WEDDINGS

BOADWAY—MURPHY
The Stouffville United Church was decorated with pink carnations and white gladioli on Saturday, July 4th, for the marriage of Marion Eva Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Murphy, Oakville, to Lorne Wallace Douglas Boadway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boadway, Stouffville. Rev. Douglas Davis performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown of nylon tulle over satin and her matching fingertip veil was held by a band of flowers. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Her attendants were Miss Doreen Ogden, as maid of honour, and Miss Helen Goudie and Mrs. Jean Halstead as bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in strapless, ballerina length gowns of lace and net over pale blue taffeta with matching stoles, and carried nosegays of pink carnations and sweet peas, with blue cornflower.

Miss Jane Boadway, niece of the groom, was flower-girl, and wore a white nylon dress and carried a small nosegay of pink carnations and sweet peas. Lorne Malloy, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer, while Maurice Halstead was best man and Bill and Ed Murphy, twin brothers of the bride, acted as ushers. Mr. Gil Burrows of Toronto sang "Thru The Years" and "O Promise Me". He was accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Nolan at the organ who played the wedding music.

For the reception at the Queen Elizabeth Lodge, the brides mother chose cinnamon Chantilly lace over pink satin with pink accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore blue lace over taffeta with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

For travelling on a wedding trip to the Lake of Bays District, the bride donned a white linen suit with navy and white accessories.

WELLS—DAWN
St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Aurora was the scene of the marriage of Helen Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wells, Glenora Farm, Aurora and Robert Gerald Dawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawn of Shillington, Ontario. Rev. William Orr Mulligan officiated and the soloist, Miss Joyce Huson sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Through the Years".

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white nylon net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a halo of ruffled tulle and white butterflies and she wore a silver bracelet which was her grandmother Wells' in Scotland. She carried a cascade of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis. Her only attendant, Miss Marion Monkman, wore a gown of mauve eyelet embroidery and carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white carnations and stephanotis. An uncle of the groom, William Johnson was groomsman and the ushers were James Wells and Milford Johnson.

The reception was held in the Church Hall with the bride's mother receiving gowned in white figured nylon sheer, white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a gown of pale blue figured nylon with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Johnson, grandmother of the groom was dressed in navy crepe with white accessories.

For travelling the bride chose a bottle green gabardine suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

On their return the young couple will reside at Shillington in Northern Ontario.
