It was a blessed privilege the disciples had, of sitting at the feet of Jesus, hearing directly from Him the Truth of God's Word and learning directly from Him the mission He wished them to fulfil. It says at the beginning of the chapter. "And He opened His mouth and taught them saying Blessed are ye if ye are meek, if ye hunger and thirst after righteousness, if ye are merciful, pure in heart, peacemakers, etc." And then He went on to explain to them their high calling in Christ Jesus.
