"The clothing trade reports an uptrend in night shirts," says a trade report. There has always been an uptrend in night shirts. That's why we wear pajamas.

CEDAR GROVE

(December 4th)

Why is it that it takes the first fall of snow to really convince us that Christmas is on its way? Perhaps if the snow arrived a little earlier we would be prepared for the event much sooner. Here's a thought to consider some night when the Yuletide preparations have left you exhausted and you wonder if the children really appreciate all that goes into making Christmas live up to their expectations. They are just as busy as you are. Exams are over but they are working very hard to make their holiday concerts at school and at church a success. No doubt it is all a lot of fun, but it must be tiring to go over their parts again and again until they are perfect and all so that their parents will enjoy the concert.

The school desks project is nearing completion and the trustees would like to express their appreciation to all those who helped directly or indirectly. It was a big job but the desks look so nice the hard work was well rewarded. You may be wondering what is to happen to the old desks . . . the ones you had when you were at school. If, for sentimental or practical reasons, you would like to have your old desk, you may. Those who helped prepare the new ones will get top priority but it will be first come first served. If you want one let the secretary know not later than next week. Incidentally, from the practical standpoint, they make very useful telephone tables or can be rubbed down to make attractive vanity dressers.

A letter received this week from Ruth Marshall, Secretary of the Ontario Archaeological Society, may prove of interest to many of you who heard Prof. Emerson speak a few weeks ago. It reads in part: "Mr. J. Norman Emerson of the Dept. of Anthropology, University of Toronto has informed me of the interest in archaeology which you and others in your vicinity have displayed. It is in this regard that I, on behalf of the Ontario Archaeological Society, extend to you and your friends an invitation to attend the monthly meeting of the Society to be held in the form of a banquet on Wednesday, Dec. 10th, 1952, at Maison Dore, 38 Asquith Ave., Toronto, at 7 p.m. . . . This is not a very good hour for farmers but perhaps you will be able to manage to attend. The price is $2.25 and the speaker will be Mr. T. F. McIlraith. If you would like to attend please contact Blodwen Davies as soon as possible.

The euchre winners at Monday night's game were Mrs. Albert Booth, Mrs. Archie Little, Mrs. Roy Penny, Archie Little, Ed McCowan and Ed Williams.

