

County Federation Annual Meeting Dec. 13

The annual meeting of the York County Federation of Agriculture 10 Botsford St. (opposite town hall) Newmarket, on Wednesday, Dec. 13th, at 11 a.m. The Board of Directors will meet at 10 a.m. Lunch—A morning session has been planned to provide more time for discussion and the directors have arranged to have lunch served free of charge in the Board Room so that they can enjoy a chat together as we eat.

The afternoon programme commencing at 1:30 p.m. will include a discussion on Federation Finances, Township Assessments for School Purposes and other topics. Guest Speaker—Ken Betzner of Waterloo who as chairman of the Poultry Marketing Committee will report on the progress of that group.

In the election of directors for 1951 we would like you to be prepared to nominate someone from your township who will act as director. It is most desirable that we have every township represented on the Board if possible.

VOTE as you like ... but VOTE!

—Remember it is your privilege to vote for Four members for Municipal Council.

—We, the present members of Council have served the municipality to the best of our ability in 1950, and with the theme of good government uppermost.

With the experience gained, we solicit your vote at the polls in the forthcoming election that we may carry on the municipal business of Stouffville in the best interests of all ratepayers.

RINGWOOD

Mr. Jacob Grove is serving on jury in Toronto these days.

Come to the Sunday School Rally in Ringwood Church next Monday evening, Dec. 11, at 7.45 p.m. Rev. Gordon Wishart of Toronto will speak on the subject "Does the Gospel Meet the Needs of the World To-Day?" Special music by the Henderson Sisters.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee and two little daughters, Wendy and Donna to our community. They have purchased the home vacated last week by Art Bassett.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Reesor family in their double bereavement.

Miss Ada Barkey is home again after a visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Moyer and sons Stephen and Terry of Brantford spent a weekend recently with Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy.

Two large hydro trucks have arrived at our sub-station in preparation for the cycle changeover here the week of the 18th.

We regret the illness of Mr. Albert Hoover from a thrombosis attack, but are glad to report that he is making splendid progress toward recovery.

9th Line Markham

The Farm Forum met on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wicks Jr. The subject for the discussion period dealt with the question "Should the government provide a pension for everyone or only for those lacking adequate income?" After the discussion bingo was enjoyed after which refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting of the Forum will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Lewis on Monday evening, Dec. 11.

We are happy to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grove on the arrival of a little son Robert David.
