WEDDING

COX-INGLETON

Spring flowers formed a pretty setting in the Free Methodist Church, Armadale, on Saturday May 22, when Rev. E. Bull united in marriage Verna Muriel Kathleen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingleton, Agincourt, to Gordon Leonard Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox, Markham.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Leonard Jarvis and the soloist, Mrs. George Bagshaw, sang "Because" and "Through the Years".

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked lovely in a gown of ivory satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned on princess lines. The bodice of lace had a stand-up collar and long sleeves. The lace panelled skirt ended in a train. Her finger tip veil was gathered to a halo of Chantilly lace edged with seed pearls. She wore a three strand necklace and earrings, gift of the groom, and carried a cascade of Cala Lilies and blue iris.

Mrs. Howard Hoover, sister of the bride, as matron of honour was gowned in rose taffeta

You can rent a new Remington Portable typewriter from The Tribune or buy a 1953 or 1954 machine for as little as $25 down with a year to pay the balance.

In connection with the Coburn barn fire at Gormley last week, it is believed now that the children playing nearby with firecrackers were not responsible for setting the blaze, as was stated in a press report last week. While the exact origin is unknown, it is thought that dusty hay in the premises may have caused the outbreak.

The St. James Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. C. Morris for their May meeting on May 13th. The President, Mrs. R. Stevens, presided. The devotional period was in charge of Group 2, led by Mrs. C. Morris. A discussion on "Who is my Neighbor" was most interesting and helpful.

A social time was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Stouffville Fire Brigade made two runs during the holiday week-end, the second on the holiday when fire destroyed the club house of the Goodwood Golf Club located south of this Uxbridge Township hamlet. The club house, we understand since the establishment of the course and club which was formulated several years ago was never completed. The first call came from the Jake Baker farm on the 8th Con. of Whitchurch where the tractor took fire but the outbreak here was squelched before the brigade arrived.

with matching net headpiece sprinkled with rhinestones and carried a basket of blue iris and yellow daisies. The bridesmaids Miss Shirley Reesor and Patricia Dix, cousin of the groom were gowned in blue taffeta with matching net headpieces with rhinestones and carried baskets of pink sweet peas and yellow daisies. The attendants' gowns were styled alike.

The little flower girl Beth Ingleton, niece of the bride, was gowned in rose taffeta with pink bonnet and carried a tiny basket of yellow daisies and blue iris.

Kenneth Ingleton, brother of the bride, was train bearer and Mr. Bill Boyington, cousin of the groom, was best man. Mr. Ray Ingleton, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Hassard, cousin of the groom, were ushers.

The reception was held in the Community Hall at Agincourt. The bride's mother received in a dress of horizon blue crepe and lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses, assisted by the groom's mother dressed in rose shot taffeta with navy accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

For a trip to Ottawa and northern Ontario the bride chose a light cinnamon suit with green and yellow accessories and corsage of tea roses.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on the ninth Con. of Markham. Guests were present from Elmville, Cobourg, Rice Lake, Toronto, Sunderland and Goodwood.
