Recorded Vote Over Confidence In Planning Board

"Don't you ever attend any of our meetings?" hammered back Dr. Tanner.

"Yes," replied the Deputy Reeve, "but it became very monotonous sitting through your meetings listening to all those petty delegations."

"We don't consider them as petty," argued Dr. Tanner.

"It was on just such matters that you were wrong last year," exclaimed Councillor Hooper.

"So you thought, so you thought?" countered the Deputy Reeve.

"I accuse this planning board of playing politics," continued LeMasurier.

"You had better clean your own house," demanded Planning Board member, Mr. A. Stagg.

"That's a serious charge," warned Councillor Lennie.

"I demand a retraction of that statement," demanded Mr. Stagg.

"I will do no such thing, and besides I can prove it," retorted the Deputy Reeve.

At this point Reeve Timbers intervened stating that the majority of council members were behind the Planning Board and that they should carry on as they had done in the past.
