When carefree elephants are feeding in the forest the noise of breaking branches and trees crashing to the ground is ear-splitting. But let danger threaten, and the whole herd of massive beasts may slip away from the area with hardly a twig snapped.

CEDAR GROVE

Cedar Grove School Library is fast coming to life. For a long time the library has been not much more than a word, but recently the word has taken on new meaning. Last night the Community Club presented 70 new books to the school. The actual presentation to the children will be accompanied by a visit from our book expert, Blodwen Davies, who will talk about books and tell the children what is being made available to them through their new library.

"Child, do not throw this book about; refrain from the unholy pleasure of cutting all the pictures out; regard it as your choicest treasure."

There was some discussion at this month's C C meeting over the planning board's plans for this end of the township. It was moved that a little research be done on this point and an attempt be made to find out just what is to become of our green fields. It was also decided that the meetings, held the last Monday in each month will no longer be all work and no play. The business meetings will be interspersed with a special events night occasionally.

There were a few mishaps in the village this week. Mr. Clendenen dropped a tool on his arm and broke his wrist. A nasty aftermath to such a pleasant anniversary celebration. The teacher sprained her back and spent a very miserable few days before she felt like resuming her duties. Mrs. Tapscott has been visiting Bert and Ida this week but has been told by her doctor that she must rest for a month.

Here are the winners for the first night of the new Euchre series: Mrs. B. Dight, Rouge Hill; Mrs. H. Swain, Stouffville; Mrs. W. Hollinger, Pickering; Mike Dean, H. Swain and Geo. Carr.

Markham Township — what is happening to it, why and to what purpose? Is its progress guided and to what extent? Is its rapid growth inevitable? These troublesome thoughts have been creeping into our minds for some time now, and the future is a mystery to most of us. Township planning is of interest to so many people that Cedar Grove Community Club has asked Dr. Douglas Tanner to speak on the subject. Dr. Tanner is a member of the planning board and has been chairman. He is interested in the future of the area and is well qualified to present the problems, work and reasons for the Planning Board. The night is Tuesday, March 29, and the place the school-house. Everyone is welcome to attend whether a member of the club or not. The invitation is also extended to other villages in the area.

Don and Norma Cornelius officially moved into their pretty new home last Saturday. It will be nice to see the lights in the windows in the evening; from now on.

Levi Booth is out of hospital and is at the Albert Booth's at present. Sorry to report that Miss Nellie Lapp has not been very well lately. Many thanks to all the kind people who have so often asked about my mother. I am happy to say she is recovering very well now and may I add that your generous interest was a great help over a very difficult period. —Pat

At the March meeting of the WMS it was decided to have a Phantom Tea this year in place of the usual banquet. For further details, get in touch with your group leaders. An invitation to the Easter Thanksgiving was accepted from Locust Hill. The date, April 13. The Wastepaper Drive is now on. Please tie papers in small, neat bundles. Last year some of the bundles were so big that no-one could carry them.
