STIVER BROS.

WEDDINGS

The wedding was solemnized in Toronto on Saturday, Aug. 29th of Sally Aida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aida of Stouffville, to Hide Yamasaki of Toronto. The ceremony was performed in Queen St. United Church. Margaret Aida the bride's niece from Stouffville, was flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. T.W. Aida and Joe also attended from here. The couple left on a honeymoon trip to New York.

DAVIS — GOUDIE

On Saturday, Aug. 29th, in the Stouffville United Church, Rev. Douglas Davis officiated at the marriage of his son Don Ald Sinclair to Helen Louise Goudie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Goudie, Stouffville. The church was decorated with standards of gladioli. Miss Anne Lehman played the wedding music while Mr. Lorne Boadway sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle length gown of lace and net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil was caught to a band of flowers. She carried a nosegay of pink gladioli and fern. Miss Helen Dickinson was the only attendant, wearing apple green nylon tulle over taffeta and carrying a nosegay of yellow gladioli. Mr. Bill Nicholson was best man and John Davis and Ivan Goudie were ushers.

For the reception following in the church basement, the bride's mother received in a dress of navy sheer with navy and pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom wore blue crepe with white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

WALLACE — PUGH

Baskets of gladioli formed the setting for an afternoon ceremony on Sat. Aug. 29, 1953 at Claremont United church when Edna Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pugh, Claremont, became the bride of John McFarlane Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wallace of Stouffville.

Rev. Harold Lackey performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Will Evans presided at the organ and Miss Helen Dean sang "Bless This House" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a lace jacket over a strapless gown of white satin with an overskirt of tiered nylon net.

Mrs. George Alsop was matron of honour for her sister in a waltz length strapless gown of mauve rosepoint lace and net over taffeta with matching stole and pleated headress. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and pink gladioli.

Miss Gladys Pugh, sister of the bride and Miss Rita Finney were bridesmaids, both were gowned alike in waltz-length strapless gown of pale green nylon net over taffeta with matching jackets and pleated headress. They carried bouquets of yellow roses and pink gladioli.

The flower girls were Miss Carol McDonald, niece of the bride and Miss Barbara Pugh, niece of the groom, gowned alike in yellow net over taffeta with matching pleated headress and wristlets and they carried nosegays of baby zinnia's and pink carnations.

Mr. Eric Wallace was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Percy Pugh, brother of the bride and Mr. Bruce Lehman.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the Sky Loft, Chalk Lake, where the bride's mother received wearing navy crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing dusty rose crepe with black accessories and a corsage of cream roses.

For travelling the bride chose a navy suit matching that of the groom with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

On their return from Quebec and the eastern United States they will reside in Weston, Ont.

Your local editor had a unique experience during the recent vacation week while motoring in the States. Along with his family and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G.L. Williamson, Markham, parents of Mrs. Nolan, he was enjoying the quiet evening coolness around the grounds of Notre Dame University, South Bend, Indiana, when an explosion occurred in the Chemistry building there and not many rods from where the local party was strolling. The University fire brigade plus three units from the city of South Bend were called into play as flames shot from third storey windows. The outbreak was finally brought under control but not without considerable damage. Chemical experiments under refrigeration were said to have caused the explosion.

Preparations are going ahead for the second annual Stouffville Trade Fair to be held in the local arena on Sept. 24-25-26. It would appear from the requests for floor space that the entire building will be completely sold out again this year. Last year's show, the first of its kind ever held here, and sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was an overwhelming success and drew thousands of spectators during the three-day exhibition.
