

CLAREMONT and PICKERING TOWNSHIP DISTRICT

A Happy New Year is extended to the Editor and Staff of The Tribune by your correspondent.

Miss Mildred Linton, teacher of Mt. Pleasant school deserves praise for the excellent varied program presented by the scholars last Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st. All appeared at ease, spoke their parts distinctly, and with apparent enjoyment. Santa made his appearance at the close of a two-hour programme, and contributed much merriment among the crowd of community folk, as gifts were distributed from a well-laden Christmas tree. A bag of candy was presented to all of the pupils and smaller children present.

We regret that Mrs. Milton Benson fell and broke her leg in her home last week, and was rushed to the hospital where she is making satisfactory progress. Mrs. Benson passed her 81st year recently, and her husband his 84th. He is looking after the home during his partner's absence, with available assistance from married daughters in the community, if required.

Tragedy struck violently at one of our well known families last Friday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beelby and two-year-old daughter, accompanied by a young aunt, Phyllis, were driving home for Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Beelby, when the car was struck head-on by a swiftly passing car going south on the highway east of Locust Hill. The impact tore the baby from her mother's arms, hurling it through the windshield and killing the little one almost instantly, also injuring the mother and aunt quite severely. All were rushed to the hospital, where the patients are doing as well as can be expected. The funeral of the little girl was held on Tuesday afternoon from the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Beelby. The sympathy of the community is extended to the suffering and bereaved family and relatives.
