

News of the World in Pictures

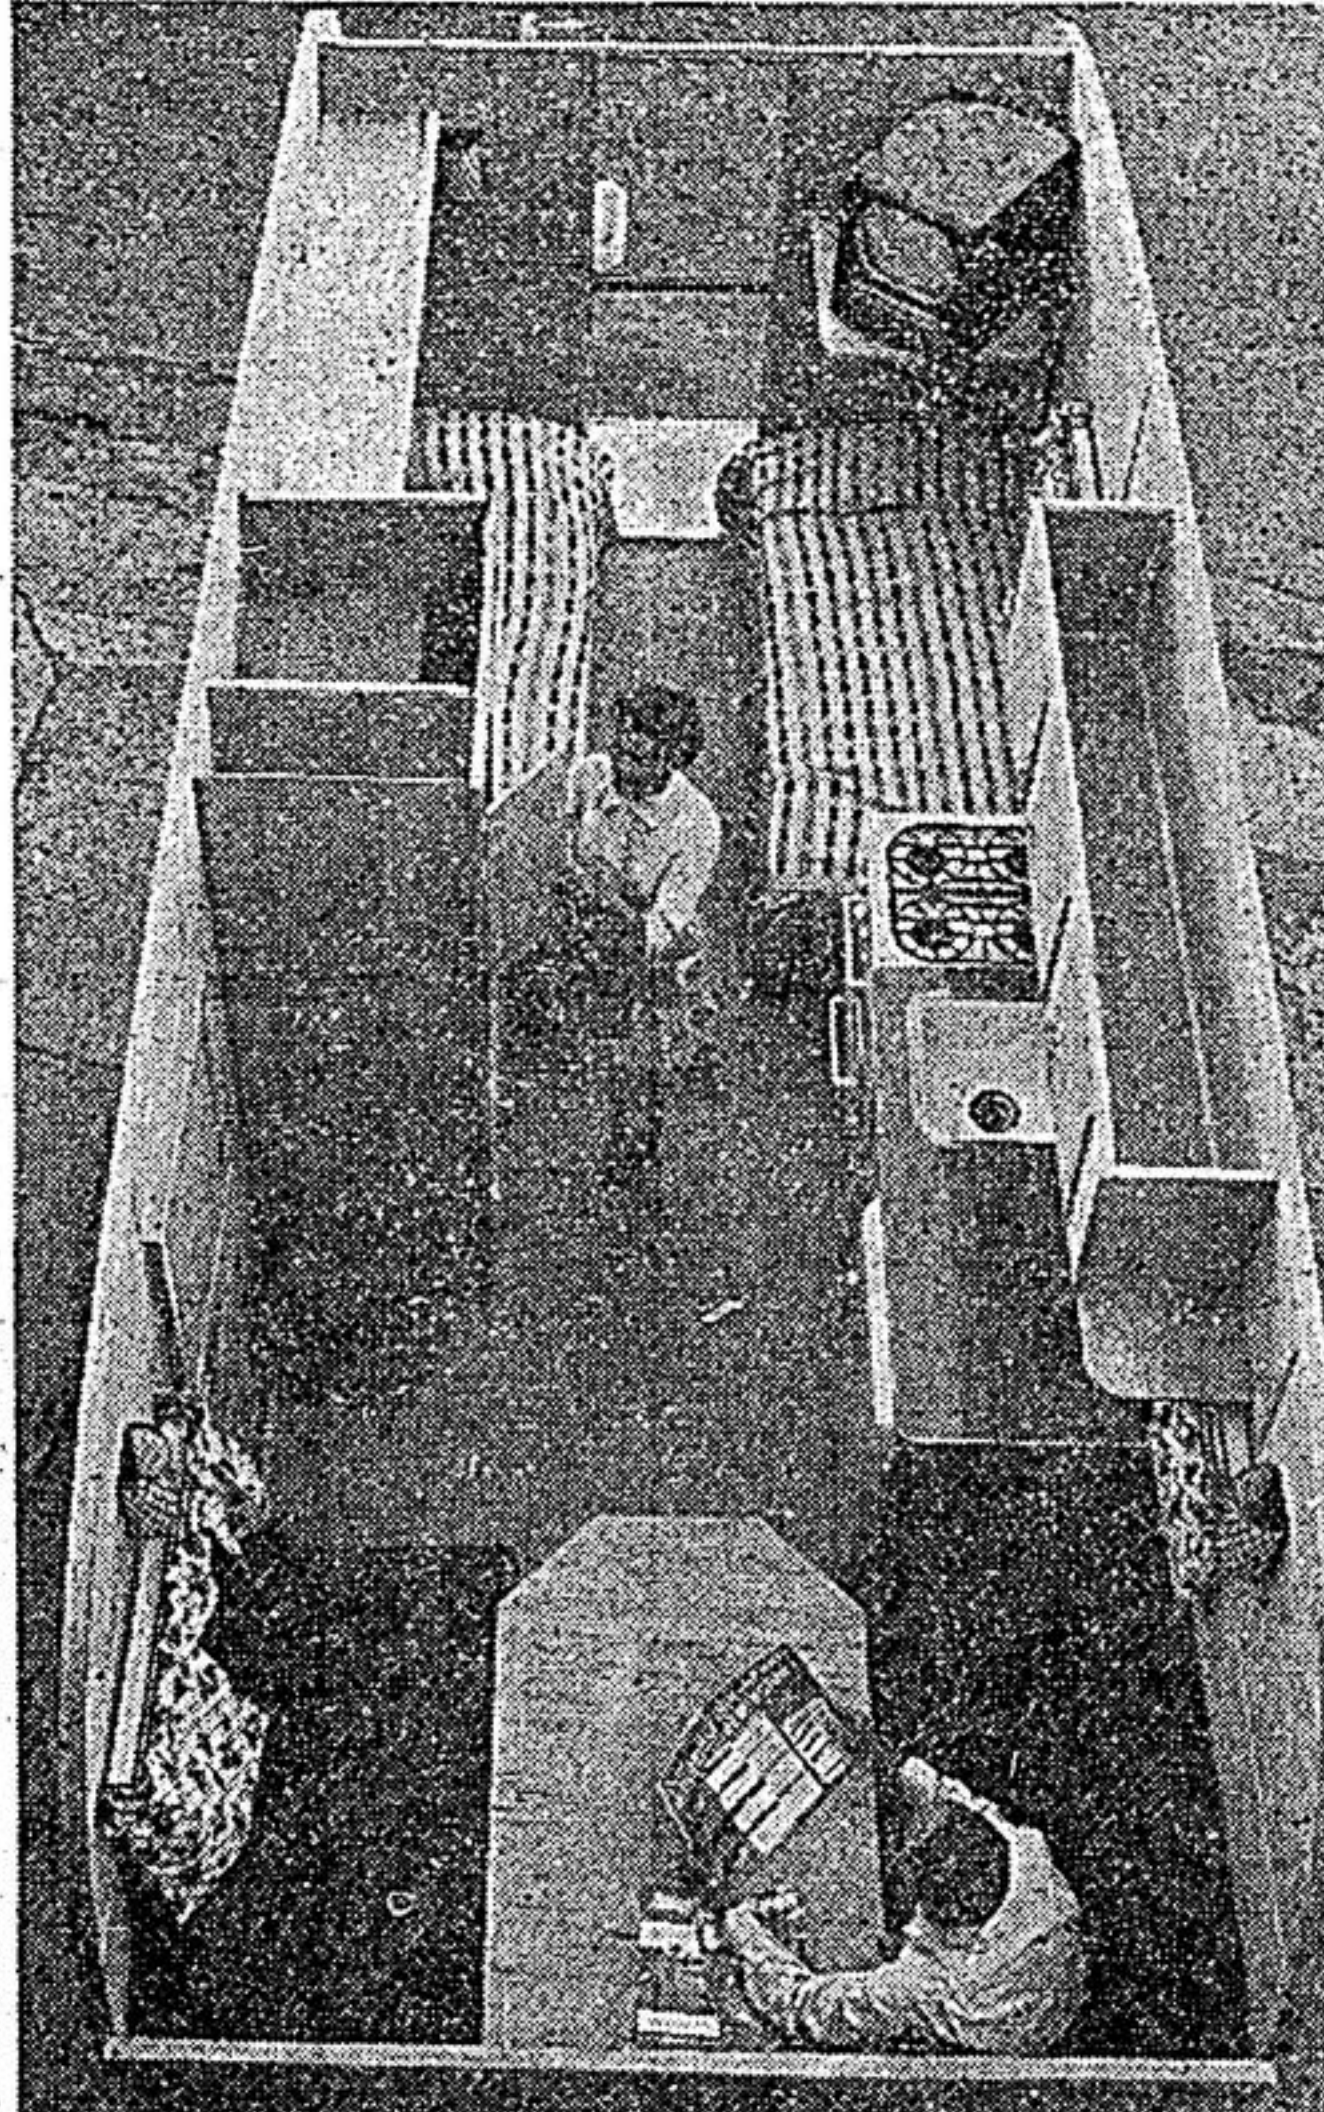

YOU CAN'T take a gondola ride through Venice right now, but come along with the cameraman for a quick trip. You're looking at Piazzetta San Marco. At left is the Libreria Vecchia, built in 1536. Rising high is the Campanile and in the far background, framed by Campanile and column with winged lion, is famous clock tower.

PANHANDLER DELUXE is this mountain burro, who stops everyone coming up the Iron Mountain road leading to Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota. He'll get a morsel here.

