

5,000 YARDS BROADCLOTH

Mill ends in many different colours

Regular as high as 39c yd.

Sale Price 39c a yd.

STRIPED FLANNELTTE

Sale Price 49c yd.

Good heavy quality, suitable for Men's & Boys' Pyjamas, Nightshirts, and cheap enough for quilt linings. Reg. Price 69c yd.

WE ALSO HAVE OTHER REMNANTS TO CHOOSE FROM SUCH AS SHIRTING, FLOWERED FLANNELTTE & CIRCULAR PILLOW COTTON.

H. GOLDEN CLOTHING STORE

— COME IN AND LOOK AROUND —

CLAREMONT and PICKERING TOWNSHIP DISTRICT

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bell of Oshawa visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gord Benson on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prouse over the weekend.

Friends from Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boniface on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Maye of Oshawa visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hockley on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pascoe during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeil have returned to Toronto.

The United Church choir met on Thursday night. Miss Beverly Barolay was appointed President, Keith Norton, Vice Pres., and Carol Johnson, Sec. Treas. The choir leader and organist is Mr. G. Thorpe.

The Women's Institute are selling tickets for the program and lucky draws when the H. C. Downham Nursery presents "Beautifying Canada" by landscaping your home. There are a number of prizes to be given away and a chance to win a $100 award. These pictures are in color and a commentary on each is presented by the Nursery.

Neighbors and friends of the 5th are glad to see little Donald Bryant home again after spending almost three weeks in the hospital for Sick Children with a serious bowel condition.

The regular meeting of the Baptist Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Davison on Tuesday, Jan. 24th, commencing at 2:30 p.m. Rev. G. Davison will be the guest speaker, the topic being "Challenge for the New Year". A full attendance of members is expected at this first meeting of the year, with such a timely subject.

held in the Pastor's home. The Baptist Church members held their Annual Business Meeting last Thursday evening Jan. 13th, with a good attendance. During the evening Miss Forsyth read an address of appreciation to Mrs. Chas. Gostick for her faithful services as organist through the years, and Messrs James Coates and Evans Ward presented her with an occasional chair. Mrs. Gostick expressed her pleasure and surprise. Mrs. Torrence, Secretary of the Women's Institute, also read an address of appreciation to Mrs. Stephenson, former member of Claremont W. I. and now residing in Oshawa. A presentation of a table flower holder with flowers was made by the President, Mrs. Peddie. Mrs. Stephenson expressed her appreciation to Mrs. Peddie and members of the W.I. for their kindness. The meeting closed with refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norton entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Norton last Sunday evening on the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary at a family surprise supper in their home. All members of the family numbering twenty were present. We join in wishing this genial pair many more years of health and happiness in our community.

Regular Prayer Meeting will be held in the United Church basement on Thursday evening commencing at 7:30. Members and friends please try and make these meetings worthwhile by attending regularly. The W.M.S. was held last Thursday afternoon with a good attendance and Mrs. Loyst, President, and Secty. Mrs. Pilkey in their chairs. The President was in charge of the devotional portion. Mrs. Jackson's group took the Study book on India, assisted by several members of the W.M.S.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gall and family called at the Hutchings home one evening last week. Sorry to report that Mr. T. Bowles is not so well as his friends would like him to be. Quite a number of children are still victims of the mumps. Mr. and Mrs. H. Ridge called on Mr. A. Hutchings on Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. and evening worship at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome.

Mrs. Lackey contributed a vocal solo.

ROLAND W. BALL

Proprietor of the general store at Taunton for 43 years and postmaster there for 34 years; Roland W. Ball died in the Oshawa General Hospital last week in his 82nd year. He had been seriously ill since last Saturday. He was the last of his family.

A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ball, the deceased was born in Uxbridge township on December 1, 1873; and was married at Mount Zion on Feb. 17, 1898. Mr. Ball was a member of Zion United Church and was an honorary elder of the church.

Predeceased by his wife, the former Amella Evelyn Harbison, on November 18, 1938, he leaves to mourn his passing three daughters, Mrs. A. Balsion (Vera) of Richmond Hill, Mrs. E. Nelson (May) of Bewdley and Miss Dora Ball of Taunton and one son, Leonard Ball of Taunton.

Also surviving are 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mr. Ball was predeceased by one daughter, Mrs. R. West (Maud) on January 24, 1954 and by one son, Henry Ball on August 16, 1953.

