Find Indian Graveyard in Gravel Pit

There was considerable excitement around the Stouffville Sand & Gravel Pit on Wednesday afternoon of this week when what was believed to have been an Indian graveyard was unearthed. Contact was immediately made with the Royal Ontario Museum which had men on the spot and were still investigating when this paper went to press.

A similar graveyard was discovered a few years ago in Whitechurch Township on the 6th concession.

They're Tops In Their Fields

Proud moment for Margaret Brodie, 17, of the Third Concession, Markham, comes as she poses with her Guernsey calf which topped the field Friday at Markham Fair.

The calf also took fourth prize in open class. Just as proud is pretty Joanne Robb, 17, of Markham, as she holds bouquet of roses after being named Miss Markham Fair. An accomplished figure skater, she plans to join the Ice Follies. Miss Robb topped more than 20 entries.

WEDDINGS

Christ Church Wedding for Popular Keswick Couple, Grace Curtis—Harold Hare

Grace Curtis and Harold William Hare were united in marriage in a quiet ceremony on Saturday, the 25th of September in Christ Church, Roches Point. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Curtis, Roches Point and the groom the son of Mrs. Hare and the late Robert Hare, Orchard Beach. Rev. E. Morley officiated.

The bride chose a waltz-length gown of white nylon net over taffeta, fashioned with a full skirt, featured halter-style neckline and satin-appliqued circles, the bodice wore a matching bolero jacket. She wore a white french model hat and accessories of corsage of American beauty roses.

Dorothy Verrall, Toronto, sister of the bride, was matron of honour. Her gown was heavenly blue sheer over taffeta and lace of waltz length with accessories to match and corsage of pink roses.

Groomsmen was Walter Verrall, Toronto. Mrs. E. Morley played the wedding music.

In uniform of the Keswick girls' ball team, the players formed an arch of bats outside the church at completion of the ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where sixty-four guests were received by the bride's mother, gowned in a dress of midnight blue lace with navy accessories and corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother assisted in a deep blue dress, accessories to match and corsage of gardenias.
