GOODWOOD

The school children enjoyed Hallowe'en party and box social at the Goodwood school last Friday afternoon. There were many colorful costumes and prizes were won by Barbara McChesney, John Paxton, Jim Rummennie and Peter Lundinger. The Wolf Cubs accompanied by Assistant Cubmaster Peter Franger, Lorne Tindall, and Edward Foskett drove to Tindall's ranch last Friday evening for a very enjoyable weiner past. The Boy Scouts are planning square dance and box social this Friday evening in the Goodwood community Hall. Everyone is welcome and the ladies are asked to bring box lunches. Many very spooky costumes added to the enjoyment of those who attended the B.Y.

P.U. Hallowe'en social in the Baptist church basement. A number of games were played and a tasty lunch served. Mission Band will be held Friday afternoon at 4:15 in the Baptist church. All children are welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wagg visited with their son Lloyd and family in Brantford on Sunday. Mrs. George Stewart visited with her son Murray and family a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Granger and Peter spent Sunday with their son Bryan and his family in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gerrard and their three girls spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall. The W.A. Bazaar held last Saturday in the United church was very successful. By 2:30 the basement of the church was crowded and after the singing of "God Save The Queen," student minister Roy Jordison declared the bazaar open. The hall was decorated in Hallowe'en colors and lighted pumpkin faces. The crowd soon depleted the wonderful displays of home baking, sewing, knitting, etc and enjoyed a cup of tea prepared in the new kitchen which was used Saturday for the first time. Mr. John Ashenhurst is working hard to have the kitchen entirely finished for the Turkey supper, November 11th. Proceeds from both the bazaar and the supper will help pay for the kitchen. The bazaar committee is very grateful to all those who donated and helped in any way.

BLOOMINGTON

Visitors at O. Tranmer's this week were Mr. and Mrs. H. Kee, Orangeville and Mr. and Mrs. W. Traumer and family of Jackson's Pt. Mr. and Mrs. H. Reichardt of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lemon on Sunday. Mrs. Hassard of Toronto was a recent guest at her brother's, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fairles, also Mr. and Mrs. Fairles were on a trip to Ayre visiting with friends on Sunday. Mrs. T. White, sister of Mrs. Noel Storry is quite ill in East General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. R. Leask and family of Greenbank were at her parent's, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Fockler's on Sunday. The 120th Anniversary of our Bloomington church was observed on Sunday by a grateful number of worshippers who were present in large numbers. The speaker, Rev. Tyler of China Inland Mission gave two challenging messages on "Jesus in the midst" union and division. The choir gave several numbers under the leadership of Mr. Howard of Tiverton and Miss Barbara Mills and he also sang a solo. An orchestra of twelve instruments from the Interchurch group of Toronto rendered a number of good selections. Among those present that at one time were connected with this church we noted Rev. C. E. and Mrs. Fockler and Mrs. M. Paisley of Markham, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hobson of Keswick, Mrs. Snowball of Markham, Mrs. Leeger of Box Grove, Mr. and Mrs. I. Ramer of Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. Winn, Toronto and several others from points near here.

GREENWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jenkins of Magnetawan were visitors recently with her sister, Mrs. M. Pegg and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Annis of Orillia spent last weekend with their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Blake and family. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mr. Reg Clarke who was accidentally killed when his tractor overturned while drawing water last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. C. Richardson of Brooklin were callers at the Stanley Byers home last Sunday. Mr. Alf Pegg, Donnie Pegg, and Ken Brooks left last Saturday morning for the Parry Sound district to do some hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Henning commenced building their house on the corner of her father's farm, I. McLean, last week. C. McTaggart is doing the work. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brooks arrived home from England last Thursday after spending three months there. They had a very enjoyable trip. Mr. L. Pehbles, a layman from Toronto gave a very inspiring address on Temperance at church last Sunday morning. The regular meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of the W.M.S. was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Closson on Wednesday evening, Oct. 28th. The worship service on the theme, "The Church - A Unique Fellowship," was presented by Mrs. G. Moore assisted by Mrs. A. Short and Mrs. C. McTaggart. Chapter 2 and 3 of "Where e'er the Sun" entitled "New Ways for New Days" was given by Mrs. Wardle, Mrs. W. Lawson and Mrs. T. Gardner. Plans were made for delegates to attend the Autumn Rally of the Western section of the Oshawa Presbyterian to be held in Kedron United Church on Thursday.
