Gentlemen:
I have used Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter Crumbles exclusively for the past two years with excellent results. The mortality rate was very, very low. Uniformity in the flock was also an outstanding feature.
I can certainly recommend Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter most highly and wouldn't use anything else.

Ringwood Couple Celebrate Their Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Grove celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday, March 19th, at their residence south of Ringwood. Owing to the illness of Mr. Grove only the members of their family and the immediate relatives attended, and were entertained at a buffet supper party.

The couple have three daughters, Lila (Mrs. Floyd Steckley), Margaret (Mrs. Alex Ratcliff), Jean (Mrs. Stewart Stouffer) and two grandchildren. Mrs. Grove has one sister, Mrs. Lee of Stouffville, and four brothers, Isaac and Ed Barkey of Stouffville, Henry of Vancouver, B.C., and Abram in California. Mr. Grove has two sisters, Mrs. Elias Hoover and Mrs. Wm. Conner of Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove were married on March 19, 1902, in Stouffville, by Rev. Wilson, minister of the Presbyterian Church. They moved to the family farm of the groom on the 8th concession of Markham, and remained there for forty years until retirement in 1942, when they moved to their present home.

They have been active members of Ringwood Christian Church, where for 55 years Mr. Grove sang in the choir, and for 25 years taught a boys' class in the Sunday School and was the church treasurer. Interested in the life of the community, he was secretary-treasurer of Dickson Hill school for 15 years.

During his reminiscences of the past fifty years, Mr. Grove humorously recalled the fact that there were no taxis or autos when he was married, and he and his bride walked to and from the wedding reception, and then to the station to board the train.

The couple received over one hundred cards, beautiful flowers, and gifts from friends and relatives, including an electric refrigerator from the family.

The Easter Thank Offering meeting of the W.M.S. of Stouffville United Church will be held in the church on April 3rd, at 2:45 p.m. Mrs. Murray of Toronto will be the guest speaker and there will be special music by local talent.

The Stouffville Women's Institute was held on Thursday, March 20, in Christ Church Hall. The motto was given by Mrs. Wilson and local events by Miss B. Winn. Mrs. Scott gave a short talk on Citizenship and Education and Mrs. Shuttleworth rendered an Irish solo. This was followed by Mrs. P. Brown's talk on the Life of St. Patrick. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. A St. Patrick's tea was served at the close of the meeting.

On Friday night, while proceeding from the Legion Hall Mr. Howard Malloy, well known Stouffville resident was struck by a passing motorist. Mr. Malloy was walking from the sidewalk to the curb near the former Dr. Bodendistel residence when the accident occurred. The driver slowed up slightly, then proceeded on his way without coming to a stop. Aside from a bruised arm Mr. Malloy is luckily none the worse for his experience.

Markham Township police were notified Saturday of the most callous motorist we've heard of in a long time. Roy Heaton of Stouffville put in the report that the driver of a Ford car was proceeding down the township thoroughfare dragging a helpless white dog behind the car on a long rope. Mr. Heaton reported that the vehicle was travelling more than thirty-five miles an hour and the dog unable to keep up was being thrashed from one side of the road to the other. However, the driver failed to come within reach of the Markham law officers which is a pity, since anyone treating an animal in such a fashion should certainly be prosecuted to the full limit of the law.

Stouffville felt the full brunt of Saturday night's ice storm and numerous residents who were out of town on business and pleasure were most of the night getting home. A pile up of nearly fifty cars occurred at Dickson's Hill where they were unable to negotiate the icy glare. Numerous TV aerials toppled with the ice and wind in the vicinity of Unionville, and in Stouffville the aerial on top of the local arena manager's house, Ken Laushway, O'Brien Ave., buckled under the strain. A thirty ft. mast on the Cy Allen home just east of Unionville came crashing down across hydro wires. While the icing was severe while it lasted, all had cleared away by noon on Sunday under the spring sun.

The March meeting of the Women's Association of Stouffville United Church was held in the Ladies Parlour on Monday, March 17. The meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn followed by the Lord's Prayer. Gloria Hood and Joanne Bodendistel played two lovely piano duets. Marilyn Bone favoured the gathering with a solo. Mrs. Ridout presented two readings entitled "The Last Hymn" and "Brought in Past Prayers." Miss Annie Duncan took charge of the devotional period and spoke on the 5th chapter of Matthew. She stated "Only those who know they need the kingdom of God are blessed. Righteousness is the greatest blessing. We are not to be over anxious about the future. God knows what we have need of. To really give ourselves to God is the only way to receive help. No peace to be had if greed and selfishness exist. We must have faith in God and patience with our fellowmen." To conclude she said each one should ask themselves "What would my church be like if every member was like me." Mrs. Booth closed the meeting with prayer.

While winter has been having a few last kicks, spring is surely on the way—Gordon Fearon of Ringwood displayed a plump grasshopper in the Tribune office last weekend. The big green fellow had apparently come out to enjoy the sunshine of last Friday and was doing some lusty kicking at the advent of spring. He was picked up on Main Street.

Well-known Markham Township farm not far from Stouffville has recently changed ownership. Mr. Walter Brignall has disposed of his 100-acre place on the Peaches sideroad to Mr. S. Watson, Agincourt. Mr. Brignall expects to make his new home in Markham Village and will take up residence there this fall after taking the crop off his farm this summer. The Brignall farm was formerly the G. L. Williamson place; Mr. Williamson leaving there at the close of World War I, and engaging in the carpentering trade at Markham.

The death occurred in Toronto on Monday of Jas. Stewart Bell, retired school principal and principal of Markham school for a number of years. The late Stewart Bell is well remembered by a number in this locality who attend Markham during his tenure on the staff. Deceased was highly regarded in his profession and only recently one of the new schools at Long Branch was named in his honour. Stewart Bell was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of Ailsa Craig. Besides his wife, the former Annie Paterson, he is survived by two daughters, Bonnie and Betty, and a son, Dr. Jas. Bell; there are also two sisters, Mary of Sault Ste. Marie, and Annie of Ailsa Craig, and a brother John of Fort Erie. The late Mr. Bell has been in ill health for some time, and his condition had worsened considerably this year. The funeral service was conducted from the McDougall & Brown Chapel on Wednesday evening with interment at Winton.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Mothercraft Society was held on March 10th at the Mothercraft Hospital, 49 Clarendon Ave., Toronto. Mrs. Ken Wagg, Mrs. R. Bone, Mrs. Jack Sanders and Mrs. T.J. Wedseltoft from the Stouffville Branch were present. After the meeting they were conducted on a tour of the hospital, and it is very attractive inside and out. It was formerly a private home owned by Mrs. Burnside, (granddaughter of Timothy Eaton) and much of the atmosphere of a private home still remains. The hospital caters to mothers and babies who have been discharged from their regular hospital after the arrival of the baby, and the mother wishes to have a further rest; and learn from the Mothercraft nurse the proper care and handling of her baby. Last year there were 148 mothers and 269 babies cared for. There is also a training school in connection with the hospital where girls who have had at least two years high school are accepted for training as a Well Baby Nurse. This course is 12 months long plus 4 months nursing in the homes under the registry. There are Mothercraft Societies throughout the world teaching and training nurses and new mothers to keep well and healthy and also to endeavor to educate and help parents and others in a practical way in domestic hygiene in general.

Malcolm, Supt. of the Brienbush Hospital, won his class of three at the two dog shows, at the Sportsman's Show held in the Coliseum last week and went on to take Winners Dog over all others, which gave him four points on his Canadian Championship at seventeen months of age.
