Joins Oshawa

Stan Miller, lanky righthander from Stouffville, who performed with the Oshawa Merchants in senior ranks a couple of years back and then went to pro ranks, has received his unconditional release from the Georgia State League. He has signed with McCallum Transporters and unless all the teams "gang up" on that club, he should be a good addition to the mound corps. He has played a few games for the local Red Sox since returning from the
