the supper hour on Saturday evening striking the car of a passing Toronto motorist, Don Sutherland. The branches crashed the windshield and one limb drove into the radiator. No one in the machine however received injury. The high wind which swept town on Saturday evening and again Sunday sent one of the large poplars in the town park crashing down, and broken limbs were everywhere. Power was interrupted momentarily in various parts of town by the storm.

Aluminum serves breakfast in bed!

An "Inside Story" about HOSPITALS—

HOSPITALS select equipment with unusual care. That's why aluminum utensils are used in hospital kitchens everywhere. Health authorities recommend aluminum because it meets every need of hygienic food preparation. Enjoy this food protection in your home, too. No other metal is more "food-friendly" than aluminum.

Hints to the Housewife! Whenever you see aluminum on the outside of a food or a drink, there's an "inside story" of purity, well-protected. Aluminum utensils clean easily. To remove natural deposit left by foods and water, use steel wool with soap and water.
