

Angry Motorist Hooks at Mower
 GLEN, BURNIE, Md. — Otis Morley told Monday how his power mower got away from him and went chugging across Crain highway with no one in control.
 Morley said a motorist, who narrowly missed the machine, reacted in the characteristic manner of angry drivers everywhere from him and went chugging where. He bonked at it.

Gormley Vacation Bible School

The Gormley Vacation Bible School reports a fine attendance this year. The total enrollment was 191 and an average of 159 children attended each day.
 The School, under the direction of Rev. C. E. Hunking, opened Tuesday, July 26, and the closing exercises and display of crafts took place Friday evening, August 5. Many parents were present to see the children perform.
 The Beginners class, conducted in the church basement, was taught by Mrs. Bevan and her assistant, Mrs. Melvin Baker. The teacher of the Preschool class, held in the church shed, was Margaret Burkholder and her assistants were Mrs. Delbert Baker and Marie Baker. Mrs. Russell Taylor was in charge of the Primary group, held in the church basement. Her assistants were Mrs. Gordon Cullen, Mrs. Jones and Grace Bolender. Also in the basement was the Junior class, conducted by Mrs. Fred Yake and her assistant, Mrs. Ralph Baker. Rev. Hunking taught the Senior boys in the basement of the parsonage and Mrs. Glenn Bolender conducted the Senior girls class, also in the parsonage basement. Occasional helpers during the 2 weeks were Mrs. Murray Bennet and Mrs. Paul Farmer. The musical director was Mr. Alvin Farmer with Mrs. Albert Hawkins as pianist.

As the voice of experience comes from the past, many people refuse to listen to it because they consider it old-fashioned.
