

"Quality" "Service"
Our "O" Line of Feeds

- Egg-O Laying Mash
- Egg-O Chick Grower
- Egg-O Fattening Feed
- Pork-O Pig Starter
- Pork-O Hog Grower
- Pork-O Hog Finisher
- Pork-O Sow Ration
- Pork-O Concentrate
- Milk-O 24% Dairy Ration

STIVER BROS.

Phone 64508 or 45w1

WEDDINGS

ALDERSON — WATSON

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Sept. 19th at the Baptist parsonage in Uxbridge when Mrs. Irene Watson became the bride of Mr. Dalton Alderson. The bride looked lovely in a gray wool suit with blue accessories and wore a mink fur neckpiece, the gift of the groom, and a corsage of red mums.

The matron of honour Mrs. Hazel Carruthers of Claremont, chose a very attractive rosewood wool suit with navy accessories and a corsage of bronze mums. She also wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom, and a corsage of red mums.

The bride's matron of honour Mrs. Hazel Carruthers of Claremont, chose a very attractive rosewood wool suit with navy accessories and a corsage of bronze mums. She also wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom, and a corsage of red mums.

A reception was held in the Martin Hotel, Uxbridge. The tables were tastefully decorated with white mums. Later the happy couple left on a motor trip to Detroit and Flint, Michigan. On their return they will reside at Maple Grove Farm on the 4th con. of Uxbridge.

HEPBURN — DUNCAN

St. Andrews United Church Chapel in Toronto was the scene on Saturday, October 10, of the marriage of Ruby Elizabeth Hepburn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn, and Robert Gordon Duncan, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Duncan. Rev. W.J. Patton, B.A. of Owen Sound officiated, assisted by Rev. Maurice Kelly of Toronto.

The bride's ballerina length gown was pale pink satin covered with layers of lace and scalloped peplum effect and fashioned with long pointed sleeves. Her waist length veil was caught by a cap of pink feathers and wearing white lace gloves she carried a cascade of pink delight, roses, white mums and stephanotis. Given in marriage by her brother in law, Mr. Elliott Sandy of Lucknow, she was attended by Mrs. William Ash, matron of honor, wearing white flowered net over pale blue taffeta and carrying a nosegay of yellow mums and roses.

The groomsmen were William Ash and the ushers were James Duncan and Russell Gemmill.

On leaving the chapel a guard of honour was formed by fellow Oddfellows of Toronto Canton Number Seven Lodge, assisted by Royal City Canton Number Thirteen Lodge of Guelph.

The reception was held at Muirhead's, Richmond Street, Toronto to fifty guests. Rev. W.J. Patton, Chaplain of the Lodge proposed the toast to the bride and Brig. Gen. Arch Parsons, Canton, Ontario proposed the toast for the Department of Ontario answered by Dept. Commander William Adams of Port Dover, Ontario.

For going away the bride wore a copper coloured suit with brown accessories. After a short trip the newly weds will reside in Toronto for a while before taking up residence in Weston.

RINGWOOD

Visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs over the holidays were Mr. William Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott and family and Miss Margaret Hobbs all of Toronto.

Kindergarten Nursery School Annual Report

The annual meeting of the K.N.S. was held Tues. Oct. 6. The nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for the forthcoming year, which was adopted: President, Mrs. Marie Jack; Vice-President, Mrs. Mary Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Mary Stapley; Treasurer, Mrs. Kay Lee; Social committee, Mrs. Roma Davies, Mrs. Joan Garrett, Mrs. Norma Brillinger, Mrs. Ethel Mole.

The mothers enjoyed a short talk, given by the School Supervisor, Mrs. Kay Pearce, on "The Development of Pre-School Art," also the samples of the children's work which demonstrated the various stages of growth. The remarks were based on the recent book, "Art Education in the Kindergarten," by Dr. Chas. D. (and Margaret R.) Gaitskill, Director of Art Education for Ontario. The findings in this book are the result of a study of some 9000 children.

Mrs. Helen DeWitt then addressed the group on one of the phases of her recent Extension Course from the University of Toronto on the subject of "Discipline." The particular aspect on which she spoke of vital interest to all parents, was entitled "Directing the Emotions." This was based on research material originally presented by Dr. W. Blatz, director of the Institute of Child Study.

