For the rehabilitation and re-establishment of MONKS PRIESTS NUNS the EVANGELICAL MISSION

has obtained a suitable Mission Home and headquarters at Stouffville, Ontario.

—about 120 priests leave Rome yearly in North America —over 2,000 priests left Rome in France since 1945 —each one that leaves is an outcast from home, friends and family.

Their paralyzing problem is: where will they turn for help.

The EVANGELICAL MISSION of Converted Monks and Priests has three main aims:

- (1) to help spiritually and materially those priests, monks and nuns who have left Romanism and those who wish to leave.
- (2) to evangelize Roman Catholics by personal contacts, preaching and literature.
- (3) to awaken and inform Protestants about the perils of Romanism and burdening them for the souls of the Roman Catholics.

We have set out to evangelize the world, but have forgotten the Roman Catholics.

Pray for the Next-Door Mission Field.

MARRIED AT MARKHAM FIFTY YEARS AGO
Fifty years of "wonderful married life," were celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Davis of Aurora on Sunday. More than 100 friends called to offer congratulations to the happy couple during the day.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis think modern boys and girls are "intelligent but spoilt." They believe they have too easy a life for their own good. "When they get married they have everything they need in their home and want for nothing. They start where we older couples are leaving off. They don't know the fun and happiness that can be experienced by working and saving for the many things they need in a home," Mrs. Davis said.

Benjamin Davis was born in Aurora in 1875, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davis. His wife came from Markham and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Sullivan.

They were married at Markham on June 8, 1904, by Rev. Edwin Pearson who was the father of the Hon. Lester B. Pearson.
