

JUST WAITING FOR A TICKET!

This fellow unloading his wares in Stouffville one day recently was really giving the laws of the road a good test. Here he was caught by The Tribune camera parked on the wrong side of the street; in addition he is in a No Parking zone and to make matters even worse he was blocking the intersection.

WEDDINGS

BAKER—McNAIR

Married on August 14th, 1954—Pauline Helen Baker of Coldwater to George E. McNair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McNair, of Newcastle, Ont.

CARRUTHERS—GOMOLL

In a ceremony in the Green Room of the Royal York, Carole Jean Gomoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carl Gomoll, of Woodbine, was married to Robert Harrison Carruthers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Carruthers, Gormley, Rev. A. C. Huston, Victoria Square, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of ivory brocade taffeta. The décolleté neckline, embroidered with seed pearls, extended into brief cap sleeves. Her head-dress of petals centred with pearls held her veil of ivory tulle and she carried pink roses and stephanotis. Terrie Lou Gomoll attended her sister as maid of honor wearing a waltz-length dress of pink taffeta. Her crescent cap was caught with pink florets matching her bouquet of roses and myrtle. The groom was attended by Dalton Mercer, Willowdale, William Chown, Renfrew, was usher. Receiving the bride's mother wore a rose-wood crepe frock with matching hat of Italian straw and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a dress of dusty rose with cinnamon accessories and corsage of bronze roses.

Standards of white gladioli decorated the United Church Parlors on Saturday August 7, for the double ring ceremony of Audrey Joan Kirby, daughter of Mr. Arthur Mann and the late Joseph Kirby, to Stanley Roy Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ward, Stouffville. Rev. Douglas Davis performed the ceremony.

The bride wore her going-away suit of pink linen with navy blue accessories. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid and white streamers. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Wilfred Lawrenson wearing navy blue with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mr. Douglas Ward was groomsmen for his brother.

The reception was held at the home of the groom, after which the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for points north. They will reside in Stouffville.

The Rev. John Cunningham of Calgary with his wife and son were recent visitors with Mrs. J. H. Ratcliff and Glenn.

Hutchinson—Greensides
The marriage of Marie Isabelle, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Greensides, 256 Highfield Road, Toronto, to Geoffrey Wharton Hutchinson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hutchinson of Goodwood, was solemnized in St. Monica's Anglican Church, Hiawatha Ave., Toronto, on Saturday, July 31, 1954, at 3 p.m. with the Rev. Canon J. Cornish officiating at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Greensides gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride was tastefully gowned in white dress of net and lace with bolero. A tiara of pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a white prayer book with roses. Her maid of honour, her sister Joan, wore a dress of blue net over taffeta with hat to match and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Her bridesmaids were the groom's sister Miss Anne Hutchinson, dressed in pink net over taffeta with hat to match, and Miss Laura Lennox, cousin of the bride dressed in mauve net over taffeta with hat to match. They both carried nosegays of yellow roses. Mr. John Grisdale, Goodwood, a school chum of the groom in England, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Dean Beatty of Agincourt and the bride's brother, Mr. "Bill" Greensides. Mr. Allan McNab of Edenvale sang two solos. "The Voice that Breather O'er Eden" and "Oh Perfect Love", during the signing of the register.

At the reception held in St. Monica's Parish Hall, the bride's mother received in a mauve lace dress with picture hat to match and wore a corsage of yellow tea roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a dress of pastel blue crepe and lace with pink hat and gloves, and corsage of yellow tea roses.

Afterwards the happy couple left for a motor trip through Ontario, the bride travelling in an old gold shot silk taffeta dress with duster coat to match, and white accessories.

On their return they will reside in Goodwood.

Evergreens and pink and white gladioli formed the arch for the wedding on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Collins, fourth Line, Goodwood, when their eldest daughter Gretta Bernice was united in marriage to William Hugh Hudson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William James Hudson of Goodwood, on Saturday, July 31, 1954. Rev. Ayers of Uxbridge officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white shadow lace and tulle over taffeta strapless ballerina length dress with long sleeve length jacket. A Juliet cap studded with seed pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried maiden-hair fern and red roses.

Gowns of tulle over taffeta in shades of Nile green, pale blue and pink were chosen by the bride's attendants, Miss Noreen Faulkner, maid of honour, Miss Ruth Collins, sister of the bride as bridesmaid and little Patricia Taylor of Timmins, cousin of the bride, flower girl. They wore matching head-dresses and carried pink and yellow roses.

John Hudson acted as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother received on the lawn wearing navy blue nylon sheer and white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Assisting Mrs. Collins was the groom's foster mother, Mrs. D. Gribbon of Uxbridge in black nylon sheer with matching accessories and pink roses.

The happy couple left for a short honeymoon to Niagara and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a light blue suit with white accessories and corsage of red roses. Upon their return they will reside in Uxbridge.