The memorial service was held at the Armstrong Funeral Home on Friday, January 14. Rev. E. S. Linstead of Paisley, formerly of Hamton, conducted the services. Interment in Zion Cemetery.

GREEN RIVER

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. W. A. Hamilton. The many friends of Mrs. J. Hawthorne are pleased to hear that she is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gall and family called at the Hutchings home one evening last week.

Sorry to report that Mr. T. Bowles is not so well as his friends would like him to be.

Quite a number of children are still victims of the mumps. Mr. and Mrs. H. Ridge called on Mr. A. Hutchings on Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. and evening worship at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome.

ATHA

Congratulations to Mr. Bruce McDowell who for his hockey ability has been chosen to play with the Detroit Red Wings. Bruce is the very best success.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones who were married Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Hurley called on Mr. and Mrs. A. Draper on Monday evening.

Mrs. McDonald spent Wednesday in Stouffville with her daughter, Mrs. Johnston.

Mr. Jack Hockey, Claremont, and Mr. Ernie Carulhars are attending the Refrigerator School in Toronto this week. Several of the pupils are out of school with flu.

GLOBE & MAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS

New or Renewals may be paid at the office of the Stouffville.

BROUGHAM

Brougham Library

The Annual Meeting of Brougham Library will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 26th, at 8:15 p.m. in the Library. Everyone interested in the progress of the Library is cordially welcome and urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harvey of Tall Pines, Haliburton, spent the weekend at the home of his brother, Al and Mrs. Harvey.

Mr. Ross Middleton of Claremont, also Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Middleton and daughters, Bonney and Peggie of Box Grove visited with Mrs. Lemmon on Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Philip had tea on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Cassie.

Mrs. N. Burton has a hen that believes in doing things on a big scale. One day recently she laid an egg which measured 9" x 7 1/2" and which contained another complete egg—shell and all—within the outer shell.

The President and members of the Brougham Women's Institute wish to express their appreciation to the Stouffville Tribune for the prompt and efficient service they have received during the past year.

Mrs. Lemmon visited friends at Malton on Sunday evening. Sorry to report that Miss M. Ritchie who has been staying with her brother, had the misfortune to slip on some ice, breaking her right wrist, one day recently.

The regular weekly Euchre was held in the Hall on Tuesday evening when the following were lucky winners: Miss E. Coakwell, Mrs. M. Klink and Mrs. H. Plaxton. Mr. A. Klink, Mr. C. Hardy and Mr. R. Carlton. The traveling prizes went to Mrs. M. Ellicott and Mr. Bagshaw.

The annual meeting of the Sunday School of St. John's Church was held on January 12th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellicott, with Rev. H. Lackey presiding. The treasurer's report was very satisfactory showing a balance of $104.55 on hand, and also showing an average attendance of 57. Mr. Ross Knox, the Superintendent for the past year, thanked all for their co-operation during the past year in the Sunday School. The election of officers and teachers for the coming year resulted as follows:

Supt., Mr. Ross Knox; Asst., Mr. Frank Carter; Secty., Mrs. Isabel Annis; Asst. Secty., Mr. Bill Ellicott; Treas., Mr. Manson Ellicott; Missionary Supt., Mrs. Esther White; Temperance Supt., Mr. Allan Ellicott; Pianists, Miss Georgina Duncan, Miss Anna Phillip, Miss Joan Barclay; Cradle Roll Supt., Mrs. Fern Miller; Teachers—Young Peoples' Class, Mr. Hugh Miller; Intermediate Class, Mrs. Sowerley, Mrs. Geo. Duncan and Mrs. F. Carter; Jr. Class (girls), Mrs. H. Barclay and Mrs. Reaman; Jr. Class (boys), Mrs. J. White; Asst., Mrs. Geo. Duncan; Primary, Misses Joan Barclay and Anna Phillip; Beginners, Mrs. H. Miller, and Mrs. Mansen Ellicott. The meeting closed with the benediction after which lunch was served by Mrs. Ellicott.

The old-fashioned family doctor has disappeared, says a writer. He probably dropped out at the same time as the old-fashioned family.

The world will probably continue to be more or less in turmoil until man's wisdom catches up with his knowledge.

