

Buttonville News

Mrs. James McQuay spent a few days with her sister in Oshawa last week.

Misses Kathy and Susan Rowlands were guests of their grandparents recently while their parents were house-hunting at Gananoque. Mr. Rowlands has been transferred there by his firm.

Beverly Burr chalked up another judging achievement at the C.N.E. this year. She was in the first prize group in the Vegetable Judging and came 5th in a class of fifty-one judging Dairy Cattle.

Presentations were made recently to Grace Rodick who left this week to attend the University of Western Ontario at London. The gift from the Sunday School, where she has taught a group of small children, was a brief case; the Young Peoples, of which she was president, presented her with a Hummel figure, and the gift from the choir was hosiery.

Miss Kathleen Walker of Unionville stayed with Mrs. Russell Boyington last weekend while Mr. Boyington went on a fishing trip.

A meeting of the executive of the Harmony Club was held in

Brown's Corners Church on Tuesday of last week. Plans were made for various autumn activities. On Saturday of this week, members will cater for the Quarter Century Club party of the Massey-Harris Co. at M.H. Farms. Later this fall there will be a bazaar held at Buttonville Hall.

On Thursday of last week 2 groups of Harmony catered for a chicken barbecue held at Leitchcroft Farm for the Agricultural Institute of Canada. Conveners were Mrs. A. W. Miller and Mrs. H. Patterson.

On Saturday of last week Buttonville W.I. members catered for the Tatters-Couperthwaite wedding reception which was held in Buttonville Hall.

On Monday evening of last week, friends in the community gathered at Buttonville Hall to honour Yvonne Magee at a miscellaneous shower. Yvonne, whose marriage will take place this coming Saturday morning at St. Gabriel's Roman Catholic Church, Shepherd Avenue, received many beautiful gifts and the good wishes of her friends. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. Elmore Hill and Mrs. Dick Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper, Miss Dorothy Hooper and Mr. Bill Ross motored to Pennsylvania and New Jersey over the holiday week-end.

When the Young People's Association of Brown's Corners United Church met for their first meeting on Sunday, Sept. 11, they elected two new officers to replace Grace Rodick and Bob Miller who are now at Western and O.A.C. respectively. The new president and Vice-president are Dorothy Hood and Donald Gohn.

Births

KUDELKA—At York County Hospital, Sept. 10, 1955, to John and Kay Kudelka, a son James Alexander.

HERBERT—Edward and Ruth are delighted with God's gift of a son, David Leonard, born Sept. 18, 1955, at the Brierbush Hospital, a welcome brother for Timothy.

Additional Locals

L. E. O'Neill's furniture store received a fresh coat of paint this week. At the other end of town, Fred Jackson has been busy with the paint brush, touching up the fronts of several stores in the business block west of the tracks.

Mrs. J. Irwin of Stouffville received news by telegram on Tuesday that her brother-in-law, Rev. H. Baldwin of St. Petersburg, Florida, had passed away. It was only last summer that Rev. Baldwin and daughters visited with friends and relatives, here in Stouffville.

CLAREMONT—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gregg and Jennifer, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gregg, have returned to their home in Malartic, Que.

Rev. D. Davis of Stouffville United Church will preach at the anniversary services in Loctust Hill United Church on Sunday evening next. The Choir from Stouffville United will also be present to provide special music.

Members of the Art Class met for their first night class of the season on Tuesday evening at the High School. New members are still needed for the Beginners' Group and anyone desiring to learn oil painting would certainly find it a very relaxing and interesting hobby, under the able direction of Mr. Arnold Hodgkins. The Senior group will begin lessons on Tuesday evening, Sept. 27th, and will alternate from then on with the Beginners' Group—their first lesson being on October 4th.

LOCAL STORE SET FOR BIG BONUS OCT. SALE

It has been revealed to this paper by Mr. John Houston, the local Rexall pharmacist, that the big Fall Rexall Sale will be held this year on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 18 to 22.

Long a feature of the fall season, the sales are held from coast to coast in Canada, and each year the mammoth event is eagerly awaited by the public.

For the convenience of patrons, all sale items and Bonus Buys are listed on advance order blanks obtainable at Houstons prior to the sale. Shoppers may mark on these blanks the items they desire, and leave the blanks at the store. Their order will then be filled and may be called for at any time during the four days of the sale.

The essential feature of the sale is that double quantities of nationally advertised drugs and other products will be offered to Stouffville area residents for only one penny more than the regular unit price. A fresh stock of all items will await your buying pleasure.

Remember, you buy one article, and get the next one for only
