IN MEMORIAM

DAWSON — In memory of David Dawson, who passed away Sept. 12th, 1954. Sometimes a note of an old-fashioned song, Brings us a thought of you, Sometimes a flower, as we pass along, Or a sky that is azure blue, Or a silver lining in the clouds When the sunshine's peeping through.

Ever remembered, wife and family

Graham-Jones Gathering Honors Invermay Athlete

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 5, over fifty relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nesbitt, 6th concession, Uxbridge Twp. in honour of Miss Marjorie Ashdown of Invermay, Sask.

Marjorie is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ashdown, and granddaughter of Mrs. Graham and the late John Graham, all of Invermay. She was one of the ten members of the Saskatchewan team attending the Canadian Olympic Training Plan last week in Toronto. On Saturday she obtained second prize in a combined junior and senior class in javelin at the C.N.E. Track and Field Meet where she took part in javelin, shot put and discus contests.

Prior to coming to Toronto she had broken three provincial records in javelin, discus and softball throw in Saskatchewan.

Local Doctor To Address W.I.

Dr. Blair Mitchell, local physician, will speak at the opening meeting of the Stouffville W. I. which will be held in Christ Parish Hall on Thursday afternoon Sept. 16th at 2:15. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Powell, Convener of Home Economics and Health and her group. The roll call will be "My Favorite Dessert". There will be a demonstration of jellies and cookies. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies of the community.

The Stouffville Child Health Clinic will be held in Christ Parish Hall on Friday afternoon, Sept. 10th from 1:30 to 4 o'clock.

Former Clarendon Resident Passes In Saskatchewan

After a brief illness the death occurred on Wed. Sept. 1, in Invermay, Saskatchewan, of John Graham, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Graham of Clarendon.

He was well known in this community before leaving with his wife and family over forty years ago to make their home at Invermay, where he was a prosperous farmer. Retiring a few years ago, he built a lovely home near Invermay.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Jane Jones of Clarendon, one daughter Irene (Mrs. Harvey Ashdown), two sons George and Robert, and fourteen grandchildren, all of Invermay; also two sisters, Elizabeth A. (Mrs. Kirk Bieby) and Mary (Mrs. Wm. E. Cowie), and one brother James, all of Clarendon.

A brother, Stewart, and a sister, Margaret, predeceased him a few years ago.

WEDDINGS

ATKINSON—LEWIS

A pretty wedding ceremony was conducted in the Stouffville Christian Church on Sat. Aug. 21st, when Betty Isobel Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Lewis of Stouffville was united in marriage with Harold Richard Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Atkinson of Bethesda. Rev. Levi Atkinson, uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with standards of pink and white gladioli and mauve lilies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in full-length cream brocade satin, the dress fashioned with a stand-up scalloped neckline with short sleeves and full gathered skirt. Her short veil was caught to a small rhinestone studded brocade cap and she carried a star-shaped bouquet of stephanotis and pink sweetheart roses. Her attendants were her sister Connie Lewis maid-of-honour, and Carole Lewis and Leona Atkinson, bridesmaids. The attendants wore short flared princess coats-dresses with short sleeves of turquoise novelty shantung and small matching hats. They carried small bouquets of mauve and pink asters and lilies. Ray Atkinson, brother of the groom, was the best man. Jim Lewis, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer and Donald W. Lewis and Lorne Helse were the ushers.

The wedding music was played by Miss Ruth Atkinson, sister of the groom. Mrs. Jas. Oldham sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony, and "A Nuptial Benediction" during the signing of the register.

During the reception held following the ceremony on the lawn at the bride's home, the bride's mother received her guests attired in blue nylon sheer over taffeta with black accessories and corsage of pink single asters. The groom's mother assisted dressed in pale blue with navy accessories and corsage of pink single asters.

For travelling on the honeymoon to northern Ontario the bride chose a brown crepe dress, turquoise and brown accessories and corsage of Johanna Hill roses. The couple will make their home in Stouffville.

Recruits Canadian Pilots For Formosa

—SNS Photo
Over 100 Canadian pilots have volunteered to join the new "Flying Tigers" free lance air force, according to Albert Mash, above, a former Canadian who is touring the country to recruit jet fliers at a reported $20,000 a year. The new air force, organized by the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa, will be financed indirectly from the $100,000,000 to be spent by the U.S. in Formosa next year. Mash, who exploits against Chinese Communist air forces are well known, is seeking two squadrons of experienced Canadian jet fighter pilots.
