Season's Greetings to Tribune staff and readers:
The "Sprout-Gang" had their annual dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis on Monday night.

On Tuesday afternoon the ladies and children of the community were entertained by Mrs. Woodcock and her pupils. At the close, Santa arrived at the school and treated all the children. The pupils made a presentation to their teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis entertained the Harper family at Sunday Supper.

MT. PISGAH

"May the Spirit of Christmas
Its peace and its cheer,
Bring you all joys of the season
That will stay through the year."

It was very encouraging to see so many out on Sunday to hear the special missionary service arranged by Mrs. Roy Howlett at the Sunday School service. Rev. Mr. Moddle showed Christmas pictures and a duet "Safely Sleeps Little Babe" was sung by Mary and Howard Pattenden. Little Shirley Smith sang "Away in a Manger." Hope to see you all again next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gamble were guests at the marriage of Miss Shirley Boe and Mr. James Cuthbertson in Howard Park United Church, Toronto on Saturday December 19th.

The Christmas meeting of the Whitechurch Home and School Association was held in S.S. No. 7 on Thursday evening, December 17th. This meeting was postponed from December 14th but had a very good attendance regardless of that. Reverend Moddle showed a religious film and each child was presented with a bag of candy. The Senior room at S.S. No. 7 received the prize for having the most parents in attendance.

There will be an organization meeting on Saturday, January 9th at 8 p.m. in the Mt. Pisgah United Church to try and form a teen-age group. Anyone interested in this project are asked to please try and attend.

Congratulations to Mrs. Betty Hazenberg and Miss Blanche Tran on the fine Christmas entertainment at S.S. No. 7 on Monday afternoon of this week. Every pupil and pre-school child of the community received a bag of candy and nuts.

A Merry, Merry Christmas to all.
