

LÉMONVILLE

Watch "coming events" for School, Dec. 21st. Everybody keeps a lamp at hand these days in case the Hydro plays tricks again. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Brown visited her parents in Uxbridge on Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Cake and Miss Nora Macklem were in Hamilton on Thursday and Friday attending a Baptist Missions Convention. Mr. Daniel Hall was a supper guest at the Earl Cook home on Sunday evening. Mr. Fred Harwood was a Toronto visitor on Saturday afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Morningstar of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Armstrong of Locust Hill spent Sunday with the Hastings. Many of our commuters were very late returning from Toronto on Friday night, due to traffic tie-ups caused by the storm.

DICKSON HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hallman motored to Rochester to be present for Thanksgiving celebrations with his family. Pastor Berry was guest minister at Palmerston Anniversary service last Sunday, and enjoyed meeting former parishioners. In his absence, Rev. A. G. Doner conducted service in the local church. A cloud of sorrow settled over the community when it was learned that Jos. B. Reesor of Vineland passed away so shortly after his mother, Mrs. Tillman Reesor. For over ninety years this esteemed woman lived at the Reesor home, and will be remembered by her many friends, both young and old. Her younger son, Joseph, was a prominent figure in Wideman Church activities and also served the school section as trustee for a number of years. The entire neighborhood has been deeply moved with sympathy for the family in this double bereavement. The Moyer family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer and daughters Karen and Helen of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Walker and Billy visited at the Walker home here on Sunday.

ALTONA

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNair spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones at Balsam recently. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hodgson have moved to their new home at Stouffville. We hope they will have many more years of good health to enjoy it. The Women's Institute is having a bazaar at Stouffville in the near future; look elsewhere for particulars. Mr. and Mrs. D. Mansbridge entertained company on Tuesday evening. Mrs. David Crosier attended the fall meeting of the South Ontario District Women's Institute executive recently in the Parish Hall, Whitby.

GORMLEY

Mr. Paul Jones, who is working with the Hydro at New Hamburg, spent several days last week at his home here. Mr. Rondell Kinke of Fordwich is visiting some of his Gormley friends this week. A miscellaneous shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steckley of Toronto on Monday evening by his relatives and "Old Gormley" neighbors. A lovely variety of gifts was received. We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. J. E. Nobb who suffered a stroke last week. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heise on the birth of a son last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunt and Ruth had Sunday evening supper with Mr. and Mrs. A. Farmer and Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cassel and family of Preston visited in the Henderson home for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Honsberger, returned missionaries from Africa, and Mrs. John Barkey of Stouffville, had dinner on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Farmer. The gathering feasted on a twenty-five pound turkey given the Farmers by their good neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Falkowski.

PARTY FOR COUPLE ON SILVER ANNIVERSARY

A surprise party was held on Saturday evening, Nov. 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Feasby, Uxbridge, in honour of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Risebrough, on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. About 24 friends and relatives sat down to a bountiful supper. After the wedding cake was cut, Mr. Willmot Bain of Zephyr, acting as toastmaster, proposed a toast to the bride which the groom responded to in a few well chosen words. The bride and groom of 25 years were the recipients of many lovely gifts. After thanking their friends a social hour brought a most enjoyable evening to a close. The hostesses of the evening were the two daughters of the bride and groom, Mrs. Lloyd Feasby (Marion) and Doris Risebrough.

DONER-RAYMER

A quiet and interesting wedding was solemnized by Rev. H. S. Hallman of Stouffville United Missionary Church on Wednesday, Nov. 22, at 3 p.m., when Rev. A. G. Doner and Mrs. P. A. Raymer were united in marriage at the home of Mr. Doner at Dickson's Hill, where they will continue to make their residence. Owing to the limited rooms in the home, the invited guests were confined to the closer members of both families. Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served after which the bride and groom left by motor for a short honeymoon in the north.

UNIONVILLE

Lance Corporal H. J. McInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McInnis of Unionville, who is with the Signal Corps, recently arrived at Port Lewis, Washington. His train was the first of the troop trains to arrive at their destination. He will be in training at that camp for 4 months according to the message received by his parents.

KEEP THE WALKS CLEAN

We have been asked to draw your attention to the town bylaw which requires all householders to keep their walks cleared of snow. If all citizens would cooperate in this regard, being a pedestrian at this time of year would be much more enjoyable. J. K. Agnew, well-known hardware man in town, is not in the best of health and expects to be away from his place of business for several weeks under doctor's orders.
