PROMINENT GROUP AT PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PICNIC

It was her first political speech, Lady Eaton of Eaton Hall Farm, King Twp., told her audience at the picnic held at Sharon Temple on Saturday in support of C.A. (Tiny) Cathers, Progressive Conservative candidate in the forthcoming federal election for York North. She is seen at the microphone with Mrs. Fred Moffat of Aurora, president of the women's section of the association. Others in the picture are

Reeve Asa Cook of Aurora Warden of York County: Major "Lex" Mackenzie, member for York North in the Ontario legislature; William Case, president of the York North federal Progressive - Conservative

Association; Earl Rowe, member of the House of Commons for Dufferin-Simcoe, who was principal speaker at the picnic, and, towering above them all, candidate "Tiny" Cathers himself.

P.C. Supporters Entertained at Walwyn Home

Supporters of C.A. (Tiny) Cathers, Progressive Conservative candidate for North York in the forthcoming federal el-ection, from Vaughan and King Townships were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walwyn at their farm home ut Kleinburg last week. Speak-ers, beside Mr. Cathers, were Major Lex Mackenzie, mem-ber of the Ontario legislature for York North; Mr. William Case, chairman of the York North Progressive Association; Mrs. Fred Moffat, chairman of the womens' association for York North, and Mrs. Walwyn

Expressing appreciation of the work which was being done on his behalf, Mr. Cathers emphasized his belief in the fact that his party could materially improve conditions for farmers and at the same time bring about a great reduc-tion in taxes, together with re-ducing extravagance and inefficiency in government. He, with others at the meeting expressed resentment of the attack which had been made the day before on national leader George Drew, who had been described by Colin Campbell aldescribed by Colin Campbell as "one of the most hated men