GREENWOOD

The Sunday School meeting was held last Thursday night in the basement of the church, and reports were given showing a very good year in '54. The election of officers was held by Rev. Mr. Moore:

Supt., Mr. M. Pegg; Asst., F. Hayward; Secty., John Griffen; Treas., David Robertson; Pianist, Jean Pascoe; Asst., Mrs. Wilson; Beginners Class, Mrs. Cossin; Asst., M. Pegg; Primary Class, Mrs. P. Wilson; Asst., Mrs. Pascoe; Jr. Girls, Jean Pascoe; Asst., Marion Wilson; Jr. Boys, Joe Pegg; Asst., Alfred Pegg; Y.P. Class, Mr. F. Hayward and Mrs. G. Henning; Adult Class, Mrs. M. Pegg; Asst., Mrs. Wm. Lawson; Missionary Supt., Mrs. C. McTaggart; Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Hayward; Temperance, Mrs. Pascoe, Mrs. Closson and Mrs. E. Pegg; Cradle Roll, Mrs. Rose Cole; Auditor, F. Hayward.

Sunday School commences at 10 o'clock, and Church Service at 11:15.

The Afternoon W.A. met last Thursday afternoon at the parsonage with 13 present. The devotional service was taken by Group I. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved and it was decided to have the Birthday Fund, Money Belt and Bazaar again this year. On the 16th of Feb. the Downham Nursery of Bowmanville are coming to show us a series of pictures on "Landscaping Your Home". These pictures are worth seeing; tickets may be had from any member of the W.A. Patches were brought in for a quilt to be quilted at our Feb. Meeting. Mrs. Moore served lunch.

Farm Forum met last Monday night the 10th at the home of Chas. and Mrs. McTaggart. A discussion on the broadcast on Agriculture Fairs and how they could be improved, was held. Ken Brooks led in a contest, "The Mystery Person", followed by Euchre and lunch. A project on Historic Research was decided upon to start; this we will hear more about later. On Jan. 19th the Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Len Waltham of Kiasale; reports of this meeting will be in next week's paper.

The Y.P.S. met at the Pegg brothers last Sunday night, with Pat Brooks in charge of the program. A skating party was held at Brooklyn Arena last Saturday, then at the Waltham home a birthday party was held for Joe Pegg. This Sunday's meeting will be at the Brooks' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Crozier have sold their store to an Oshawa man and are moving soon. Sorry to lose them from our midst.

Mrs. V. Wardle and daughter of Frankford were guests over the weekend at the Wm. Lawson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howie Dawson and daughters, of Weston, were Sunday visitors with Les and Mrs. Wilson.

A Euchre was held last Friday night in the schoolhouse. Winners were—Mrs. P. Clarke, Mrs. D. Morden, I. McLean and Wm. Brown Jr. The next one will be on Jan. 28th.

Mrs. John Brooks was in the city for a day last week, visiting her mother, Mrs. Keddel.

One of the easiest ways to go on a diet is to stop buying the tasty things you can't afford.

The world will probably continue to be more or less in turmoil until man's wisdom catches up with his knowledge.

Hundred and Forty-two Books Added to Library

The annual meeting of the Claremont Library Board was held on Friday evening. During the past year 142 books have been added to the library files at a cost of $300. They include all types of novels, non-fiction, historical, travel, biographies and others. The library has 53 members.

Mrs. Geo. McConnell was appointed President for the ensuing year. The other officers are as follows: Vice Pres., Don Hedges; Secty., Miss Viola Forsyth; Treas., Dr. N. F. Tomlinson and Librarian, Mrs. Tom Gregg. The Board members are Mrs. Grant Taylor, Mrs. L. Irwin, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. Clare Keovil and Mrs. Dick Cooper.

Winners at the euchre held on Monday evening of last week were: Ladies—1st, Mrs. Irene Riddle; 2nd, Laura Reynolds; Men—1st, Wes Lehman; 2nd, W. Ward. The door prize went to Mrs. Art Spencer. The travelling prizes went to Mrs. Howard Pugh and Mr. Levi Linton.

On Thursday, Feb. 3rd, the mothers of the Brownie and Guides Association are holding a Spode Demonstration in the Claremont Community Hall at 8 p.m. The admission price is 50c. During the evening twelve lucky draw prizes will be selected for gifts donated by Mr. Ken Wagg, Stouffville Jeweller.

