 Our Farm Forum along with a number of other forums spent a most enjoyable and profitable evening on Monday of this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Madsen. The presence of a number of young people who are at present attending Folk School at Cherry Hill Farm added much to the group discussions and to the general interest of the meeting. These young folks have come from various points in Ontario and from the Western Provinces. After the discussion on the theme of the evening "What has Happened to the Country Doctor and How To Get Better Health Services for Rural Areas" the pupils of the Folk School entertained with a skit, "Farm Forum Evening" which was much appreciated. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Madsen after which community singing featuring the much loved Christmas Carols was most heartily entered into by all. A hearty vote of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Madsen for their wonderful hospitality and excellent community endeavors was expressed by members of Greenwood and Edgeley Forums, Mr. and Mrs. Madsen most graciously replied expressing their pleasure at having present such a splendid representation of our Farm Forum members. In the course of their remarks they dwelt upon the work which is so dear to their hearts — that of conducting Folk School Classes and the lasting benefits — physical, mental, and spiritual — to be derived from attendance at these classes.
