

"Quality" "Service"
FEED! FEED! FEED!

OUR OWN "O" LINE OF FEEDS

- EGG-O Laying Mash
- EGG-O Fattening Feed
- PORK-O Pig Starter
- PORK-O Pig Grower
- PORK-O Hog Finisher
- PORK-O Sow Ration
- MILK-O 24% Dairy Ration

A new hand book

"FEEDING FOR PROFITS"

just off the press.

ASK FOR YOUR COPY.

We are now booking orders for —
MOLASSES, BEET PULP, OILCAKE MEAL, and STABLE-PHOS.

We are buyers of —
RED CLOVER, TIMOTHY, ALSIKE CLOVER, and ALFALFA SEED.

STIVER BROS.

Stouffville

Phone 64501 or 45

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pattison have been on a motor trip to New York and points south.

Mrs. Robt. Young, Church St., spent the weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Young of Aurora.

Mrs. Ridout attended the Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of Toronto this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mowat were in Grimsby over the weekend attending the funeral of their brother-in-law, the late Col. F. G. Kemp.

Mr. and Mrs. David Reesor, newlyweds, recently moved into Mrs. Jos. Hoover's home on Rupert Ave. Mr. Reesor is a son of the late Mr. Jos. Reesor and grandson of Mr. Tilman Reesor.

Mr. Archie Forfar and his bride have taken possession of their home on Harold Ave., recently purchased from Mr. Allen Clossen and formerly occupied by Norman Lehman.

Owing to the death of an aunt of Mrs. Ross Winterstein, Mr. Norman Carver of Flint, Mich., a cousin, was a weekend visitor at the Winterstein home.

Dutch Immigrant Service

A Dutch Immigrant worship service will be held Sunday, Oct. 26, at 2 p.m. in Second Markham Baptist Church. The Rev. A. A. Tinklenberg of the First Reformed Church of Toronto is in charge of the service. Rev. Norman Rowan is issuing a special invitation to all Holland folk to attend this service.

Court of Revision Nov. 10

Court of Revision on the 1953 assessment roll for Stouffville has been scheduled for Monday evening, Nov. 10th, at 7.30 p.m. There is but one appeal against the current assessment received to date. The local municipal council will convene for general business on Monday, Nov. 3rd.

Albert Drudge Photo Quiz Winner

Mr. Albert Drudge, lot 17, concession 10, Markham, was the winner of the lucky farm photo quiz in last week's issue. Mr. Drudge purchased the 127 acre farm from Mr. Jordan Hood. He has resided on his present location for the past 10 years.

The Ladies Lawn Bowling Club held their annual fall meeting at the home of Miss Gertrude Todd last Friday afternoon. Reports showed a very successful year. The officers for the coming year were elected and are as follows: president, Mrs. K. Laushway; first vice, Mrs. Birkett; second vice, Mrs. Elmer Daniels; secretary, Mrs. Les Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Crossen.

For those residents who are unable to remember the local C.N.R. time-table, the following may aid as a reminder. Toronto bound trains leave Stouffville daily with the exception of Sunday at 9.18 a.m. and 7.38 p.m. Trains from Toronto arrive in Stouffville at 10.10 a.m. and 6.41 p.m. The Toronto bound Sunday night passenger train arrives in Stouffville at 9.26 p.m. All times mentioned are standard.

The death occurred recently of Mrs. Samuel Goodyear, formerly of Ringwood, and a member of a well-remembered family some years ago. The late Mrs. Goodyear was the former Frances Wilson, daughter of the late Jack Wilson of Ringwood. The couple farmed for some years while Mr. Goodyear also worked for his father-in-law. Two daughters survive their mother. Deceased passed away in Toronto and interment was made in the city.

Altona Home Sold

A familiar residence in Altona, the David Crosier home has been sold to Messrs. John and James Culham, 7th con. of Markham. Mr. and Mrs. Crosier have occupied their fine brick residence just south of the four corners for some years. The sale includes this house along with two and a half acres of land and several other out buildings. The sale was negotiated by Harvey Moyer of Stouffville, local Willoughby agent.

The old slogan "if you drive don't drink" is well worth heeding as Peter McCarville, an employee of Stouffville Sand and Gravel, discovered. On Monday evening last week Constable Ira Rusnell noticed a car weaving dangerously through town and upon further investigation arrested McCarville on a drunk driving charge. On Wednesday the driver appeared before the judge in Willowdale court and was sentenced to ten days in jail. His license was cancelled for one year and his car impounded for six months.

Public skating for public school children in the arena on Saturday afternoons—admission 10c.

You can win a new Monarch Convertible at the Stouffville Legion Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 11th—bingo being held the same evening.

Mr. Ernest Gower and Mrs. Blanche Cannon of Belleville were visiting the former's brother, Mr. George Gower, and other relatives recently.