GOODWOOD

Mrs. Eric Granger was admitted to St. Joseph's hospital, Toronto, last Wednesday for observation and treatment. We are glad to report that she was able to return home Monday.

The Merry Mixers are having a skating party in the Uxbridge Arena Saturday, Jan. 22. Cars are to leave at 7:30. Lunch will be served after skating, in the church basement.

The cast of the play "Don't Darken My Door" is rehearsing in preparation for its presentation at Greenbank on Jan. 26 and at Oshawa Jan. 28.

The Explorers Group had a re-organization meeting Monday evening at Mrs. Earl Tindall's. Mrs. Tindall is leader of the group with Marilyn Slack as assistant. All girls eight to twelve, who would like to join the Explorers, will be welcome.

The Executive of the W.A. met at Mrs. Herb Wagg's home last Wednesday afternoon to plan the meetings for the year.

Miss Faye Bunker of Toronto to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Bunker.

Mrs. Cairns who has been ill for the past several months at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Robinson, was admitted to the Toronto Western Hospital on Saturday. We hope she may soon be sufficiently recuperated to return to her home in Western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Maye of Toronto visited his father, Mr. George Maye, on Sunday.

A good representation from Goodwood, Siloam and Fifth-line attended the pot-luck supper and annual congregational meeting held in the United Church basement last Thursday. Rev. Davis of Stouffville conducted the meeting and the following is the new slate of

Pickering Township To Form Separate Planning Board

Pickering Township hopes to form its own Planning Board in the near future. They are presently awaiting the approval of the Department of Planning and Development. Since 1948 Pickering Twp. has formed part of a joint Planning Board with Whitby. Pickering's new Board will comprise eight members and the Reeve.

A Recreation Committee has been formed. The members are Robert Miller, Don Beer, Gene Ellicott, Grant Johnson and Ross Knox. The two representatives from Council are Messrs Wm. Lawson and Sid Pugh.

Council has decided to continue their policy of strict subdivision control. Wherever a subdivision is being planned, Council intends to look into the prospects of industry with every application.

CHERRYWOOD

The ladies of Cherrywood W.A. and their friends enjoyed a delicious pot luck luncheon on Wednesday. This was followed by the regular monthly meeting in charge of the president, Mrs. R. Tindall, who opened the meeting with a New Year's poem. Mrs. Geo. Todd gave the devotional, theme of which was "Friends". Reports were read and approved. Announcements were made of the annual W.A. meeting in Hope United Church on Jan. 25, and the annual W.M.S. meeting in Kew Beach United Church on Feb. 1st. Plans were discussed for a Bazaar on June 15th and a Bake Sale at Atkinson's Sales Arena at Stouffville on Sat. Jan. 29th.

Thank-you's were expressed by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Judd, Mrs. M. Hollinger and Mrs. W. Gates and Mr. E. Glenisty. The President read the new constitution and then the meeting was closed with the W.A. benediction.

Cherrywood W.A. ladies are having a sale of Baking and Candy at Atkinson's Sales Arena at Stouffville on Saturday, Jan. 29th.

The Annual Church meeting will be held on Thursday evening, Jan. 27. A pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. During the evening a set of slides showing phases of the Churches work during the year will be shown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hodgson of Bloomfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hodgson and family of Belleville spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Petty.

A really good friend is the fellow who will help you out without giving you that look that makes you feel cheap.

Mr. Ronnie French, Toronto, visited on Wednesday with Mrs. Edgar Johnson and Geo.

GLEN MAJOR

Mr. George Nokes, Toronto, spent the weekend at his home. Mr. Alec Hingston and boys, Toronto, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hingston.

Several skiers out to Skyloft on Sunday, lots of cars parked all over the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones and Shirley visited Sunday with Mrs. F. Walls and boys, Brookline.

Miss Eleanor Johnson, Toronto, was unable to spend the weekend at home because she has the mumps.

Mr. George Gibson spent the

SPODE DEMONSTRATION

in the Claremont Community Hall THURSDAY, FEB. 3rd, 8 P.M.

Admission 35c — Refreshments Sponsored by the Mothers of the Brownies & Guides Association. Twelve lucky draws donated by Mr. Ken Wagg, Stouffville Jeweller.

ALWAYS START WITH

CO-OP

CHICK STARTER

Where's that CO-OP feed?

Sold only at

YOUR LOCAL CO-OP

Claremont CO-OP Claremont Phone 38