UNIONVILLE NEWS

The Unionville fire brigade was called out Tuesday afternoon to battle a blaze at the machine shop at Markham, formerly known as the Reesor Machine Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mason are leaving on Saturday for Florida to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. C. Florence and family of the Beatty Farms will occupy their residence while they are away.

Mrs. William Forrester of Cashel visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Frisby on Wednesday.

Mr. W. L. Clarke is attending jury this week.

Nominations for the Markham Township election will be held in the Veterans' Hall, Unionville, on Friday, Nov 21st.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hood on the birth of a son. They now have five sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family of Gormley visited her mother, Mrs. William Gohn, on Sunday.

Mrs. H. Finley and Dean spent Remembrance Day with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bigelow of Tyrone.

Mr. James Weir, Mr. Norrish, Mr. Harold Rutherford and Mr. Harold Lawrie motored to Galt on Thursday to curl. They won two games and lost one.

At a dance at Uplands Golf Club, Thornhill, recently, the league president of Markham Softball, Mr. Robt. Rae, presented the John Madsen Memorial Trophy to Mr. Keith Jamieson, manager of the Thornhill Club who were league champions for 1952. Mr. Rae in congratulating the winners spoke of the origin of the trophy and of the interest taken in the league by the late John Madsen. Mr. Ernest Appleton, secretary of the league, made a presentation of a cheque to Art Palmer, President of the Thornhill Athletic Association.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. J. A. Fleming who underwent a serious operation at Toronto East General Hospital recently is progressing nicely.

At the Monday night meeting of the Unionville Home and School Club the mothers were entertained by the fathers and they were surprised at the hidden talent which turned up. The president, Mr. S. G. Burgis, called for a vote on the purchase of equipment for the school with the proceeds from the variety show held recently in Markham. It was decided unanimously to purchase a piano for the upper grade pupils. Mr. A. Hill, Convener for Fathers' Night, introduced his All Fathers' Choir, who entertained with a number of familiar songs. Messrs. H. P. Graham, S. C. Pettit, W. Austin, H. Coulter, G. Beck and F. Bourne entertained with verses dedicated to fatherhood. Rev. F. Bourne, guest speaker, gave an interesting talk on the natural beauty of Nova Scotia and showed pictures of colored slides. Rev. E. F. Fischer and Rev. P. R. Barley assisted.

When the thought he was being followed by the police about one o'clock Wednesday morning David R. Logan of Toronto turned into what he thought was a side street but which turned out to be the driveway to Mr. J. A. McConnell's garage. He hit the '38 Olds, car of the owner, driving it right through the garage. Following the crash he tried to steal the car belonging to a neighbor, Anthony Lubastock. Constable Wideman was called and arrested Mr. Logan before he got away. The driver will appear in court on Nov. 24th.

Mrs. Robert Burke's mother from Listowell has been spending a few days this week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson have sold their residence in the north end to some Toronto people. They expect to move to the Eglinton Ave. district very shortly.

Friends of Mrs. F. Roberts will be glad to hear that she is able to be home from the hospital.

On Thursday afternoon the Sunday School rooms of Central United Church were opened to guests of the W.M.S. who were ladies of the congregations of St. Philip's Anglican Church, Bethesda Lutheran Church, and W.M.S. members from Milliken, Whitevale and Locust Hill. Mrs. Martin, the president, presided and gave a special welcome to each group and to the Honorary President, Mrs. Newton from Toronto. Mrs. W. Young, Stewardship Secretary, spoke briefly on the seriousness of the stewardship of time as well as money. The devotional talk given by Mrs. McLashlan of Whitevale, was based on the scripture reading, Math. 26:1-13. Mrs. Timbers accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Roy Risebrough, Milliken, sang two solos, "A Little Farther to Go" and "Beside Still Waters." Mrs. J. Russell introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. A. E. Armstrong of Toronto. Mrs. Armstrong and her husband who has been secretary for foreign missions in the former Presbyterian Church and the United Church for many years, have recently visited Korea, Singapore and India. Mrs. Armstrong left no doubts in the minds of her listeners that Christianity and Communism as a way of life are the two vast powers of the nations struggling for the possession of the souls of men. Appreciation to the speakers and soloist of the afternoon was expressed by Mrs. A. E. Milner. Mrs. F. Frisby read some well chosen verses which with a hymn closed the meeting.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 26, in Central United Church, Rev. Wm. Thornloe of Zephyr will show colored films of Newfoundland.