The Band of Willing Helpers of St. James Presbyterian Church are holding a bazaar, home baking sale and afternoon tea, on Saturday, Oct. 25th, at 2.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. Morris, Church St. South.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Teal, Nancy and Rusty of London called on Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holden and Billy on Thanksgiving weekend, bringing Miss Erla Holden with them for the holiday weekend. Erla is attending University of Western Ontario.

Sixteen Calls for Cement

A fifty cent classified adv. in The Tribune last week for cement brought no less than sixteen calls to Mr. Clayton Hill, Claremont. For items to buy and for a place to sell, use Tribune classified advs. every time — it pays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Huson of Toronto were in town last week-end visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. Huson. Mr. Ronald Huson recently took motion pictures of the local United Missionary Sunday School which were shown at the Sunday School Convention at Kitchener.

Last Friday several ladies from town enjoyed a luncheon and a game of cards at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Borinsky, Ava Rd., Toronto. They included Mrs. Geo. Storey, Mrs. H. Brillinger, Mrs. W. Griffiths, Mrs. E. Cadieux, Mrs. A. V. Nolan and Miss Jane Burkitt.

Read Jane Scott's impressions during a recent Sunday morning visit to Stouffville United Church. They'll appear on the editorial page of the next issue of The Tribune, Oct. 30th. Jane Scott is a regular columnist in the Globe & Mail where her writings, "Religious Thoughts" are being well received.

Mrs. O. Williamson and daughter, Miss Betty Williamson, of Pambrun, Sask., were visitors on Tuesday with Miss Violet Hoover and Mrs. Florence Miller. Mrs. Williamson and Betty came from Pambrun for the recent marriage of another daughter Dorothy.

Mr. E. R. Good, Miss Emma Good, Garth Good, Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Huson, Miss Dorothy Moyer, Misses Marie and Catharine Stover were in Kitchener last week attending the annual sessions of the Ontario United Missionary Sunday School Convention. Rev. F. G. Huson is the district supervisor of Ontario Sunday Schools of this denomination. Rev. M. Burgess of Detroit was the special speaker at the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell of VanNuys, California, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Turner, Reedley, California, and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Truman Holden, visited recently with her uncles and aunts and many cousins, Arthur Holden of Markham, Gordon Holden of Stouffville, Mrs. Delbert Holden, Mrs. M. Gillion, Mrs. G. Lemon and Mrs. James Ridout. The country in all its beauty was certainly a thrill for the visitors. They returned by Michigan to visit a daughter.

The Young Peoples Society of Stouffville United Church held their organization meeting on Wednesday night of last week. The following officers were elected: president, Marion Murphy; vice, Derek Chadwick; secretary, Helen Paisley; treasurer, Don Davis. The regular meetings will be held on the second Monday of each month with the first meeting being on Nov. 10th in the church basement. All young people and young married couples are cordially invited to attend.

The Stouffville Women's Institute met on Thursday, Oct. 16, at Christ Church Parish Hall. Roll call was answered with "a hat I remember." Mrs. H. Shuttleworth was the program convener and introduced Dr. King of the York County Health Unit. An interesting talk was given about water. Dr. King also showed two films. Miss Woods favored the members with a piano solo. The motto was given by Mrs. Arnold. Current Events were given by Mrs. Giles and Mrs. Lickorish. Tea was served by the hostess at the close of meeting.

The Thanksgiving service of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was preceded by Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Sanders playing several selections on the organ and piano. Mrs. F. Riches, president, was in the chair and welcomed the visiting auxiliaries and invited them for lunch in the church parlors after the meeting. After singing a hymn all repeated the Lord's Prayer. After the business was dispensed with Mrs. R. Winterstein and Mrs. K. Campbell's group took charge. Mrs. Campbell was in charge of the devotional. Mrs. Winterstein dedicated the offering after which Mrs. Spofford favored with a solo. Mrs. Hastings introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Roger Self. Rev. D. Davis closed with the benediction. A social half hour was spent in the church parlors.

Local and Personal Happenings

Pleasant Wedding Group on United Church Steps

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Baldwin are seen here following their recent marriage leaving the Stouffville United Church. Attending the couple are Mrs.

Norman Farr, matron of honour, Misses June Steckley, Doris Conner and Jean Rodanz as bridesmaids. Little Miss Marlene Dunn was flower girl.

Geo. Chittenden was ring bearer. Reuben May, Alex Logan, Norman Farr and Edwin Feighen were ushers. (Photo by Cadieux)

WEDDINGS

DEGEER — ALCOCK

White and pink gladioli decorated the church parlors of Stouffville United Church, Sept. 20, for the marriage of Betty Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Alcock, to Mr. Ivan Ellsworth Degeer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgair Degeer of Stouffville. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated. Mrs. Clarence Stafford played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of blue taffeta trimmed with white nylon with matching veil and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Degeer of St. John's, Mich., cousin of the groom, chose light blue taffeta with flower halo. She carried yellow roses. Mr. Claude Alcock, brother of the bride, was best man. During the signing of the register Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stafford sang "O Perfect Love."