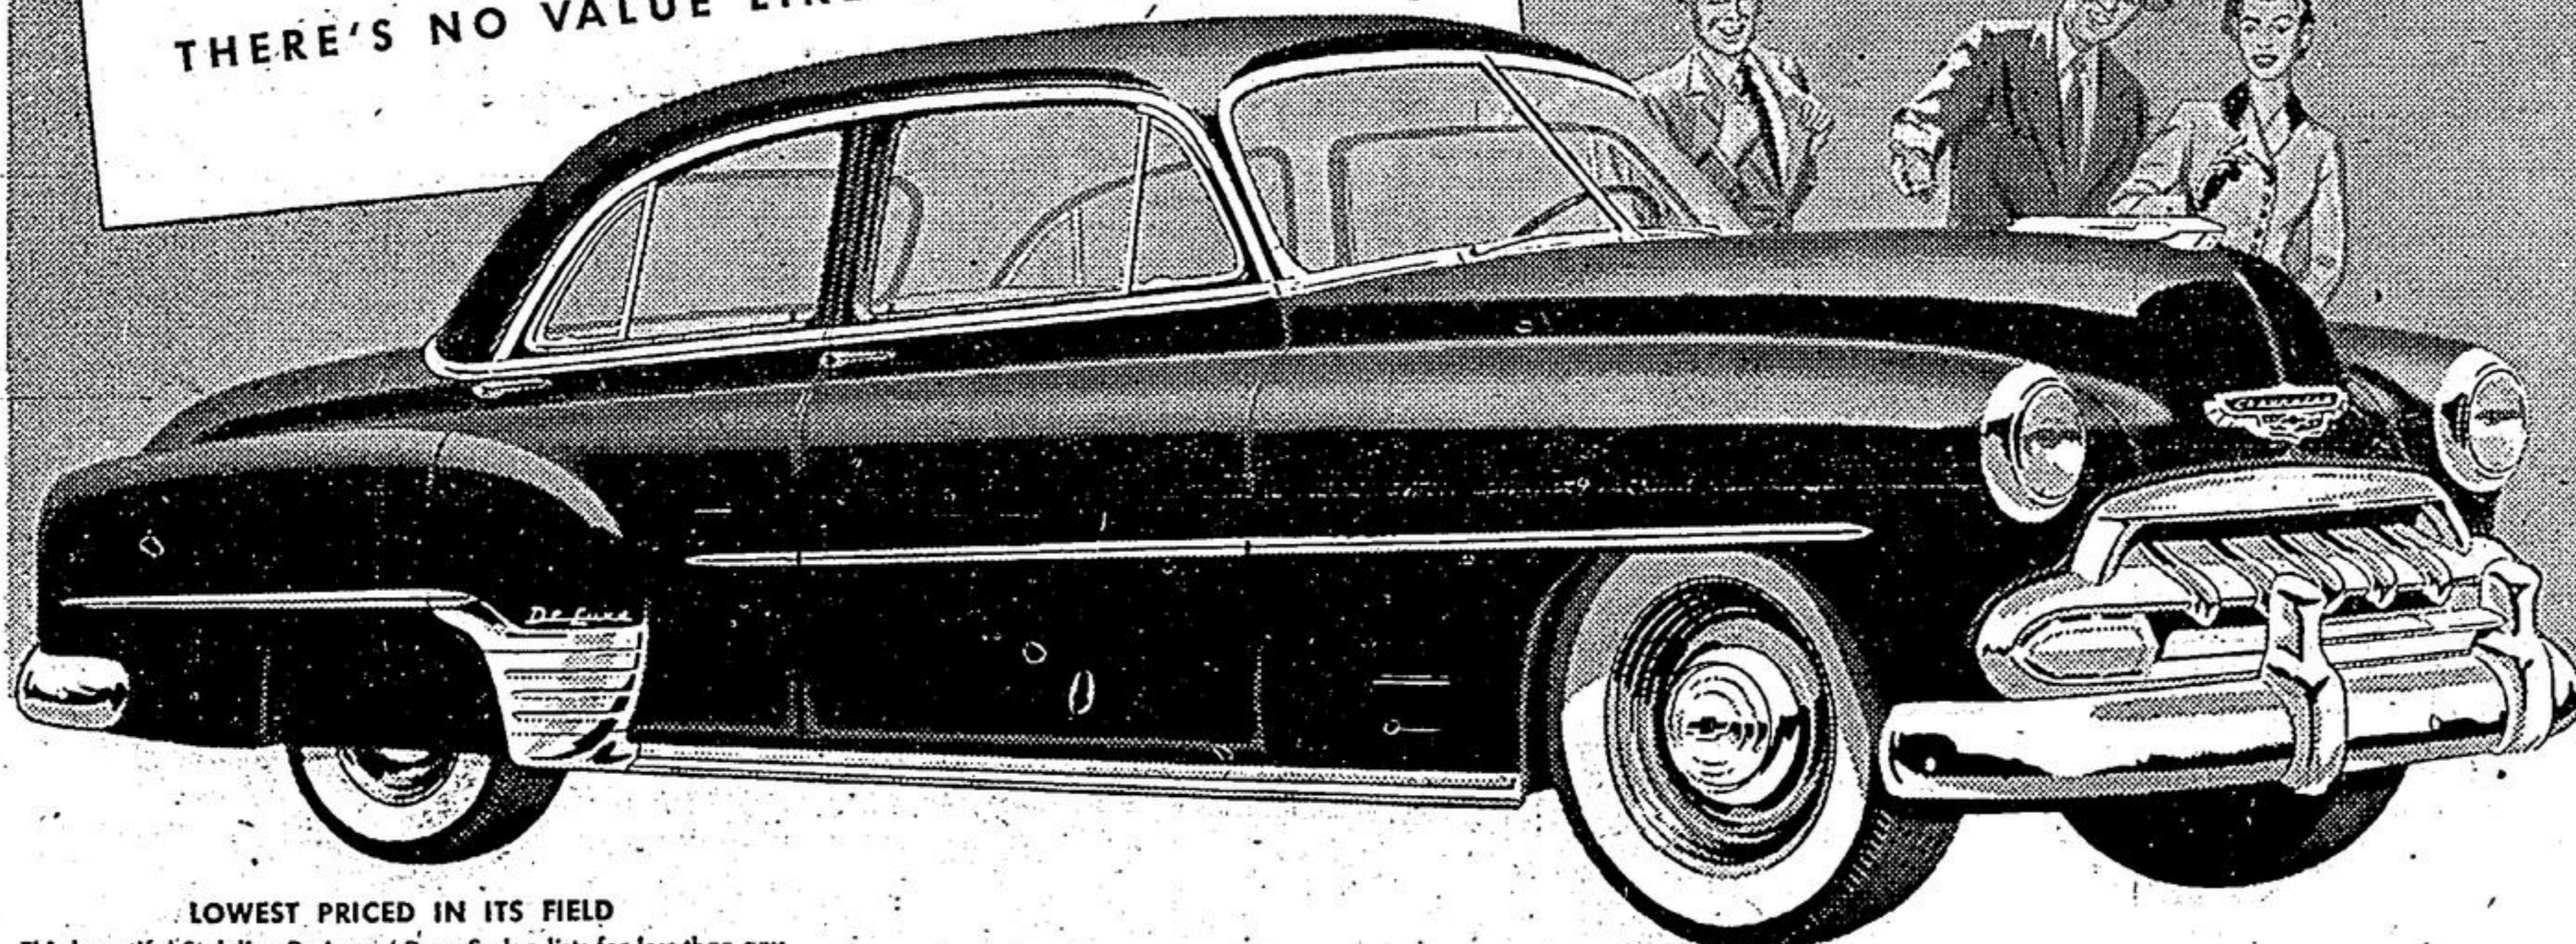

This Thursday Mr. Arthur Reesor will celebrate his birthday. We wish him a very happy day and a good many more to come.
