SHOULD YOU PEEL TOMATOES? To peel or not to peel tomatoes is often the question. The skin can be taken off if the ripe tomatoes are dipped in boiling water for a fraction of a minute, and then plunged into cold water right away. On the other hand, why not eat the skin? For what is better as a snack, or as part of a work-day lunch, than a ripe red tomato which is easy to handle in the fingers, with the skin serving as a jacket. WEDDINGS: MIDDLETON—WELDON: Stouffville United Church was the setting on Wednesday, August 10th, for the marriage of Carol Jean Weldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riches and James Richard Middleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Middleton of Welland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Douglas Davis, assisted by Rev. Lloyd Freal. The soloist was Mr. Lorne Boadway, with Mrs. Charles Nolan at the organ. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Heather White Chantilly lace and pleated tulle, the bouffant skirt fashioned with a star-pointed lace over-skirt above the tiers of finely-pleated tulle. Her waist-length veil was caught to a pleated period headdress and she carried an orchid on her white Bible. Mrs. Eileen Tate of Napanee, sister of the bride, as matron of honour, and the other attendants, Mrs. Norma Brillinger, Miss Lorna Wilson of Bracebridge and Miss Janet Weldon of Cambridge were waltz-length dresses of ice-pink crystalettes over taffeta with matching hats and gloves. Their bouquets were of pink roses with white and blue cornflowers. Mr. Howard Murray of Toronto was groomsmen and the ushers were Dr. William Blastorah of Peterboro, Mr. Frank Tate of Napanee and Dr. Edward Henderson of Welland. At the reception, which followed in the Church Parlours, the guests were received by the bride's mother who wore Elizabethan rose Provincial lace with corsage of Johanna Hill roses, assisted by the mother of the groom in Sierra Mauve French lace accented by a corsage of pink roses. Following a trip to Muskoka Mr. and Mrs. Middleton will reside in Brandon, Manitoba, where the groom is with the Industrial Acceptance Corporation and the bride is a member of the staff of Brandon College. SCHNEIDER — PUGH: Stouffville United Missionary Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, August 10th, when Phyllis Yvonne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Pugh of Stouffville was united in marriage to Mr. Elroy Schneider of Moorefield, Ont. Rev. D. T. Pugh of Spring Bay, Manitoulin Island, brother of the bride, officiated assisted by Rev. Frank Huson. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in chantilly lace and net over satin embroidered with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried white gladioli and sweetheart roses. Mrs. J. W. Colley was her sister's only attendant. Little Ruth Marie Colley, niece of the bride, was flower girl. They were dressed alike in turquoise nylon over taffeta, with scalloped neckline and sleeves. They carried gladioli and roses, the flower girl carrying a nosegay of pom-pom zinnias. Mr. Floyd Schneider, acted as