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Guests were present from St. John's, Mich., Aurora, Flint, Mich., Uxbridge and Stouffville. After the reception the happy couple left by motor for St. John's, Mich. and on their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Stouffville.

HALL — KERFOOT

Jessie May Kerfoot, daughter of Thomas Kerfoot of Kingston and the late Mrs. Kerfoot, became the bride of Murray Allan Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hall and grandson of Mrs. W. D. Hall of Stouffville and late Mr. Hall, in Rummymede Baptist Church, Toronto. The Rev. Gordon Brown officiated amidst a colorful setting of mixed gladioli after the soloist, Mrs. M. Black had sung the Lord's Prayer.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white net with a lace over-jacket with stand-up collar and long pointed sleeves. A head-piece of pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Her attendants, Mrs. J. Race, matron of honor for her sister, and Miss Nancy Dearden, bridesmaid for her cousin, wore similar gowns of net over taffeta with lace jackets. They carried bouquets of yellow and bronze mums. William Hall Jr. was groomsmen for his brother and the ushers were Leslie Watson and Bernard Strevens of Rochester, N.Y.

Guests at the reception dinner held in the YVCA were received by Mrs. Gladys Keeler, sister of the bride, wearing a gown of navy blue with rose accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a lavender-rose gown with purple accessories and a mauve corsage.

The couple left on a trip to the Laurentians, the bride wearing a two-piece suit of amethyst gabardine with black nylon accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

TAYLOR — MACGREGOR

On Saturday, Oct. 11th, with baskets of mums and gladioli, Trinity United Church, was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding when Rev. H. Kennedy, in a double ring ceremony, united in marriage, Joyce Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacGregor, Uxbridge, to Ronald Albert Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor of Stouffville. Mrs. D. Colby sang the "Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "Through the Years" during the signing of the register. She was accompanied at the organ by Miss Betty Armstrong who played softly throughout the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a strapless, floor length dress of white taffeta and a chantilly lace jacket with standup collar and pointed cuffs. Her finger-tip veil was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of white mums and red roses. Miss Doris Forsyth, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a strapless powder blue taffeta dress with a chantilly lace bolero and matching headdress. She carried a cascade of yellow mums. The groom was attended by his brother, Murray Taylor. The ushers were William Graham of Stouffville and Richard Taylor, brother of the groom.

Eastend Properties Are Sold

The sales are reported this week of two properties in the eastend of Stouffville, bringing new residents to town in each case. The James Hill house and lot on Tenth St. has been sold to Mr. Stubbins of Welland, Ont., for a price of $5,000. Possession will be given on Dec. 1st.

Mrs. Wm. Hopkins has disposed of a house and lot to Mr. Redden of Toronto for a sale price of $9,500. Possession of this property will be given on Nov. 7th. The sales were both negotiated by H. W. Moyer, local Willoughby agent.

For the reception in the church parlors the bride's mother received wearing a navy crepe dress and accessories with a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a deep amethyst crepe with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

For travelling the bride donned a beige suit with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze mums. Following a motor trip to the United States the bride and groom will reside in Uxbridge.

JOY Beauty Salon

(near C.N.R.)

Permanent Waving
Individual Styling
Razor Shaping
Phone Stouffville 98w2

Hot Items Buy 'em While They Last

Asphalt Roofing —
In Several Stock Colors, at $8.95 per square

Gehl Hammermills —
Just arrived and priced right for quick sale

AND DON'T FORGET

Always check with your Co-Op before making a major purchase . . . We may have it!!!

STOUFFVILLE CO-OP

Phone 122 or 269

Rubber Boots FOR ALL THE FAMILY

- Child's, sizes 6-11 — $2.95
- Misses', sizes 12-2 — $3.45
- Women's, sizes 3-9 — $3.95
- Boys', sizes 1-5 — $3.95
- Men's 12", sizes 6-12 — $4.50
- Men's 14", sizes 6-12 — $6.75

LEHMAN'S Shoe Store
Main Street — Stouffville

60th Anniversary Services

in STOUFFVILLE UNITED CHURCH on Sunday, October 26th

Morning 11 a.m. —
Speaker — Rev. E. R. McLean, M.A., B.D. of Toronto
Evening 7.30 p.m. —
Speaker — Rev. Dr. W. J. Johnston of Toronto
Special Music by the Choir & Stouffville Male Chorus

ANNUAL

Turkey Dinner

in STOUFFVILLE UNITED CHURCH on Wednesday, Oct. 29th

Adults, $1.50; Children 14 and under, 75c
Dinner Served from 5.30 to 8.00 p.m.

Followed by Programme of Instrumental & Vocal Music arranged by
Mr. Arthur Williams

St. George The Martyr Church, Toronto