

UNIONVILLE NEWS

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferguson of London, who have moved to Unionville district this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong of Hamilton spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rae.

Mrs. D. Ogden of Agincourt was a visitor at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Middleton on Saturday.

The busy season for the Post Office is now on. Two extra helpers for the rush have been added to the staff, Mrs. L. Middleton and Mrs. L. Diack.

Mrs. Helen Coulter and her grandson, who has been taking treatments in a Colorado Hospital have returned home. We are glad to hear he is much better.

The Children of the Veterans were treated on Sunday by the Veterans to their annual Xmas Tree and Treats. Moving pictures were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Harper and family who have been in the Yukon District for some time are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele of Beamsville visited at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Butt and Rev. and Mrs. McLachlan of Locust Hill were also their guests.

Mr. Penny of the 7th concession has purchased the Duthie farm on the 6th concession, where he expects to build in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Duthie have reserved the house and lot.

All the members of your family are invited to a Christmas family party at Unionville United Church on Tuesday, December 22nd. The party will start with a pot luck supper at 6:00 p.m.

Around two o'clock on Thursday morning the Unionville Fire Brigade was called out to a car which was almost completely destroyed by fire, between the third and fourth concessions on No. 7 highway.

A beautiful presentation of the Christmas story was given by the Junior Choir and Sunday School on Sunday night in Central United Church. About fifty children took part. They were assisted by their pastor, Rev. Butt and their S.S. Superintendent, Mr. A. Dyke. The church auditorium was well filled.

The Unionville Veterans entertained the children of the Unionville district to two ve-

MT. PISGAH

Belated birthday greetings to the Harvey triplets, Barbara, Brenda and Bonnie who were four years old on Sunday December 13th.

Mrs. Margaret Acey returned to Pembroke on Sunday, December 6th but will be back among us again early in January.

Mr. Harry Hunt, teacher at S.S. No. 6 announces that their concert will be at 8 p.m. on Monday, December 21st.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Mt. Pisgah W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Smith on Wednesday, December 9th. Mrs. George Boynton gave an interesting and timely devotional on "joy and love." This was followed by the singing of a Christmas carol and the Harvey triplets favoured with a song and chorus. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Alvin Stephenson, Vice, President, Mrs. Richard Bayercroft; Sec'y, Mrs. Chet Pattenden; Treasurer, Mrs. Harry Smith; Pianists Mrs. Roy Howlett and Mrs. Ross Keffer; Missionary convener, Mrs. Jack Gamble; Temperance convener, Mrs. Roy Smith; Flower and Sick committee, Mrs. Roy Howlett, Mrs. Ross Keffer; Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Thayer Hepburn and Mrs. George Leary; Parsonage committee, Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. R. Bayercroft.

Mrs. James MacDonald is under the doctor's care and has been ordered to bed. Her friends are sending good wishes for a quick recovery.

There will be a special missionary program in the Sunday School next Sunday, December 20th at 1:30 p.m. Come and join in worship and also in the Christmas service following at 2:30 p.m. Remember that at Christmas we celebrate the birthday of Christ.

Remember the Sunday School Christmas concert to be held in the Sunday School room on Wednesday, December 23rd at 8 p.m. Everyone welcome.

The Christmas meeting of the Gormley W.I. will be held in the home of Mrs. Bernard Kays on Wednesday, December 30th. (Please note change of day.) Roll call, "Childhood memories of Christmas." Mrs. Kays will give some Tweedsmuir history material. Program will be given by the grandmothers under the convener'ship of Mrs. E.A. Smith. There will be the usual exchange of gifts. Hostesses will be Mrs. E.A. Smith and Mrs. Garnet Evans. All are welcome.

The Gormley branch of the W.I. have received an invitation from the Aurora branch to be their guests to review slides of the A.C.W.W. Pageant which was held in the Maple Leaf gardens last August. They will be presented by Miss Anna P. Lewis and will be held in the United Church at Aurora on Tuesday, December 29th at 8 p.m. ry fine movie picture films at their hall on Saturday night. One of these films was put on through the courtesy of the T. Eaton Co. and was their 1953 parade. Those attending were treated to candy. The veterans were very much disappointed at the small attendance but those who did attend certainly enjoyed the fine evening's entertainment.

The W.M.S. and W.A. societies of Central United church met in the church on Thursday afternoon. A short meeting was held by the W.A. at 2 p.m. and reports of the standing committees were given. This was followed by a joint meeting at 2:30 p.m. when the Fidelis group, the Mission Band, the CGIT, the Explorers and Baby Band were entertained to a Christmas Party. A Christmas story was told by Mrs. H. Guscott entitled "Simon Gumps." The Devotional period was taken by Mrs. Milner who read the Scripture Lesson, Mrs. Martin who lead in prayer and Mrs. W. Oung gave a short but very interesting talk on "Stewardship of the mind." A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses of both Societies, Mrs. Guscott and Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. G. Ogden, assisted by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rennie of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wheeler of Agincourt spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ogden, East Drive.
