Mr. A. Duffield spent a few days last week in Montreal. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. J. Madsen and family in the passing of her father, Mr. Anton Martin Hansen, at her home at Cherry Hill Farm on Tuesday, Dec. 7th. The funeral service was held on Friday from St. August's Lutheran Church, Lawrence and Avenue Road, Interment was in York Cemetery.

A very pleasant time was enjoyed at the home of Miss Velma Findlay on Tuesday night when she entertained a group of ladies to euchre. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rainey, Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Dukes. A lovely lunch was served.

The W.A. of Central United Church meet on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. Champion was made convener of the Sick and Visiting Committee. Secretary's report was given and treasurer's report showed a few more donations had been received by the Fall Fair group, making their proceeds $310., and showing a balance in the bank by the yearly report of $700. It was moved by Mrs. Champion and Mrs. Rainey that $300. from Fall proceeds be given to general church expenses. Mrs. Champion's annual report for flower and fruit committee was six boxes of fruit sent, five bouquets of flowers for the church, two funeral sprays, and 38 calls made. The Secretary's Report showed eleven meetings held in the year. The Dec. meeting being a joint meeting with the W.M.S. Thirty-three paid members. 209 total attendance, averaging 19 members. A joint meeting with the members of the W.M.S. was opened by their President, Mrs. Guscott.

Mrs. W. Young gave a short talk on stewardship. She reported $375. had been sent to the Presbyterial in the first nine months' givings. The Presbyterial Meeting is to be held in Kew Beach United Church on Feb. 1st. Devotional theme, "Light" was taken by Mrs. G. Martin, with members from both societies assisting her. A short play was given in which both India and Canada were represented. Mrs. Snowball, Miss M. Coulson, Mrs. Guscott and Mrs. Ogden were her assistants. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. Butt at the piano. A lovely Christmas story entitled "The Christmas Gift" by Marjorie Proctor, was given by Mrs. Fear. Mothers of the Explorers, C.G.I.T., Baby Band and Mission Band were entertained.

Miss Marlan Burrows, Locust Hill, spent the past week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fleming.