Mr. and Mrs. George Green and Murray of Collingwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pipher and Murray.

Mrs. O. Lehman, Church St. visited with cousins in Brooklin over the weekend.

Mrs. Blanche Cannon and Mr. Ernest Gower of Belleville have been visiting with the latter's brother George Gower and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schell and family of Wallaceburg and Mrs. Annie Allen of Toronto were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Schell.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Percy Brillinger entered a Toronto Hospital recently to undergo an operation.

E.A. Grubin, R.O., optometrist, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday, and Tuesday, Oct. 19th and 20th, two days, afternoons and evenings only.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. Bert Batt is up and around again. Although still weak, Bert says he hopes to get down town again shortly.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Bert Bell, well known Stouffville business man is confined to his home for several weeks, having been ordered to take a rest by his doctor.

The members of the W.M.S. of the United Church are invited to Agincourt on Wed. Oct. 21 to celebrate their 70th anniversary. Mrs. McKillop Domplion Board Past President will be guest speaker. All wishing transportation call Mrs. D. Holden 184J.

Miss Erla Holden of Oakville attended the Alumni Homecoming of University of Western Ontario at London this weekend and also visited her parents here on Thanksgiving Monday.

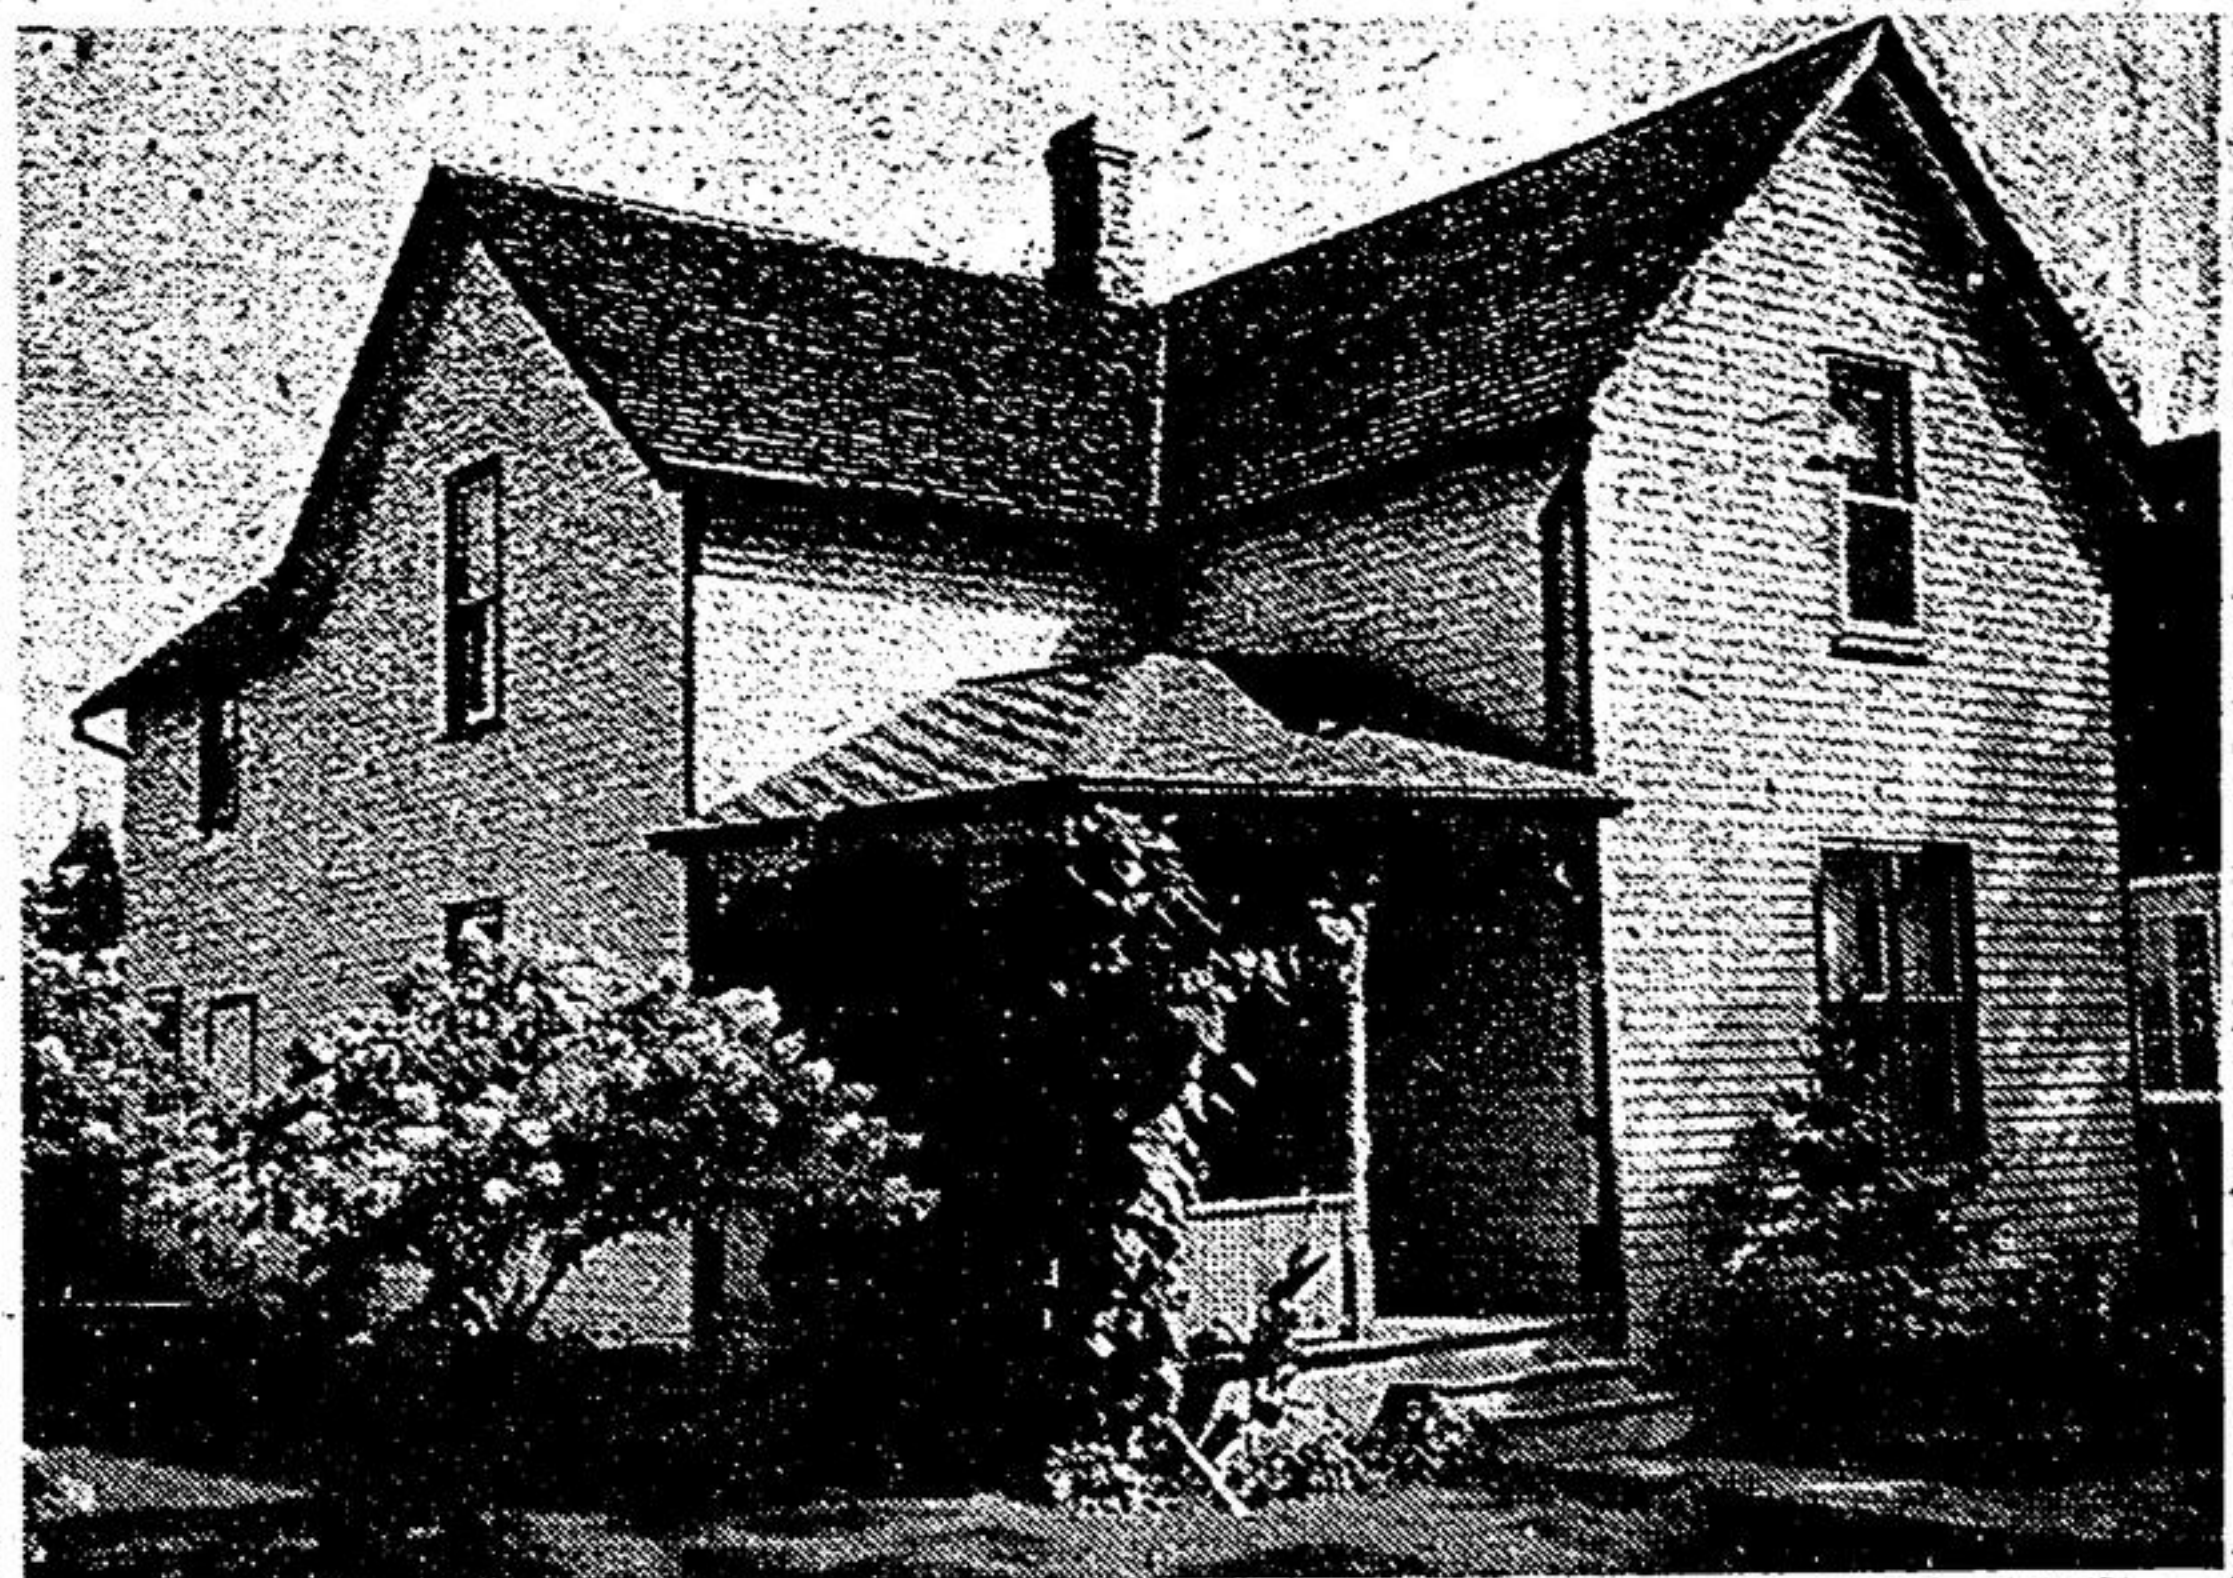

The cost of street lighting is going up. Stouffville council last week paid $1,849 for street lighting for the previous twelve months. A number of new lights have been added during the year and more are scheduled to go up so that the annual street lighting cost will very soon reach $2,000.