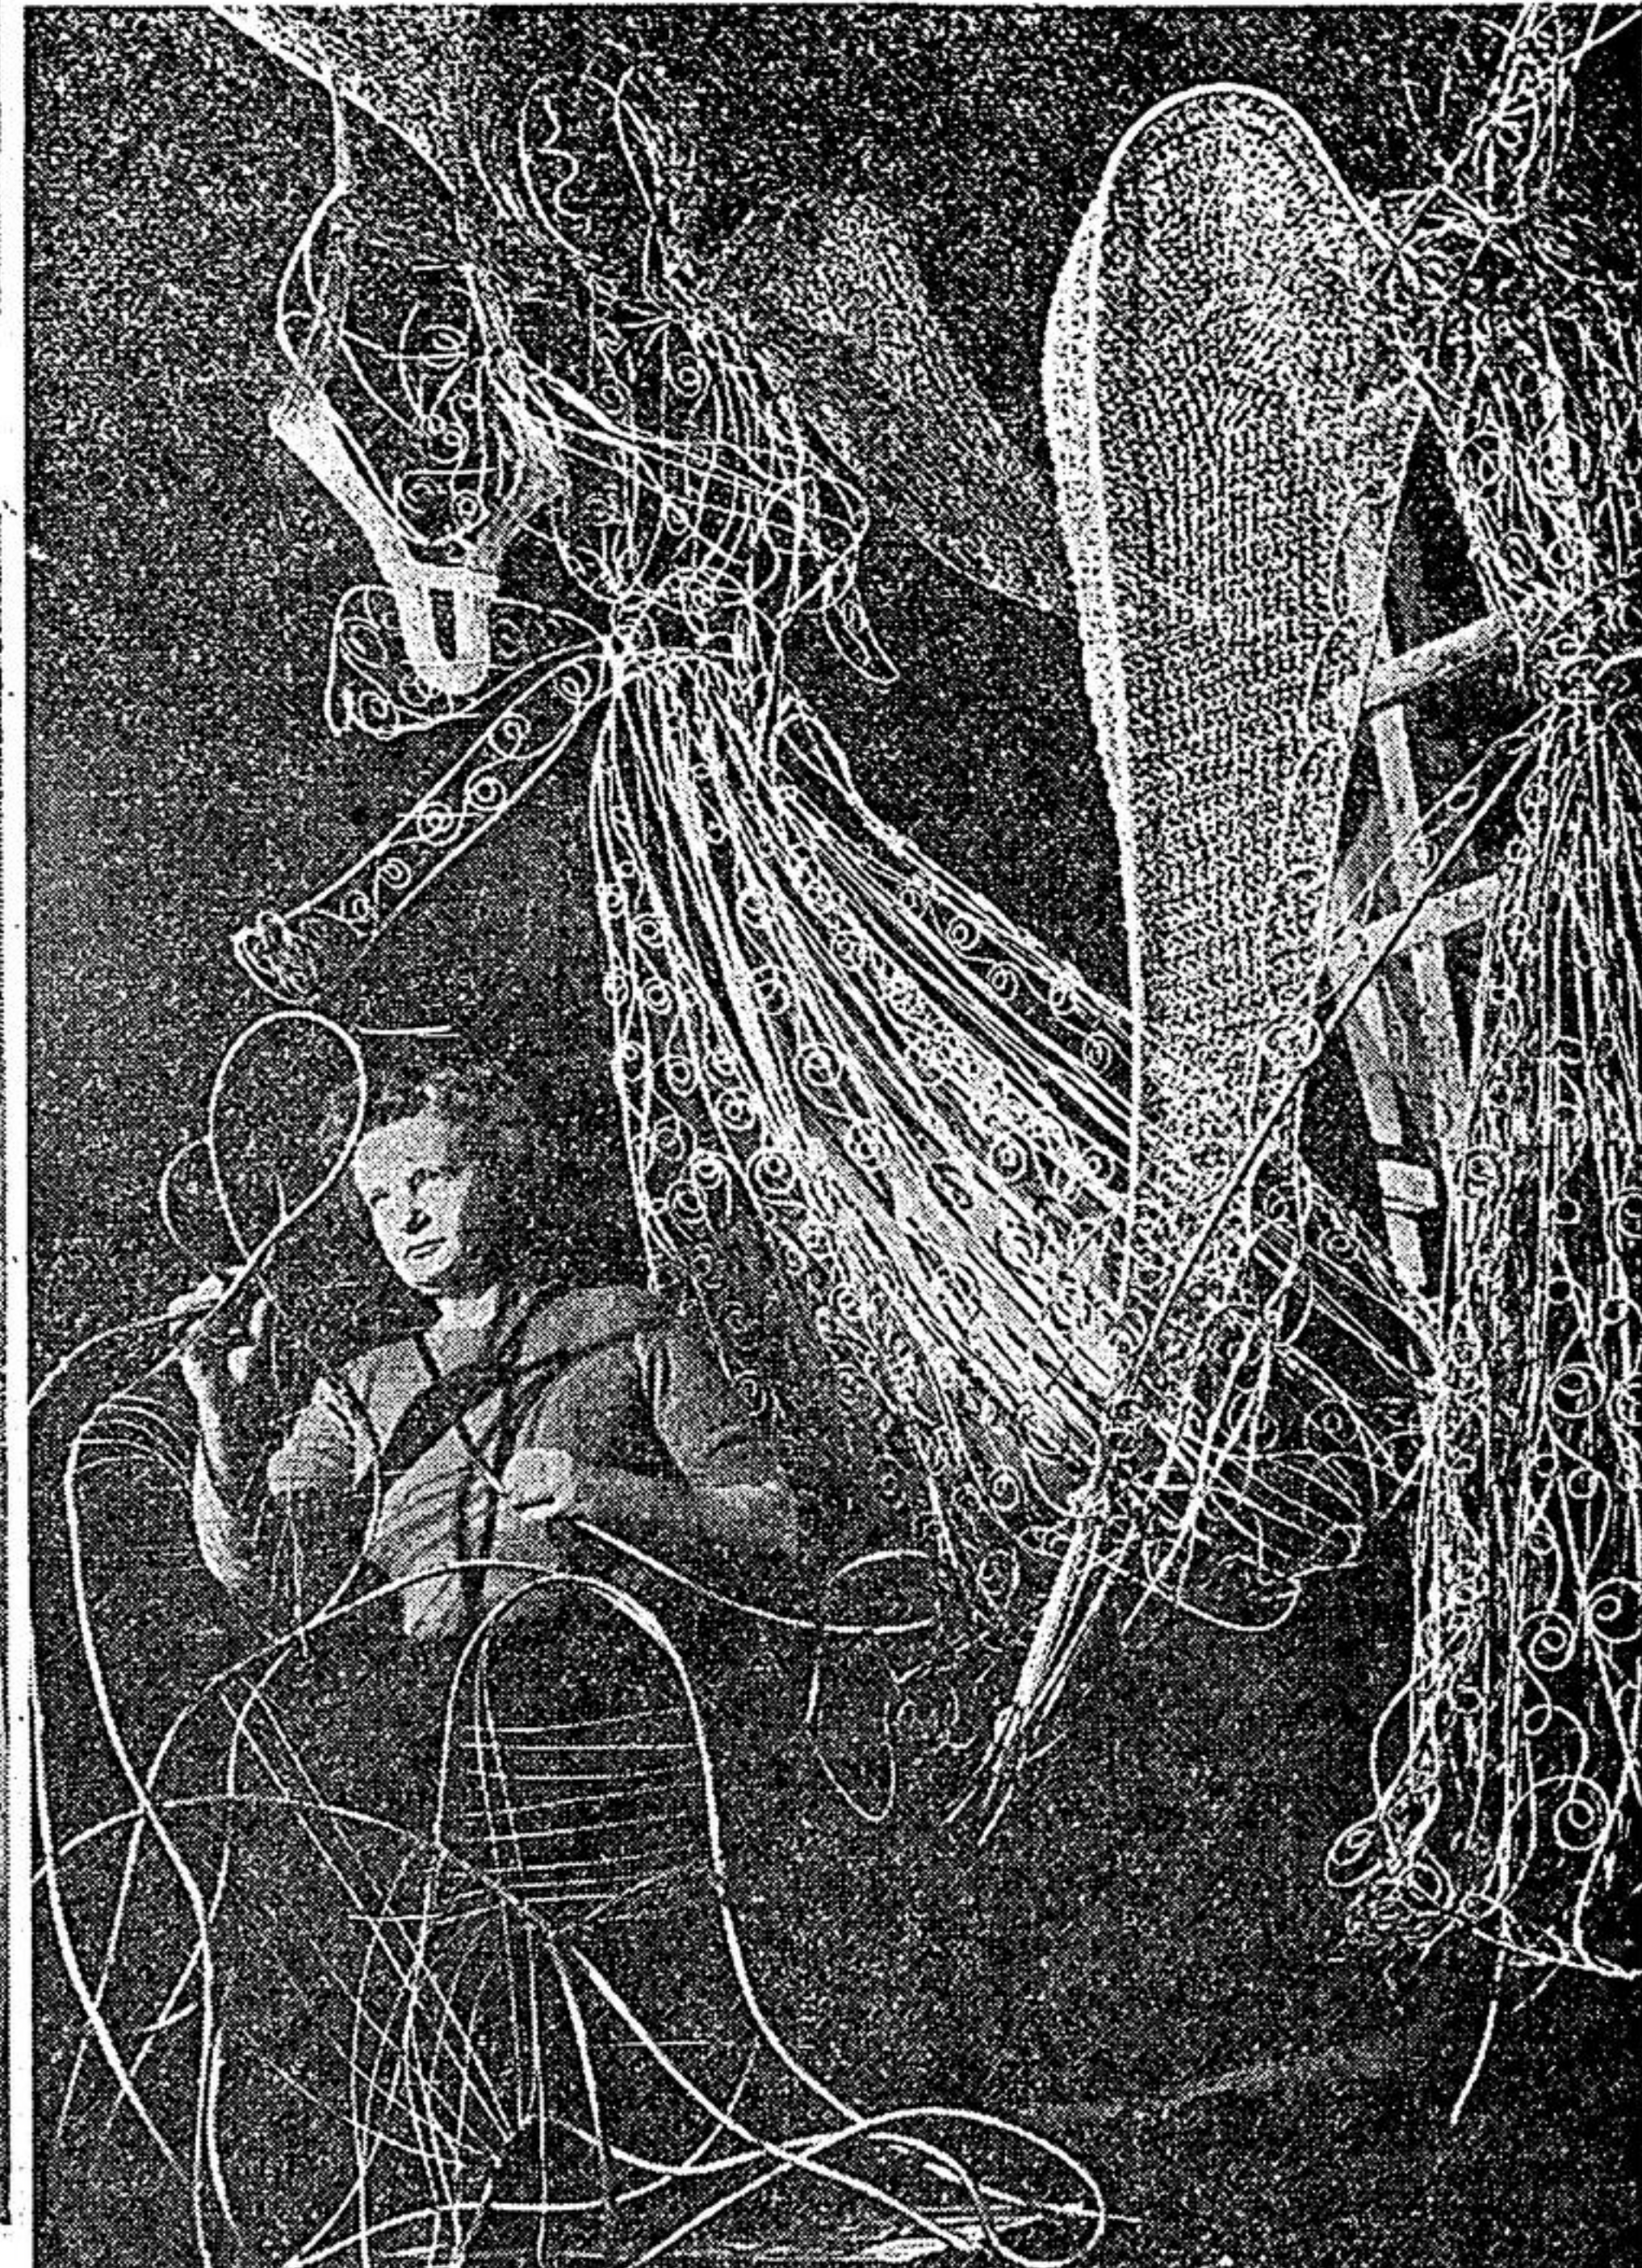

AMERICA'S beauty queen, Mrs. Wanda Jennings of St. Louis, makes some notes as her husband, Madison, watches. Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. America of 1955, will visit eight countries as representative of North American housewives.

LET'S LOOK in on one of America's many trailer families to inspect the latest in a line of mobile homes. This one, made by a Trotwood, O., firm, has a completely-enclosed bathroom (top), water heater, dinette