FIGURES of Annual Reports make fascinating reading when they come from the chemical industry. An interesting item from the record $261/2 million C-I-L spent on new construction last year is its new Coppercliff Plant. Here is control panel of this "pushbutton" plant where waste gases are turned into the liquid sulphur dioxide essential to pulp mills in the manufacture of paper.

CONGRATULATIONS to Donald Garrard! This year's Grand Award Winner on the popular, nation-wide radio program, "C-I-L Singing Stars of Tomorrow", receives his award from internationally known musical figure, Dr. Edward Johnson. Over $1,000 in musical awards were recently awarded to eight talented young Canadian singers who topped the 44 contestants heard throughout the past season on "C-I-L Singing Stars of Tomorrow".

BYGONE DAYS From the Files of the Tribune Mr. O.W. Zellar nearly lost a cow the other day when the animal was struck by a motor car passing along the Pickering-Markham townline. The heifer was thrown into the ditch. Mr. Zeller's two children were herding the cows at the time but the injured one ran across the road in front of the oncoming car. Messrs. Abner Baker, Jacob Baker, Grant Baker, Stanley Slack, Glenn Ratcliff and Harry Pennock motored to Hamilton last week to hear Rev. McGinley, the noted speaker addressing a large gathering in the Locke Street Baptist Church.

An excellent job has been made of oiling the roads in the village which was completed last week. It required about 400 gallons at a cost of $400.00.

About 6:30 in the evening of last Friday, some person threw a stick through the large window in the home of Mrs. W.H. Shaw. In addition to shattering the large plate glass, the big blind inside was also badly torn and destroyed. Rushing to the street the occupants of the house could see no one about but it is believed that the person escaped down the lane behind the stores. Constable Pugh is investigating.

It is not often that a village of our population is able to call out the "thunder" band to chirivari four married couples all in one evening. Such a thing happened here on Monday night when Mr. and Mrs. Ken Betz, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stover. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gunn were all "entertained."

The large frame hotel on the south shore of Lake Musselman owned and operated by Fred Coultice who purchased it a few years ago from Ed-ward Baker of Stouffville, was burned to the ground on Monday morning. The fire was first noticed by a couple of men walking about the grounds. Both brigades from Stouffville and Unionville fought the blaze. The fire is believed to have started in the chimney.

Has "Fatal Fascination" for Cougars

Gerry Walters of Port Alice, B.C., seems to have a "fatal fascination" for cougars. While recovering from an attack by a cougar last March, in which his arm and leg were badly bitten. Walters, seen above with his wife and trophy, recently "had another encounter with one in his own back yard. Spotting the animal outside their home, Mrs. Walters sounded the alarm and Gerry came running with his rifle in tow. He fired two shots, which only wounded the animal and sent it scurrying into his garage. After thrashing around inside for a while, it came out chasing Walters, who managed to pump another shot into it before retreating for more ammunition. Four more shots were needed to kill the animal as it lay among the

Trades Training for an Army Career Under the Soldier Apprentice Plan

The Canadian Army Soldier Apprentice Plan offers a unique career opportunity for young men of 16 who want a good future. 3-way programme trains Soldier Apprentices for careers as skilled soldier tradesmen.

- · Trades training under expert instructors in one of 16 skilled trades.
- · Academic training in physics, chemistry, algebra, English, etc.
- · Military training as a Canadian Soldier.

Soldier Apprentices follow a balanced programme of study, work and play; live in separate residence at Army Schools under supervision of military and civilian instructors. It's a healthy, beneficial course of training that prepares Soldier Apprentices for fine careers.

Soldier Apprentices are eligible for all Army benefits, pensions and the 30 days annual leave. They receive half pay while 16 but upon reaching their 17th birthday they receive full pay with extra group pay as they qualify.

The young man who is interested in the happy, healthy and purposeful life of the Soldier Apprentice should investigate immediately.
