UNIONVILLE

Miss Viola Fuller of Buttonville was a guest on Friday of Miss Bonnie Jones.

Jones—Wallen
The United Church at Brown's Corners, which was beautifully decorated with baskets of glads, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Dorothy Emily Wallen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Wallen, of Buttonville, became the bride of Eldon Harry Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones, Markham. Rev. W. Butt officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Walter Grove sang "Because" and "I'll Walk Beside You." She was accompanied by the organist, Miss Dorothy Hood. The pianist was Mrs. H. English. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina length gown of imported french lace over ivory satin. She wore a pearl necklace and carried a cascade of American Beauty roses and stephanotis. The maid of honor, Miss Shirley Ann Wallen, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina length gown of green nylon net and lace over taffeta. She carried roses and mums in contrasting colors. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Beverley Jones, who wore a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon net and lace over taffeta and carried roses and mums in contrasting colors; Miss Mary Wallen, cousin of the bride who wore a ballerina length gown of mauve nylon net and lace over taffeta. She also carried roses and mums. The flower girls were Miss Linda Wallen and Miss Karen Jones. The reception was held at Buttonville Community Hall. The bride's mother received, assisted by the mother of the groom. For going away the bride wore a light blue corded bengaline dressmaker suit with white accessories and corsage of red roses. They went to Chicago for their honeymoon. Mr. Kenneth Jones was best man for his brother. The ushers were George Wallen, brother of the bride and Wally Warkentine of Kitchener, cousin of the groom.

The following letter, written at Zion Canyon National Park, Utah, was received from Mrs. Mildred Toogood, who with her husband are travelling with their home-made tourist buses and over 100 lady school teachers as passengers: Dear friends,

It was quite a surprise to have Mrs. Madsen and her two girls of Cherry Hill Farm come to see us in Vancouver. We made plans to spend the next evening together and she also took the boat trip to Victoria with us.

Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy also visited us in Vancouver and we heard some very interesting details of their trip to Alaska. They were leaving the next week for a boat trip up the coast, so will really have some interesting stories to tell. Our trip has gone very smoothly and the weather has been almost perfect. On our way across Montana we did run into one of the worst storms I have ever seen. The wind blew so hard we just had to stop driving and the dust came in at every crack. The lightning and thunder were just like cannon shots and we finally had rain to top it all off. Since then we have been very lucky. The weather being almost on the cool side. Here I will mention a few of the highlights of the trip. We had two perfect days at Banff and the girls were really thrilled with the Rockies. A few even had the ambition to climb Sulphur Mt. to see the sun rise. That meant leaving camp about 1.00 a.m. Lake Louise looked just like the picture postcards, but when we got to Crater Lake, Oregon, and looked over the rim into that intense blue it was hard to decide which lake was the more beautiful. For the first time in years we had no fog in the Red Woods, so thoroughly enjoyed our stay there. Bobby and I went with the buses to Tijuana, Mexico, this year. There had been a great many changes since I was there in 1936. It is now quite a large modern city, chiefly a tourist centre, with the streets lined with shops selling souvenirs and Mexican hand work. If one is a good bargainer, there are many bargains to be had in Mexico. We drove back from Mexico and spent the evening at Knotts Berry Farm, east of Los Angeles at Briena Vista. It is a fascinating place with a replica of an old mining town — ghost town — they call it, complete with a gold mine, little red schoolhouse, saloon, grist mill, a train ride with hold up, stage coach, and of course, souvenir shops! Our trip across the desert was quite comfortable. It was even chilly at night, but it is a wonderful day here in Zion today. Zion is a spectacular place with large red cliffs towering 1000 to 1400 feet above the canyon floor. Looking up we see the blue sky, more blue than ever by contrast with the red, and the trees bordering the little river, a really vivid green. Tomorrow we leave for Grand Canyon, following the Switch Back Road to the mile-long tunnel and across more desert. We expect to be home in about two weeks.

Mrs. E. Braithwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Trunk, motored to Georgian Bay to visit at the cottage of the former's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Braithwaite and sons from the U.S., who are holidaying there on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. MacLaren have an English friend, Miss Cooper, here on a ten day visit. Miss Cooper has been visiting the southern States of the U.S. and came on here to finish her vacation before returning to France, where she resides.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dorle took Mr. and Mrs. J. F. MacLaren and their visitor for a three-hundred-mile trip on Sunday.