Stouffville's new street signs are being erected. They are a credit to the town and are receiving much favourable comment. The signs are the best to be found anywhere, are well mounted and easy to read. All the streets on Main St. will have new signs this year with the other residential areas receiving signs next year we expect.

A group from the C.E. Union of Christian Churches attended the 54th annual convention of Christian Endeavor held at Alma St. United Brethren Church, Kitchener on Thanksgiving weekend. Those attending were Misses Helen Lemon, Dorothy Wagg, Jean Brown, Joyce Byer, Nelda Dunkeld and Mrs. Fred Byer. They attended the Sunday morning worship service at the United Missionary church where Rev. H.S. Hallman is pastor.

Our Local and Personal Happenings

ONE OF EARLIEST CHURCH STREET HOMES

This is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Morris on Church St. south, Stouffville, and one of the oldest homes on the street. The place was for some time the home of Frank Saunders and family over half a century ago, also the John Raymond place. Fire damaged the place considerably some years ago, but it was rebuilt and occupied for a long period by the late Mrs. Nancy Hamilton after which Mr. and Mrs. Morris came from the farm just east of town to live retired there.

Miss I. Robinson, Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nolan.

T.W. Aida and family spent the Thanksgiving weekend in Ottawa visiting friends.

Miss Hilda Garrard spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dack and family of Weston spent Monday with Mrs. Robert Young.

Mrs. G. Thomas, Church St. spent the weekend with her sons and their families in Toronto.

Boys — the Lions Club sponsored Peeyee N.H.L. hockey league commences this Saturday afternoon at 12 o'clock

Mrs. Jean Richardson of Bronte visited with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tarr and Miss Vera Tarr over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fockler, Diane and Susanne spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Almer Fockler, north of town.

Visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Fleury were Mr. and Mrs. Keown of Toronto and formerly from Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. C.N. Perkin of Ballantrae attended the Golden Wedding anniversary of his oldest sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Campbell at Moorefield on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Janet Hope of Hamilton and Donald Hope of O.A.C. Guelph spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hope.

Fight Pictures
The Stanley Theatre will be showing the LaStarza — Marciano fight as an extra on Wednesday and Thursday, October 21st and 22nd.

Thanksgiving visitors with Miss Jane Burkett were Mr. and Mrs. A. Burkitt of Oakville and Mr. and Mrs. Buck and baby daughter Susan of Port Credit.

Home for Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fleury were Margaret of Toronto and Cpl. and Mrs. Maurice Dixon and son Tommie of Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fleury holidayed recently in Picton with their daughter and in Smithville with their son. They also visited in Wingham Essex, Kingsville and other points in Western Ontario.

Traffic returning cityward on Thanksgiving evening was some of the heaviest of the summer and cars moved down the 8th concession below Ringwood bumper to bumper.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wideman, Misses Reta and Jean Rae and Mr. Glen Wideman motored to Detroit on Thanksgiving weekend, attending the Billy Graham meeting at State Fair Grounds, the Brethren in Christ church, also a visit to the Detroit Ford Motor Plant, noon.

For those interested in the woodworking classes now commencing at the High School as part of the winter Hobby Class program, the fee is $6 not $8 as stated in the display adv. in this issue. There is a limited enrolment in this class so that registration should be made as soon as possible.

Friends will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Borinsky are leaving this month on an extensive tour to the Near East, including Palestine. Mr. and Mrs. Borinsky make their home in Toronto but Mr. Borinsky commutes to and from Stouffville in connection with his creamery business here.

