The People Left in Judah

THEY PETITION JEREMIAH TO INTERCEDE WITH JEHOVAH, BUT WILL NOT ACCEPT HIS MESSAGE

Scripture-II Kings 25:10-12; Jeremiah 40-44.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL OUR EDITOR of Peloubet's Notes, Wilbur M. Smith, D.D. cannot recall a lesson that has been based on the Scriptures given in today's lesson. It should therefore be new to all of us. 'It begins with two verses from II Kings which were included in last week's lesson: "And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

"Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the kingdom of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard carry away.

"If ye will still abide in this land, then will II build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent Me of the evil that I have done to you."

They were warned not to go to Egypt as they were tempted to because it seemed a land of peace and plenty. If they did that, Jeremiah said, they would die by the sword, by pestilence and by

He could remain in Judah or go to Batylon, where he promised he would'be treated well. Jeremiah decided to stay with the remnant of his people.

Nebuzaradan also told Jeremiah that he should go to Gedaliah, in Mizpah and tell him-that the king of Babylon had appointed Therefore. I will set My face him governor of Judah. He was stagainst you for evil, and to cut the last of the line of David to hold an important post in the kingdom. Mizpah was in Benjamin, on the boundary of the northern and southern kingdoms. So Jerenijah dwelt with Gedaliah and the people that were left in the land. Gedaliah as governor seemed to have the approval of all, but his officers informed him BANQUET, Stuart Ball, Albert Jordan, had sent Ishmael, a descendant of David, to kill him.

The rumor proved true, Ishmael murdered not only Gedaliah, but those around him who had aided him in maintaining order in the nation. The brutal deed was done so secretly that Ishmael thought the Jews would not know he had done it.