The summer flower show of the Unionville Horticultural Society with Mrs. T. Middleton as convener, will be held at 8.00 p.m. at Central United Church on August 15th. Exhibits to be placed from 3 to 4.30 p.m. The Eppley Sisters Gospel Quintette of York, Pa., will appear at the Gospel Centre Church, Unionville, Saturday, Cutworm clings to edge of huge hole in this tomato in a Scarborough garden as insect pests strike in Ontario. Many tomato plants have been hit. At Downeyville, near Peterboro, army worms are attacking oat fields.

Joseph Duffy holds up cut stalks, with the tops nipped off by army worms, as he cuts his not-quite-ripe crop near Downeyville in an effort to salvage something before worms destroy the grain.

Army worms cling to oat stems in their invasion of the area. The insect will not attack cut grain because sap dries out but the mowed grain can be used as cattle fodder.

Farmers are hoping that the recent showers will halt the spread of army worms which have plagued farmers in sections of Scarboro, Markham and Pickering Townships for the past three weeks. Many farmers have cut their oats green in an effort to save as much of the crop as possible. On the properties of Walter Gould and Fred Wicks, 9th concession of

Markham, poison bait was scattered over the affected fields and, according to the owners, the mixture of bran, molasses and paris green has proven very successful in combating the worm. Asst. Agricultural Representative, E. K. Pearson, has advised farmers to thoroughly inspect their fields for any sign of the grub. On the farm of Mr. Denton

Brown, 10th concession of Markham, a number of acres of oats were cut prematurely. In spite of this, hundreds of bushels of grain remained on the ground. Some farmers who have already threshed report their granary to be literally crawling with the worm. In the Peterboro district numerous farmers report one-third of their oat crop destroyed.

Many are planning to use their green grain only for cut feed. Mr. H. L. Fair, Agricultural Representative in Ontario County, has requested that farmers inspect "every inch" of their property. One pocket of army worm left undiscovered could move into a neighbouring field and ruin the crop. However, observations on the armyworm situation in York County during the past week by Agricultural Representative W. M. Cockburn, Newmarket indicate that the crisis in York is past. He states up in the leaf sheaths where Paris Green must not be used. Incidentally, Mr. Cockburn has had some cases of corn crops being damaged by the White Grub eating off the roots.

townships. At this time corn is the next target for this pest but in this crop poison bait should not be used except on headlands, as the worms stay up in the leaf sheaths where Paris Green must not be used. Incidentally, Mr. Cockburn has had some cases of corn crops being damaged by the White Grub eating off the roots.

SHORN SHEEP:

OUR OVINE FRIENDS will be glad to know that in future they may be spared the indignified and chilly experience of being sheared of their wool to keep us warm. A new lightweight lining material for men's and women's clothes combines fabric and aluminum to give more than three times the insulating value of a similar weight of wool cloth. Humans, too, will be glad if this hastens the end of heavy, bulky winter wear. The material can be dry-cleaned, drapes well and is sufficiently porous to let the body "breathe". Just one more example of the way Canadian manufacturers are combining aluminum and imagination for better, easier living: Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

MONTREAL—Just to remind you . . . I had forgotten something until a few weeks ago that I wish I had never forgotten. And you may have forgotten it, too. It's Laundry Blue—and the wonderful whiteness it can add to your white wash. Remember this—soaps and detergents—regardless of their colour—take out dirt. Bleach takes out stain. But Laundry Blue puts white in! If you have been forgetting Laundry Blue, you've been missing a surprising amount of whiteness that can be added to your white wash. Your husband's white shirts, your sheets and towels can all be so much whiter if you use Laundry Blue. You can add whiteness to a whole white wash for less than two cents. Get RECKITT'S BLUE or KEEN'S BLUE.

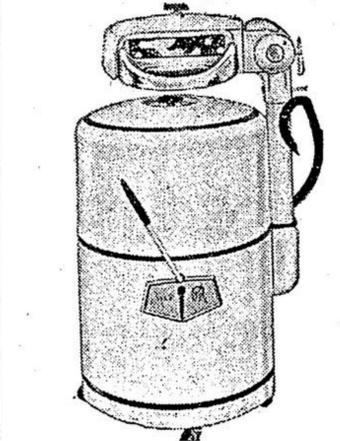

San-Ripened Tomatoes—scooped out and filled with chicken— or fish— or cold meats— all blended into a delicious treat with MIRACLE WHIP.

aren't they good! Matter of fact, we use Miracle Whip, in one way or another practically every day. You'll taste the difference with Miracle Whip! Its texture is so main-smooth—so right for blending with every kind of fruit or vegetable—as well as chicken, cold meats, fish— or jellied recipes. Miracle Whip too, is the salad dressing which makes sandwiches a treat! Altogether you can see why, day in and day out, the Sanders family find some use for their favorite salad dressing in these hot-weather weeks!
