COLD WEATHER THOUGHTS

STOUFFVILLE PHONE 2220

M.T. PISGAH

Several members of our community, namely, Mrs. Roy Howlett, Mr. Loy Carr and Mr. Wallace Scott have been under the doctor's care for the past week. We hope they will soon be feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith called on Mr. and Mrs. James Drury of Willowdale on Friday evening on the occasion of their seventieth wedding anniversary.

As a result of the recent hurricane the cement bridge on the third concession south of White Rose Mill site partially collapsed on Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Offenbeck discovered the trouble when returning home from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dryland, but fortunately suffered no damage to their car or themselves. The road is closed and naturally local residents are hoping for quick repairs, to both this and the one on the nearby Vandorf sideroad which was washed down-stream on the night of the storm.

Mr. Roy Smith won second prize at the East York Plowing match on Wednesday last and first at the South Simcoe match at Churchill on Saturday. Mr. Harold Botham accompanied Roy to both matches.

The Women's Association would like to thank all who helped in any way to make the turkey supper a success. A special thank you to the Young People who worked so hard and willingly.

The November meeting of the W.A. will be held one week later, on Wednesday, Nov. 17. Further notice later.

The Gormley branch of the Women's Institute met in the home of Mrs. Norman Brown on Wednesday, October 27th, with an attendance of seventeen ladies. Mrs. R. Bayeroff will be the delegate for the convention at the Royal York on Nov. 3, 4 and 5. Kingridge Institute are short of used cotton sheets for making into small baby sheets for their well baby clinic and would appreciate any that we could spare. A euchre is to be held to raise a donation for the flood victims of the recent hurricane disaster. It will be held in the home of Mrs. Noble at Gormley on Friday, Nov. 5th, at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Hepburn, convener of Citizenship, introduced as her speaker, Mrs. Donald F. Downey who spoke on this subject. She said that there were many definitions of a good citizen and thought the following to be a main one: "a good citizen is one who is privately happy and publicly useful," stressing the point that one should take part in organizations and to be sure to go out and vote. The motto "take time to play, it is the secret of youth" was given by Mrs. Bernard Kays. An invitation from Vandorf W.I. to attend their short course, Program Planning, in Vandorf Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 30th, was read. The short course, "Treasures in Your Attic," will be held in the home of Mrs. Bernard Kays on Friday, Nov. 19th, from 1.30 to 4 p.m. Slides will be shown and all ladies of the community are cordially invited. Each member is requested to bring a few cookies to accompany usual social cup of tea. The November meeting at Mrs. Boynton's will be held on

The Jr. Red Cross, S.S. No. 7, Uxbridge, wish to thank parents and friends in helping to send $50.46 to the Hurricane Relief Fund.

Mrs. Wm. Slack of Stouffville spent the past week visiting with her son Stan and family.

Miss Ruby Hockley and Miss Marjorie Burden spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. E. Hockley.

On Thursday, Nov. 18, Rev. Orval Getti, returned missionary, will speak, sing and play an instrument in the Baptist Church. Plan now to attend.

Mrs. Chas. Jones has returned home after spending several weeks with her sister-in-law, Miss Adelaide Jones, who has had a broken ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Slack and girls and Mrs. Wm. Slack visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Slack at Courtice on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wagg of Brampton had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wagg.

The Mission Band will be held on Thursday after school in the Baptist Sunday School room. We are hoping to be able to show some slides.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin served a bountiful dinner on Sunday evening to members of their wedding party and their partners. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. McCright, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shadlock, Miss Doris Connor and friend, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Rep-
