MT. PISGAH

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Carr and Mr. John Mullings were guests for Saturday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey of Gormley. Master Hugh Mitchell of Oak Ridges is spending a few weeks with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stephenson while his parents Mr. and

Mrs. Bill Mitchell and sisters Janet and Karen are on a trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Patten and family were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. Alf Patten and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Preece at Vandorf.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kaarsemaker became the proud parents of a baby boy on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith have moved to an apartment at Oak Ridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirstein entertained a number of their friends in their home on Saturday night. Some colorful pictures of Ontario were shown and several games of bingo were played. Proceeds of the evening went to the Home & School Club.

A most rewarding evening was had by all attending the Home & School meeting held in S.S. No. 6 on Monday, March 8th. Mr. Noble, school inspector was the guest speaker and gave an interesting talk on the School Act & grant structure. Roseanne Barlow entertained with selections on the piano. The social conveners headed by Mrs. Metro Sudeyko served refreshments.

The Young Peoples' Group met in S.S. No. 6 on Friday. The religious convener John Mullings was in charge of the program.

Rev. Middle showed pictures of the various churches in our country.

Congratulations to Mr. Donald Evans who won a set of aluminum ware recently.

It was encouraging to see a good attendance at the W.A. meeting at Mrs. Carr's home. The meeting began with the World Day of Prayer service.

There was a good attendance at Sunday School and church on Sunday. Five of the senior girls sang, namely Misses Rose Marie, Joy and Jo-Anne Reid and Isobel and Ruth Chambers. Next Sunday will be the Missionary meeting in charge of Mrs. Roy Howlett. We will look for you all.

The Gormley Branch of the W. I. will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Boynton on Wednesday, March 31st. Please note change of date. Roll call—An Irish Joke. Tweedsmuir History material—Mrs. Geo. Boynton. Mrs. Gordon Munroe, convener for Home Economics and Health will provide the program. There will also be a sale of aprons. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Ash and Mrs. R. Elias.

Our school children are quite healthy. Some, however, have their bad spells.

GORMLEY

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Garnet Francey on the death of her mother, Mrs. Jas. Thompson, who was buried from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, on Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Willis Hunking spent the weekend with friends in Kitchener.

Mrs. Ropt. Millen of Downsview spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Patten, Marie and Murray, moved to their new home on the 5th of Whitchurch on Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Heise entertained some friends on Tuesday at a quilting.

We wish a speedy recovery for all our sick folks.

Master Victor Noble is confined to his home with the mumps.

Miss Donna Baker has been very ill with whooping cough. Mr. Harry Kruse spent the weekend with his sister in Seaforth and attended the funeral of Mrs. Parks there on Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Wideman who will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary next Tuesday, and to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barrett who will be married 18 years on Sunday.

Mrs. Jos. Doust has been in bed for several weeks, and Mrs. Levi Steckley has also been in bed for over a week.

Friends and relatives were very sorry on Monday night to learn of Mr. Reesor Steckley's loss when his barn was destroyed by fire.