which converts into a double-bed, built-in twin beds, range, refrigerator, sink and what every woman wants—lots of storage space.

STILL "THE KING" in Japan, actor Clark Gable is surrounded by actresses and fans when he arrives in Tokyo. Gable's en route to Hong Kong for soldier of fortune movie.

ENGLISH SCULPTOR Valerie Clarebout puts finishing touches on her heroic wire angels for the Rockefeller Center's Christmas display. She developed her new medium—sculpture in malleable wire—after coming to New York two years ago. The angels range from eight to 13 feet in height and are made of aluminum, brass, copper wire.

LONDON'S famous picture galleries in Trafalgar Square, with the church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields in the background, will attract many tourists during winter season.

HIS WORK LOVES HIM

ONE BOSS who's well loved is Howard Diven, a keeper at the Bronx zoo. Diven takes care of four loveable—and-loving chimpanzees. Most aggressive of the gang is Amy, who makes no bones about her affection for him. In fact, Amy delights in making the other three jealous by her attentions to Diven. The four chimps—Amy, Beth, Meg and Jo—are about three years old and came to the zoo about 18 months ago from Sierra Leone, in Africa. They are very intelligent and are the most adaptable of young great apes.

Amy reaches out for Diven to haul him close to her.

Affectionate Amy plants a big kiss on Diven's lips.

On Diven's head, she taunts her unlucky sisters.