BALSAM

AND MOUNT-ZION
Mrs. Wm. Graham of Uxbridge and Mrs. G. Smith of Whitby spent a few days last week at the Orr Graham home.

Mr. Earl Wilson is suffering from an attack of the mumps.
Mr. Jim Ferrie of Toronto spent the weekend at the Rodd Appleby home.

Quite a number from here attended the Santa Claus parade at Claremont on Saturday.
The Mt. Zion School Christmas Tree will be held Thursday night, Dec. 21st and Balsam school on Friday, Dec. 22nd.

Our new neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Delacour and family of Toronto, have moved into the former Kerr place.

GOODWOOD

Mr. Hill Davis, provincial road man, has been suffering from a broken bone in his foot. Glad to report he feeling better and will soon be able to get out again.

Mr. Leslie Styles is the first in Goodwood to install a television set.
The Goodwood United Sunday School held their annual Christmas concert on Monday evening. Santa presented the children with their prizes and presents.

The service on Sunday in the Baptist Church will be taken by Benny Jones.

The Christmas entertainment of the Baptist Sunday School will be held in the church on Friday night.

GREENWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. P. Clarke visited last Sunday in the city with their son Reg. and family.

Santa Claus puts in his appearance at the Sunday School and Public School Christmas concert this Wednesday night.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ross Disney in the loss of her father recently.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Elson on the arrival of a daughter.

The afternoon W.A. met last Thursday at Mrs. F. Gibson's with Mrs. Wm. Brown in charge of the worship. After the business session the election of officers took place. All were returned to office with the exception of the group leaders which are as follows: group one, Mrs. E. Disney; group two, Mrs. John Brooks. Several quilts are lined up to be quilted during the winter months. The January meeting will be held at Mrs. E. Disney's.

The annual meeting of the Greenwood Evening W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. G. Eastwood on Wednesday, Dec. 13. A Christmas worship service was prepared and presented by Mrs. E. Tremble. The election of officers was conducted by Rev. H. R. Monkman with the following results: hon. pres., Mrs. H. R. Monkman; pres., Mrs. F. Webb; vice pres., Mrs. C. McTaggart; rec. sec., Mrs. R. Jackman; assoc. sec., Mrs. W. Pegg; treas., Mrs. H. Middleton; assist., Miss E. Orme; parsonage committee, Mrs. C. Closson; temperance and citizenship, Mrs. W. Neilson, Mrs. H. R. Lunch and a social hour followed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss E. Green.

A proclamation has been issued in this week's edition of The Tribune, setting forth Boxing Day, Tuesday, Dec. 26th, as a public holiday.

"Mush," the Alaskan term, is a contraction of the French "marchons" meaning to go on.

GREEN RIVER

Mrs. R. DeFoe spent a few days last week with Toronto friends.

Little Peggy Ann Calbert is home from Sick Children's Hospital and doing nicely. Her father, Alf. Calbert, had the misfortune to have the ends of two fingers cut off last week with a saw.

Mrs. Lawrence Gay entertained the friends of Mrs. Hodgson (nee Edna Beelby) and her little daughter Shirley May to a baby shower last Friday afternoon.

Last Sunday the Missionary Dept. of U.S.S. conducted a White Gift Service. Mr. Geo. Duncan, superintendent, was in charge.

The scripture was read by Howard and George Malcolm. Other Bible readings were given by B. Gray, N. Cairns and T. Cook. During the singing of "Away in a Manger" the primary class brought the gifts to the manger where Jesus lay.

Young Peoples' readings were taken by G. Carter and G. Bruce while Miss Edith Malcolm sang "The First Noel." The remainder of the many gifts were brought in by senior members. Marjory Percy and Mrs. G. Gray. They were for the Fred Victor Mission, Toronto. Next Sunday Dr. G. Fiddes will bring the Christmas message at 2.30 p.m. Special music. Everyone welcome. The following Wednesday, Dec. 27, the Christmas supper will be held at 6.30.

A number from here attended the candle light service in Markham United Church on Sunday evening.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Glen Lavett in the death of her mother, Mrs. Gilbert of Markham.

Mr. Al. Freshwater spent the weekend with Toronto relatives.

ALTONA

The season's greetings are extended to the editor and staff of The Tribune.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Nighswander who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Madill of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Madill on Sunday.

The W.I. were favoured with two outstanding speakers, Mrs. Haig and Mrs. Gibson Brown of Stouffville, at their meeting held at the home of Mrs. Eli Lehman last week. Mrs. Haig spoke on the mission field in the West that she was in charge of and Mrs. Brown brought a Christmas message.

Our teacher, Miss Heise, and her pupils had a very interesting program on Tuesday evening. All numbers were well prepared and deserve special mention. As usual Santa was liberal with his gifts.

Fred Lewis and Delos Morris are the turkey kings in this vicinity, as they raised enough birds to supply everyone in this district.

CEDAR GROVE

Sympathy of the community goes to the family of the late Mr. Jacob Burkholder who passed away on Sunday after a brief illness in the Toronto General Hospital.

Zion Sunday School Christmas concert will be held this Friday night, Dec. 22nd, in the church. This is the night when the whole family takes part. So come along, you are assured of a good time. Santa will also pay a visit.

The next choral night is Thursday, Dec. 28th, in the school.

Sorry to hear Charlie Croucher had the misfortune to take the end off his finger while doing his daily chores.

On Sunday evening the Young People held their regular meeting at the home of B. Davies. There was a very interesting talk on citizenship.
