Judge Upholds Driving Conviction

A careless driving conviction handed down in Magistrate's Court has been upheld by His Honor Judge J. E. Pritchard in an appeal heard in Ontario County Court, Whitby. In the action, Edward Russell Bennett, 300 Gibbs Ave., Oshawa, was appealing such a conviction and a fine of $10 and costs.

The charge arose out of a rear-end collision on the Altona Road, about one-half mile north of Highway 2 on May 12 of this year. Evidence for the Crown, represented by R. D. Humphreys, Q.C. of Oshawa, was given by Mrs. Phin, principal of the Altona Rd. school, William Newman, Pickering Township farmer, and Sgt. David Freeman, of the Pickering Township Police.

Mr. Newman stated that he had stopped his car to give Mrs. Phin a ride to her school when Bennett's pickup truck crashed into the rear of his car.

In upholding the magistrate's decision, His Honor stated: "Here is a type of panel truck driver who appears to have to be somewhere in the next half second. They are killers and as far as I am able, I shall slow them down." He stated that he would dismiss the appeal. He requested A. W. S. Greer, Q.C. defense attorney, to privately explain to the accused the seriousness of such driving habits.

Local Government In Pickering Twp. Goes Back to 1811

(Continued from page 1) work that was declared against us by the States in the year 1812. By the same reason our town-met in our omitted in the year A.D. 1814 and our Town Officers, were put in the same manner." Town meetings were held at various taverns throughout the Township.

On January 1, 1856, there was a general re-shuffling of Counties and Pickering Township became a minor Municipality under the County of Ontario, which had County offices in the Village of Whitby. The County Council is composed of the Reeves and Deputies of the minor municipalities and Pickering Township is proud to note that eleven of its members have occupied the Warden's Chair. The first elected Township Council under this Act comprised W. H. Michell, Reeve; R. A. Parker, Deputy-Reeve; Peter Toy, Fred Green and Joshua Wikon.

In 1850 the sun looked down on a very beautiful Pickering Township, half of it treed with majestic maples, oaks, beech, pine and cedar, the land quite rolling, and numerous grist mills, distilleries, cooper shops, etc., dotted along Duffin's Creek, Rouge River, Petticoat Creek and Puckrin's Creek, which supplied energy for the successful operation of these small factories. Here were 896 houses on its 62,407 acres, occupied by 8,345 persons who worked their farms or were employed in shops within halting distance of their homes. The main occupation of the residents was farming and they produced cereals, beef and pork which found a ready market in Toronto and the United States.

It is notable that the production of the various cereal grains in bushels was: wheat, 102,789; barley, 3,855; rye, 3,153; oats, 133,824; Indian corn, 4,203; buckwheat, 642, and 30,249 bushels of potatoes. There were 29,102 pounds of wool produced and the forests yielded 36,652 pounds of maple sugar. The livestock was listed at: cattle, 5,739; horses, 1,716; sheep, 928; and hogs, 5,128. Statistics show that the average value of cleared land was $5.55 per acre.

Flour milling was a most important industry when 25,500 barrels were milled. The 24 Saw Mills produced 5,230,000 Board Feet yearly and their mills were supplied by farmers who took to the bush in the winter months. Four carding mills produced 25,862 lbs. of cloth yearly while the good ladies produced, in their spare moments, 17,380 yards of full-ed cloth linen and flannel.

In the years 1845 to 1856 there were two piers on Frenchman's Bay, one immediately south of the present Canadian National Railway bridge and the other west and south. From here squared timbers, masts, pine logs and cordwood came from North Pickering and Townships to north to be shipped to the growing city of Toronto. The mouth of the Rouge became quite a shipyard and a number of freight boats were built here, but it was necessary to tow them to Toronto to have their engines installed.

The chief means of transportation were by wagon, cart or sleigh over roads that were little better than trails, but the marshy parts were made passable by the use of trees laid side by side and covered with dirt. The Rouge River was navigable for some distance north of the Scarborough Town Line, which served a small area, while the opening of the Grand Trunk Railway in 1856 provided this Township with a fast transportation and many new settlers.

The Assessment was $467,836 on which taxes collected were $1,482, with the average tax on a 100-acre farm about $2, including the tax on personal possessions, such as farm equipment and livestock. Of course these were the days of statute labour.

Pickering Township has been indebted to Hector and Donald R. Beaton, father and son, who were clerks of this Municipality continuously from 1846 to 1944. This service of ninety-eight years is the longest known in the Province of Ontario, and their keen knowledge of Municipal Affairs has been a great asset to almost a century of Township Councils.
