IN MEMORIAM

MARSHMAN—In loving memory of my dear husband, Frederick, who passed away suddenly Sept. 1st, 1950. There is a wife who misses you sadly. And finds the time long since you went: And I think of you daily and hourly. But try to be brave and content. But the tears that I shed are in silence. And I breathe a sigh of regret. For you were mine—and I remember Although all the world forget. Ever remembered by wife Edith and family.

WATSON—In memory of Ross Watson, who entered into rest on Sept. 11, 1951. Surrounded by friends, I am lonesome. In the midst of my joys, I am blue. With a smile on my face, I've had a heartache. Longing, dear husband for you. Ever remembered by wife and family.
