AUDLEY

It looks like we are going to have a little dryer weather. Haying has commenced and grass silos are being filled.

The new house of Mrs. Wonnacott's is now having the roof put on. It will have a splendid outlook over the valley.

The local church's W.A. held a bazaar and baking sale at the fine home of John and Mrs. Puckrin on Saturday last. It was one of the best events in the history of the association. Several attended from Pickering and visitors from Whitby and Almonds and other points were present. Over $120. was reported as proceeds.

The recent meeting of the Community Club was held in the school house. It was decided to hold the July picnic in the new Springside Park on No. 12 highway south of Brooklin. Provision for the needs of the ball club were arranged for, and routine business attended to.

The vicinity is sorry to lose the Hickford family who have been here for sometime. They are moving to East York and the Toronto family is taking their house.

Mrs. J. R. Davidson has been laid off for a few days with an injury to her hand.

Bob McHugh who lives with his sister, Mrs. Izatt, visited Ridgetown over the weekend.

If a man bites a dog, they say it is news. Almost as much news is to have a visitor from twenty miles away come with a horse and buggy. Mr. Corsan had such a visitor over the weekend.

Several from here attended the Groveside Cemetery decoration day on Sunday.

Several of our western friends have had their telephone numbers changed so in calling them you had better look at the directory.
