Mrs. Geo. Pugh returned to her home at Coboconk after visiting last week with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Birkett accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wilson, Toronto, visited Sunday with Mr. John Birkett and daughter at Port Perry.

A number of business places in town are undergoing extensive alterations this week. A new floor and deep freeze counter will be added to Danny O'Boyle's butcher shop while the floor in the rear of Roy Curtis' store has been lowered. Erle Lehman is having the entire front of his store remodelled and Len Wilkes Clothes Shop is being re-decorated. New panel is being put in the walls of Farr's Electric store and a fresh coat of paint is to be added.

Mr. Harry M. Spang of Brougham, who has been employed for the past ten months with the Wignall & Shepherd Real Estate at Markham, has transferred to the Real Estate firm of James Greenwood, Both Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Spang are very well-known throughout the local area and would enthusiastically welcome any real estate negotiations. Their office for this work is at Markham.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Barrow in the very sudden passing of their son, Jimmy. Mr. and Mrs. Barrow and family used to live where Mr. and Mrs. N. Hill are now.

The Senior Women's Institute held another of its euchre and crokinole parties on Tuesday evening of last week with ten tables of euchre and two of crokinole. Prize winners were: euchre: ladies, Mrs. P. Willows, Mrs. D. McIntosh, gents, Mr. Traynor Canning, Mr. R. Frisby; crokinole, Mr. Lawrence Boynton, Eddie and Neil Donnelly, tied. The Institute is sponsoring another euchre in the Community Hall on Tuesday evening, March 3, at 8 p.m. Proceeds for renovating the hall.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.A. was held Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. J. Snider with twenty-five ladies present. The scripture was read by Mrs. F. Walker. Mrs. L. Hart gave the lesson thoughts. Mrs. Joyce sang a solo. An interesting topic, "The History of the Churches of Buttonville," was given by Mrs. G. Kelly of Buttonville. A social half hour followed the meeting.

Several of the W.M.S. members attended the World Day of Prayer service held Friday afternoon of last week at the Headford United Church.

GOODWOOD

Ten women from the Goodwood W.A. attended the annual meeting of the Women's Association of the Toronto East Presbytery of the United Church of Canada on Tuesday, Feb. 24th. The meeting was held at the Kew Beach United Church in Toronto and started at 10 a.m. Both morning and afternoon sessions were extremely interesting. Luncheon was served by the Kew Beach W.A. in their new hall. A short report on the meeting will be given at the regular monthly meeting of the W.A. on Thursday afternoon, Mar. 26, at the home of Mrs. A. Hall.

Mr. Stanley Dyer, student of Lorne Park College and representative of the Temperance Federation, preached a fine sermon at the Baptist Church on Sunday last.

and Mrs. Reuben May on Monday evening. Crokinole was provided for those who preferred it to the more strenuous exercise. A delicious lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald James of Markham visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagg, on Sunday.

His many friends in Goodwood were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Rev. Caleb Harris of Toronto last week. Mr. Harris was a former pastor of the Baptist here.

Mrs. Howard Harper has returned from a two week visit to Florida.

We are sorry to report the death of Rev. Wm. Kendall of Bala, formerly a resident of our community. We extend our sympathy to his granddaughters, Mrs. Russel Oke and Mrs. E. Isles.

Nobody feels better than the man who's done a good day's work—unless, of course, it's his boss.

JUNIOR FARMERS LIVE UP TO THEIR SLOGAN

Bruce Mason, Bolton, Ont., is typical of the 11,000 members of the Junior Farmers of Ontario, who have developed such enterprises as dramatic plays, hockey contests, sewing classes, cooking schools and agricultural exhibitions. Bruce, who intends to become a dairy farmer, finds time to manage a JFO hockey team.