The death occurred in Toronto on Sunday, Oct. 11th, of Louis Scott, husband of Helen Marie Feren, formerly of Stouffville. Mr. Scott died suddenly while only in his 26th year. Mrs. Scott came originally from Goodwood, although she attended school in Stouffville and the couple were married five years ago. Deceased was employed by the Aero Photographic Co. He was a roller skating enthusiast and had won several trophies in this connection. The late Mr. Scott was born in St. Catharines, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott. Besides his wife, he is survived by his parents, 4 sisters and 3 brothers. The funeral on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. Douglas Davis and interment was made in the Goodwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and daughter were at Hall's Lake over the weekend.

David Atkinson came by plane to attend the funeral of his mother on Monday.

Mrs. W.H. Urquhart and Miss Olive Card of Owen Sound called on Miss Mae Urquhart one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Reid of Toronto spent the Thanksgiving weekend in town at the home of Mrs. A.V. Nolan.

Mrs. Mabel McMullen of Toronto was in town during the holiday weekend visiting at the Lloyd Hoover home, eastend.

The Whitby Lindsay Association of Baptist Churches will meet in Uxbridge Baptist Church, Wednesday evening and all day Thursday. Thurs. afternoon and evening plan to attend and hear an outstanding speaker in the person of Dr. Orville Daniels, late of India.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. Levi Mustard is presently at his home on Burkholder St. after a long and arduous stay in the hospital following his serious accident in which he suffered the loss of a leg. The family is now settled in a new home at the westend and Mr. Mustard's many friends have been anxiously following his progress.

Merv Watts Stouffville rink captured some Thanksgiving turkeys last week in the Men's Trebles Bowling tournament held on the local green. Perkins rink from Richmond Hill was high for three wins, Sullivan's rink from Balmly Beach, Toronto was also high for three, Weir's rink from Balmly Beach, Toronto was also high for two and Merv Watt's Stouffville threesome was high for one win. Another turkey was won by a Mr. Glennie, Withrow Park, Toronto, as a lucky draw prize.

PEACHES

Rev. R.T. and Mrs. Chaplin of Greenbank enjoyed supper one evening recently while visiting Mrs. Jos. Kirk and Elva.

We welcome the Kennedy family into our community. They have taken up residence on the former Hoover farm.

On Tuesday night of last week a farewell party was held in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maynard who are leaving our community soon. The gathering was held in S.S. No. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deavitt of Toronto were visiting with the two Miller families Saturday.

Mrs. George Hoover, Fern and Earle motored to Beaverton Sunday where they spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. John McCausland and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warriner and Laura journeyed to Englehart over Thanksgiving weekend to visit with relatives.

The October meeting of the W.M.S. was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Hisey. Mrs. George McCleverty was in charge of the devotional period while Mrs. George Sale took the study book.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wagg, Annie Murray and Miss Lorna Prestage enjoyed a scenic motor trip to Kagawong, Manitoulin Island over the holiday weekend.

Mr. Roy Heaton has opened a spray painting shop in Chas. Ward's garage. Everything from tractors to refrigerators will be done over in any color specified.

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL FOR THAT TANK FULL!

You'll be mighty glad your oil tank is full when the first cold snap comes along. Our service is always prompt; our deliveries always clean. Phone Today!

AND WE ALSO HANDLE THE LEADER IN OIL HEAT Your Co-Op

Presents the new space heater

with the wide oval burner for complete combustion

Here is space heating at its finest—a gentle circulation of warm, tempered air for better health and greater comfort—at the turn of a dial.

Remember... "You're on top— with Co-Op."

Stouffville CO-OP Phone 269

Admire's Grill

New Owner of the old Grand Grill.

WE SPECIALIZE IN FISH & CHIPS, THE ENGLISH STYLE

Also Steaks, Chops, Sandwiches, Meals, and Light Lunches.

— SEE US FOR ROOM AND BOARD —

Phone 86j1 Stouffville

OPENING EDNA WARD'S... School of Dancing

BALLET — TOE — TAP AEROBATIC

Pupils Register Saturday Morning, October 17th 10 a.m. to 12 noon at

MRS. MCGROGAN'S, Beside Post Office